Surveyors Through Burton.

The surveyors of the proposed electric line from Valentine to a connection with the Northwestern at some point on the Bonesteel line, passed through Burton Wednesday on their way to Valentine. They are looking the line over and getting some statistics for Mr. Cornell.

As soon as this party of surveyors reach Valentine with the statistics they are preparing, Mr. Palmer will meet them and he and Mr. Cornell will soon be able to prepare the proposition for the investor and it will be submitted at once.—Burton Independent.

While Col. Geo. Tracewell was feeding a horse yesterday morning the animal kicked him and knocked him down and tramped on his right ankle to such an extent that several small bones in his ankle were broken. He will probably be laid up for several weeks.

L. H. Overman's barn burned down last Wendesday at Crookston. Lost hay, grain and harnesses and had but $500 insurance on the whole. It was a bad blow to our old friend.

Geo. W. Roan was in town Monday and says he and his brother shipped out four loads of cattle from Wood Lake that day. Hope they strike a good market.

Mat Boltz was in town Monday carrying his arm in a sling. Broke it he says by falling out of a wagon, tipped out over a seat.

Tripp County to Have Road.

The Northwestern has filed notice, as is required in South Dakota, six months in advance of building, that it will build a road through Tripp Co. and on a 120 miles from Dallas.

Just what route it will take across Tripp Co., it is stated, is not decided upon but the route filed runs three miles north of Lamro. The people of Lamro say Lamro will build to connect with it and the road will develope a new string of towns in Tripp County.—Burton Independent.

Thoroughbred Hereford Sale.

The attention of our readers is called to the public sale of the Brookmont Herefords at O'Neill, Nebr., Thursday, Nov. 18, 1909. There will be 40 head of Hereford cattle in this sale. The best of blood lines are represented and cattle of pronounced individual merit. Those of our readers that have followed Hereford history for the last 20 years are familiar with this herd of cattle. Some of the best sires of the breed have been used in building up this herd and it is conceded that Brookmont Farm has one of the greatest collections of Hereford cattle in the United States. They are making this sale at O'Neill on account of having a surplus of cattle on hand and with a desire to get acquainted with and extend their trade among the breeders and farmers of Nebraska. This will, undoubtedly, be the most desirable bunch of Hereford cattle sold in the state of Nebraska this fall, Cows, Heifers and bulls. Ask for a catalog which can be had by addressing either Cooks Brookmont Farm, Odebolt, Ia., or R. W. Barclay, Mason City, Ia., the Auctioneer in charge of the sale.
