FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

FINANCIAL

NEW YORK, May 1.—Money—Easy at 1 @1½ per cent, closing at ½ per cent.

Prime mercantile paper—4@5a.

Sterling Exchange Bills Very quiet at $4 86; demand, $4 88.

Governments—Quiet and strong for 3's, which show a gain of ¼ per cent. in price bid, while 4's are ½ per cent lower.

Stocks—There was a continuing to-day of dullness which has been a prominent feature of the stock market for some time past. The market was steady at opening and continued strong throughout the day and till late in the afternoon, when a combined attack was made on the whole list, which resulted in depressing prices for fractional amounts only, and the attack was not withdrawn till the close of the board. Final prices are lower, within ½ to ¾ per cent, of lowest of the day for nearly every thing on the list whose extreme fluctuations exceeded 1 per cent.
