THE DAY AT LINCOLN.

ITEMS OF ALL SORTS.

Reported by The BEE'S Bureau.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 2.—As the world's exposition is about to close its labors, and recognizing that Nebraska stood well to the front if not in the lead of all exhibitors as an agricultural and grain producing land, it may be mentioned that one of Lincoln's citizens has been given the credit and honored as being instrumental in assisting Nebraska to obtain a prominent position in so grand an exhibition. Recently J. C. Bonnell was the recipient of a very elegant gold medal about two inches square. The outer edges represent ears of corn, while in the center is a panel containg the American flag, representative of a panel made by Mr. Bonnell. Attached to the medal at the top is a beautiful gold enameled monogram "J. C. B." On the medal is the following inscription in raised gold letters:

"1884-1885.
New Orleans Exposition.

Robert W. Furnas, United States commissioner for Nebraska, to John C. Bonnell, artist of the state exhibit of Nebraska. She is just 18 years old."

Accompanying the medal is a complimentary letter from Mr. Furnas, in which he says of the medal and Mr. Bonnell's work: "Feeling that you artistic taste and work at the New Orleans expositlon have contributed so largely to attract attention to and popularize the Nebraska exhibit, and that something more perpetuating than a mere thank-word should be yours, I take pleasure in presenting you, as a souvenir, a gold medal representing your last and best work, known as the flag panel, and which I am proud to believe has attracted more attention and admiration than any other one object in the government building. Thanking you, both personally and in behalf of the state, for the valuable assistance you have rendered me in presenting our glorious young state to the eyes of the whole world in a way and manner calling forth universal commendation, I remain, yours very truly, ROBERT W. FURNAS,
United States Commissioner for Nebraska."

The annual commencement of the high school will take place this evening in the opera house.

The city council have decided to make another test of the new water works, naming Saturday, June 6th, as the time, when it is hoped they will prove a greater success than when the first test was made. Water has twice been pumped in the stand pipe which proved secure.

The following named teachers have been employed for the coming school year: E. T. Hartley, superintendent, S. P. Barrett principal of high school; L. Fossler, Misses Treeman, Kingsley, Shuckman, Walsh, Kaufman, Covey, Elliott, Bertha Hebard, Lowe and Hardy, Mrs. Tiffany, Mrs. Threw and Mrs. Franklin, C. D. Griffin as principal of the Park school; Misses Byam, Stephens, Thompson, Wolfe and Mrs. Hardenburgh, G. W. McKinnon as principal of the T street school; Mrs. Marie Hebbard, Harvey, Lizzie Smith, Morrisey, Coy, Rullifson, Riley, Parks, Cox, Jenny Smith, Mrs. Simmons and Mr. I. M. Snell.

The state offices all closed Tuesday morning.

The secretary of state says he will send out the last of this week, to district and county officers, copies of the session laws of 1885.

The baptist church of this city has for several weeks been deprived of ministration from their regular pastor, the Rev. Pierce, who was summoned to the bedside of his dying father in Philadelphia.

A large number of friends, including the secretary, treasurer, auditor, attorney general and land office force, with their deputies and clerks, attended services at Commissioner Scott's residence over the remains of Irvin Scott. Several friends accompany the parents with the body to Kearney, where services will be held to-day.

John Wildman, all the way from Council Bluffs, determined to test the strength of Lincoln liquor and law. For the first offense he got five dollars and costs, which he paid; he tried again and got eight dollars and costs and will pound stone a few days.

S. S. Allee, of Wilber, sargeant-at-arms of the senate two years ago, spent the day here Tuesday en route to Nebraska City and Omaea.

John Stein, of Wahoo, one of the postoffice inspectors, is in the city.

L. C. McBride, who has recently been on the Nebraska City & Grand Island run as mail route agent, is needed no longer by Mr. Vilas. Mr. St. Clair, of Febraska City, who is a loyal democrat, takes Mr. McBride's run.

Owing to sales of lots in additions, and to dime museums, and to other minor matters, Lincoln is receiving the benefit of much music from brass bands.

The building boom has struck Lincoln and is materially assisting Tenth street.

Some curious relelations as to the process by which sermons are manufactured were given in a case in London law courts last week. A vicar at Deptford had, it seems, employed the wife of a foreman in a manufactory there to assist him in concocting his sermons, promising to "remember her" in his will by way of remuneration. He, however, omitted to make one, and her claim of £100 a year compensation was not legally enforceable, theuch, if the vicar inflicted two sermons a Sunday on his congregation, the amount was not excessive for the work done. For she had to select the subject and texts, and then, "out of five family bibles by different authors, she collected the notes, references, and authorities, and set them in order.

MONEY! MONEY!! MONEY!!! Money to Loan—On chattel security by W. R. Croft, room 4, Withnell building, N. E. corner 15th and Harney. After years of experience and a careful study of the business of loaning money on personal property, I have at last perfected a system whereby the publicity usual in such cases is done away with, and I am now in a position to meet the demands of all who become temporarily embarrassed and desire to raise money without delay and in a quiet manner. Housekeepers, professional gentlemen, mechanics and others in this city can obtain advances from $10 to $1,000 on such security as household furniture, pianos, machinery, horses, wagons, warehouse receipts, secured notes of hand, etc., without removing same from owners residence or place of business. One of the advantages I offer is that any part of any loan can be paid at any time which will reduce the interest pro rata and all loans renewed at the original rates of interest. I have no brokers in connection with my office, but personally superintend all my loans. I have private offices connected with my general office so that customers do not come in contact with each other, consequently making all transactions strictly private. W. R.
