Crop Damage Reports Continue to Be the Bull Factor.

ALL THE GRAIN MARKETS SHOW ADVANCE

Wheat is Specially Affected by the Rains, While Provisions, on the Other Hand, All Record Losses.

CHICAGO, June 10.—The advance in corn, the excessive rains and complaints from every direction of crop damage, strengthened wheat prices today. July closed ½c and September 5-8@¾c higher. Corn left off 7-8@1c up and oats advanced ½c. Pork lost 30c, lard 15c and ribs 22½c.

The crop damage reports continued to be the chief bull item in wheat at the start. There seemed to be a growing apprehension that the harvest would be seriously delayed and that the grain would suffer serious injury. Wheat in the southern half of Kansas was said to be about ready for the harvest, while the fields were said to be flooded. Numerous other telegrams from different parts of the country sent equally bad reports, but interspersed with the heralds of calamity, there were a few others of a reassuring character, suggesting the possibility of the alleged disaster being more imagination than the actual facts. There was a disposition to await for the government report, and this acted as a check to speculation. The clearing up of the weather in Chicago caused a temporary change in speculative sentiment. The sun in about two hours after the opening of the session was beaming in at the windows of the Board of Trade and melted all the bull feeling out of the crowd at the pit. From being strong the market became weak and the gain today was more than lost. General buying by shorts gave the market a fresh impetus near the close. Chicago receipts of wheat were eighty-one cars, against six a year ago. Minneapolis and Duluth received 221 cars, compared with 228 the corresponding day of 1897. Atlantic port clearances were equal in wheat and flour to 590,000 bu. July began ⅛c lower to ⅛c higher at 87⅝@88c, sold up to 89c, fell to 87c, then firmed up to 88¾c bid, the closing figure. September started ⅛c higher at 75 3-8@75⅛c, advanced to 76⅛c, declined to 74½c, then rose to 75 1-8c asked at the close.

The trade in the corn pit was the most active on the floor. The country came forth in vigorous terms in various telegrams describing the injurious effect of too much rain. Shorts made a general rush to cover to escape being frozen stiff with what afterward proved to be cheap property and liberal buying orders were filled for the country account. July started 3-8@½c higher at 32 7-8@33c, advanced to 33⅜c, then settled down to 33 3-8@⅓c at the close.

Crop reports were unfavorable for oats, the general complaint being that the heavy rains have beaten down the grain beyond recovery. There was a large business transacted at higher prices. July opened 3-8@½c higher at 24 1-8@24¼c, sold up to 24 7-8c, down to 23¾@23 7-8c, then rose to 24⅛c at the close.

A decided slump in provisions contrasted strongly with the general strength in grains. The decline was ascribed to reports of yellow fever in Mississippi. Commission houses started sellers at the opening and prices continued to sag gradually and had only a small recovery at the close from bottom prices. July pork opened 10@15c higher, sold down steadily to $10.15, rallied to $ 0.40 the closing figure; July lard started 10c down at $5.35, sold up to $6.00, then fell to $5.90, the closing prices; July ribs began 25c lower at $5.52½, advanced to $5.60@5.62½, declined to $5.52½, then rose to $5.55 at the close.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow are: Wheat, 85 cars; corn, 725 cars; oats, 200 cars; hogs, 16,000 head.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

Bull Contingent Takes Hold and Gives All Prices a Boom.

NEW YORK, June 10.—There was a brief struggle in the first hour of today's stock market to extend the reaction which has been in progress during the week, when the prices suddenly and vigorously took an upward turn and it was a runaway bull campaign for the rest of the day. There was enormous absorption of stocks on the ascending scale of prices, especially in Sugar, Brooklyn Transit, the Grangers and a few of the leading specialties. The picking up of inactive and dormant stocks, however, distinguished the trading quite as much as the aggressive strength in the great speculative leaders. The advance was made in the face of several incidents any one of which would have been seized upon to weld down the whole list in the reactionary spirit of the earlier part of the week, but they were without the slightest influence in restraining the heavy buying of stocks. One of these incidents was the marking down of prices for Americans in London on the score of the chronic British apprehension that the currency and finances of the United States were being unsettled and ruined by the nation's supreme legislative body. London sold stocks early on this ground, but at the extreme decline bought a little bit of Louisville and Southern Railway preferred. These stocks suffered depreciation from the fear that the establishment of quarantines against yellow fever in the south would interrupt traffic and cut down their earnings. There was a disposition at the opening also to continue the bear campaign against Sugar and the price was driven down over a point in the first hour, but advanced during the rest of the day of the extreme rise being 5⅝ per cent. Reports from the growing crops awakened an urgent demand for the Grangers. The stocks of the whole group were eagerly bought, but Burlington led with a net gain of 2⅝. St. Paul was held back awhile by London selling, but finally joined in the advance. The southwestern Granger roads also had the benefit of the crop prospects, especially Atchison preferred, which is up 1-3 on the day. It was noticeable that the specialties which have been strong during the late weakness in the market fell into the background, except Brooklyn Transit, which continued its conspicuous advance with an addition of 4 points to the price. The market closed active and strong near the top. Bonds merely held their own in the early dealings, but prices rose and the volume of business increased later in the day. Total sales, $4,685,000. United States old 4s, registered, on call declined ¼ in the bid price, but later bid up ½ per cent.

The Evening Post's London financial cablegram says: The stock markets were quiet and dull today, the speculative markets being depressed by the sharp setback in Grand Trunk on unfavorable traffic statements. The buying of Grand Trunk has been ragged for some time past and the temporary relapse is not surprising. Americans suffered with Grand Trunk. There was a fall in Brazilians. I believe that today's withdrawal of Japanese money from the London and nearly exhausted the bank's supply of that coin and I do not think Japan will take much bar gold from the bank.
