Mustering in Missouri Volunteers.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 20.—Colonel Hardeman of the Sixth Missouri volunteers, began the work of mustering in the men of his regiment today. He hopes to get six companies into the service by tonight and the entire regiment by Saturday. As soon as mustered in the regiment will be armed and uniformed. The destination of the regiment is said to be Manila.

CITY BENEATH THE SEA.

Remains of Port Royal May Yet Be Seen Beneath the Waves.

Little is known of the mysterious city beneath the waves of Kingston harbor, says the New York Herald, a city which at once suggests the hidden wonders of fabled Atlantis, which Jules Verne has described with such a wealth of imagery in his "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea." But Atlantis was probably a myth, while Port Royal is not.

The traveler who visits the capital of Jamaica should pray for clear weather, without wind. When the water of the harbor is ruffled by breezes the hidden city is obscured from view. But, on a cloudless, still day, when the surface of the sea is perfectly smooth, the ruins of the phantom city may be plainly seen in the depths of the transparent water.

The spire of the old cathedral is the most prominent object. In the clear water you can see the fishes lazily swimming in and out among the ruined turrets, more suggestive of owls and bats than of the finny inhabitants of the sea. Occasionally glimpses can be had of the ruins of other buildings—buildings which for more than two centuries have kept their ghastly secrets and will keep them until the end of time.

Down there, in that peaceful depth, lie the bones of 3,000 men, women and children, carried down into the sea with their
