WITH THE LABOR UNIONS

Members Requested to Buy Goods Before 6 P. M.—Woodworkers Active and Report Good Times.

The movement in favor of the early closing of retail stores is being actively pushed. The secretary of the Central Labor union has sent out a circular letter to all unions and affiliated societies requesting the members to make all their purchases before 6 p. m.

At the meeting of the United Wood Workers Monday it was decided to institute a campaign against non-union lumber and they will insist that all lumber bear the union label or mechanics will refuse to use it. Of all the mills in the city only two have refused to sign the union agreement and the members of the union claim that the reason for this is that these firms operate mills on the Mississippi river, where child labor is employed. At the same meeting a committee was appointed to visit the Manufacturers' association and request the members to aid them in increasing the use of the products of factories in Omaha. It is claimed that of the planing mill products used in this city a large proportion is shipped in and the union desires to change this condition of affairs.

"Times were never better in Omaha," said Secretary Sparks of the Central Labor union. "Of the members of the Carpenters' union 90 per cent are at work and 99 per cent of the wood workers are employed."

M. Lawler of Bethel, Conn., representing the United Hatters, is in the city in the interests of his union. He says that Omaha is one of the best organized towns in the country and that it is the exception to find a hat for sale without the label.

COCOANUTS 3C AT BENNETT'S

Fortunate Purchase of Five Thousand Choice Cocoanuts at a Snap.

WILL GIVE OUR CUSTOMERS THE BENEFIT

Only Five to a Customer—No Dealers Supplied—Sale Begins Today on Second Floor.

We have just been fortunate enough to make an immense purchase of fine cocoanuts at a figure far below the usual market price and our spot cash offer for the entire lot enables us to place before our customers today one of the biggest bargains of the season.

Fine, large cocoanuts, today, while the supply lasts, only 3c each. These are strictly first-class in every way and are sold in many places for 10c each. On sale on second floor.

That all our customers may have an opportunity to take advantage of this purchase we limit the sale to five to each customer. No dealers will be supplied. We reserve the right to refuse to sell these to dealers or their representatives, or to peddlers, fruit vendors, etc. They were bought for our regular trade only.

Owing to the rush of orders we expect not to be able to deliver these promptly and advise that you take them with you when you purchase them.

When this lot is gone we positively cannot supply them at this price. We have exactly 5,000 by actual count and they won't last long.

CANDY DEPARTMENT.

In order to interest our patrons in fine candy-making we will have an exhibition of how our fine creams are made; an expert candy maker will be seen dipping fine creams today. Samples free.

Chocolate creams, 15c per lb.
Mixed candy, 7c per lb.
Yankee peanut, 12c per lb.
Jelly beans, 12c per lb.
Lemon drops, 12c per lb.
Gum drops, 5c per lb.
Mixed nuts, 10c per lb.
English walnuts, 12½c per lb.

FINDS A ROACH IN THE STEW

Incident Leads to a Fight and Finally to the Arrest of Clifford Hendricks for Assault.

Clifford Hendricks found something in his oyster stew at a restaurant Monday night that looked to him like a cockroach and the incident caused him to lose his temper. He felt that he was being imposed upon. He called the attention of the waitress to his find and with considerable fervor informed the young woman that he was no chicken and that he could not be fed on bugs.

The waitress denied that it was a roach and with much spirit inpugned his knowledge of entomology as well as his table manners.

While matters were at this stage Dick Bryan appeared upon the scene. He was a friend of the young woman and she appealed to him to arbitrate the pending differences.

The remains of the alleged roach were laid in state upon the counter, where the trio inspected them with scientific interest.

"That's no cockroach," said Bryan, who had been a waiter himself and ought to know.

"Well, I say it is a cockroach," insisted Hendricks, "and I'm not going to pay for roaches when I order oysters."

"Our cooks are as clean as any cooks in town," retorted the waitress.

"Yes, but they are Chinamen."

"Well, you haven't found any mice in your stew, have you?" interposed Bryan.

Then Hendricks wanted to know how Bryan got into that gastronomic congress, and who had asked him to help hold an inquest on that bug. Bryan retorted, and the men came to blows. They fought for several minutes, then Bryan had Hendricks arrested for assault, and he is now in the police holdover awaiting trial. Meantime the waitress took charge of the poor little brown fragment on the restaurant counter and has since secured the opinion of several experts to the effect that it was not a cockroach.

Love of Nature.

The untutored savage traveled many moons through the tangled forests to gaze upon the wonders of Niagara. Shall civilized man show less appreciation of the Creator's handiwork when the Michigan Central, "The Niagara Falls Route," passes in full view of the great cataract and enables one to enjoy all the comforts of travel? CIRCUS TRUST IS PROJECTED

Peter Sells' Objection to Removing Winter Quarters from Columbus in the Way.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 23.—Two unsatisfactory clauses in the partnership agreement are all that stand in the way of a combination of the greatest circus interests of the United States. This statement is made upon the authority of Peter Sells.

Those interested in the proposed combination are the Sells Bros. of this city, James A. Bailey, now in Europe with the Barnum & Bailey circus, and W. W. Cole of New York City.

The objectionable features provide that the winter quarters of the show shall be in Bridgeport, Conn., and that the agreement shall take effect and be in force in 1901. Peter Sells would not, he said, ever consent to leaving Columbus.

Immense Losses from Floods.

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 23.—Official reports just completed give details of terrible inundations which destroyed property valued at over 6,000,000 yen in Hokkaido province, northern Japan, in December. Thirty-five towns in the district of Ishikari were devastated. Since September no less than 17,288 houses have been submerged or washed away in Hakkaido alone, while the total damage is placed at 13,000,000 yen.

Complete returns show that about 100 fishing schooners and other craft were destroyed or sunk during the severe storm which swept over the Japanese coast December 23 to 25. The total number of lives lost is placed at 189.

Andrade's Minister in Prison.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Advices from Caracas, Venezuela, announce the imprisonment there of Manuel A. Mattos, who was minister of finance under ex-President Andrade and is one of Venezuela's wealthiest men, by order of President Castro, on the charge of conspiracy against the government.

The Favorite Route to the East.

There is only one line from Chicago to the east that runs directly by and in full view of the great Falls of Niagara. The Michigan Central has long been distinctively "The Niagara Falls Route," as its through fast trains to New York and Boston, passing the falls by daylight, stop five minutes at Falls View station, directly overlooking the wondrous cataract. CHOICE OF BOARD'S ATTORNEY

Several Candidates Are in the Field for the Position Now Held by Carl Herring.

At its meeting on next Monday night the Board of Education will select an official attorney for the present year. According to the rules the election should have occurred on January 15, but the time not being considered ripe a delay was secured by adjournment to a fixed date. The session Monday night will have the legal effect therefore of a continuation of the prior meeting. There is some rivalry for the position, as it carries a consideration of $50 monthly and a certain amount of influence.

The leading candidate is thought to be Carl Herring, who now holds the position. Herring was elected two months ago by the old majority. He was not the personal choice of that element, however, his selection being in the nature of a peace offering. The old majority saw their power departing and chose Herring in the hope of drawing the newly elected members to their standard. Herring is known to have a number of the present majority on his side in his present race.

Other candidates, each of whom is hoping for two or three votes on the first ballot, are W. A. DeBord, George Day and Charles Miles. Several others are looked upon as possibilities.

Announcements.

The big show of Williams & Walker's company, which gives a matinee at the Creighton-Orpheum this afternoon, is proving a record-breaker, both as to attendance and the genuine amusement afforded. The company is repeating in Omaha its wonderful eastern success.

John Thomas, the humorist, who will appear with his company at Boyd's tomorrow night, in the third number of the Association course, is a favorite with the amusement public wherever he has appeared. The great charm of all his platform efforts is the absolute freedom from any striving for effect. An important element in the success of Mr. Thomas is his mobile and expressive face, and his naturally musical voice enables him to give his humorous songs with great effect. He will be ably assisted by Annie Webster Thomas, violin virtuoso; Mme. Edna Marie Goulard, soprano, and Mr. Charles A. Ridgeway, pianist.

The Illinois Central Railroad Co. is now open and ready to receive all classes of freight and forward with dispatch, to all points in the NORTH, EAST and SOUTH. Freight depot located at Eleventh and Chicago streets, Omaha, and on Ninth street, between Broadway and First avenue, Council Bluffs.

If YOU believe the above is true, THEN BUY A HARDMAN OR HARRINGTON PIANO OF MUELLER'S—THE OLDEST MUSIC HOUSE IN THE WEST—whose name is synonomous of fair, upright dealings.

"What, pay for a name?" No, not exactly that, but in purchasing a Hardman or Harrington Piano of the Mueller Piano & Organ Co. you may secure the DOUBLE PROTECTION of two names, which for over forty years have been closely associated with the best in art and music; NAMES that have been and are still a guarantee against dissatisfaction wherever it has been found on a musical instrument, or associated therewith.
