The only notable exceptions being Louisville & Nashville and Canada Southern, each of which were up ¾ per cent. The opening was tame and uninteresting, which may also be said of the succeeding transactions. Prices were generally firm and slight advances were established, but were not before noon, and afterwards a dull and rather heavy market succeeded, which lasted until the close, which was dull and steady at quotations. Peoria, Decatur & Evansville and Manhattan Consolidated were conspicuous; strong throughout the day and especially in the afternoon.
