3 Bikes to Safety Essay Winners

The bicycle safety campaign was given added emphasis this week when three new bikes were secured to be given away free to boys and girls.

Gambles will give one new bike, Tri - State hatchery and Wallace and Kersenbrock together are giving another, and Mrs. Georgia Rasley, owner of the Royal theater, is joining with R. V. Fletcher, owner of the Drive-In theater, in giving the third bicycle.

These bicycles will be awarded as prizes for these three contests:

(1) Slogan contest for children below 8 years of age.

(2) Safety essay contest for children 10-years-old and below.

(3) Safety essay contest for children over 10-years-old.

Boys and girls, get out your pencils and get busy! Here are the essay contest rules:

Essays must be about bicycle safety.

Children 10 - years - old and younger must have 200 words in their essays. Children over 10-years-old must have 400 words.

Neatness, spelling and punctuation will be considered. Include your name, age and address.

Entries must be in by 6 p.m., Wednesday, July 22. Entries may be left at the county agent's office or with Mrs. Charles Richter, who is contest chairman.

Winners will be announced Friday morning, July 24, at 10 o'clock at the American Legion auditorium. Presentation will be made that evening immediately prior to the bicycle parade. The lucky winners will lead the parade, riding on their new bikes.

Rules for the safety slogan contest are:

Slogan must be about bicycle safety. Include your name, age and address.

Only children 8-years-old and below may enter. Contest closes at 6 p.m., Wednesday, July 22. Entries may be left at the county agent's office or with Mrs. Neil Dawes. Announcement of winner and presentation of bicycle same as for essay contest. There will be many other dandy prizes for the runnersup.

"We are very grateful for the fine response we received in helping with these bicycles and other prizes," explained a club spokesman. A complete list of donors will be published later.

The bicycle safety poster contest closes on Monday, July 17. Bring your poster with you to the Friday meeting at 10 a.m., in the American Legion auditorium. Give the posters to Mrs. Charles Crook, poster contest chairman, and winners will be announced and prizes awarded. Be sure to include your name, age and address. The winning poster will be displayed in a store window.

The bicycle tests will be given in the evenings of July 27, 28, 29 and 30, at 7 o'clock, in the roped-off area near the downtown district. Boys and girls from the northwest part of O'Neill should come Monday evening at 7 o'clock. Children from the northeast part of town on Tuesday evening; youngsters from the southeast part on Wednesday evening, and the southwest on Thursday.

Interested dads and friends are helping with these tests. If you would like to help, see Charles Bellin. Parents are cordially invited to come and watch. These will not be difficult feats—only what you boys and girls do each day with your bikes, starting and stopping, giving hand signals, swerving to avoid a bump in the road, turning corners and so on.

Be sure to come Friday morning because Mrs. Bellin will explain more about the tests so you can practice at home. Don't forget, every boy and girl will have Scotch-lite put on his or her bike. Present your identification card to Charles Richter and he will put the Scotch-lite on for you.

The big bicycle parade is to assemble Friday evening, July 24, at 7 o'clock, at the courthouse annex. There will be dandy prizes for all the following divisions:

(1) Best bike group.
(2) Prettiest bike.
(3) Funniest bike.
(4) Most original bike.
(5) Most safety - equipped bike.
(6) Bike with best safety slogan.
(7) Oldest bike.
(8) Division for youngsters who have attended the safety meetings and taken part in the campaign, but have no bikes as yet.

Friday there were 105 boys and girls attending. Sponsors of the Willing Workers club, which is boosting the overall bike safety movement, are hoping at least 150 kids will be present.
