Mr. and Mrs. David Phipps . . . exchange vows at Wesleyan Methodist church in Atkinson.—O'Neill Photo Co.

Karr-Phipps Nuptials in Atkinson Church

ATKINSON—Bouquets of pink chrysanthemums and white poms poms and candleabra decorated the altar of the Wesleyan Methodist church in Atkinson Saturday, October 12, for the wedding of Miss Karen Karr and David Phipps, both formerly of Atkinson.

The bride's grandparents are M. and Mrs. Fred uracek of Atkinson and her mother is Mrs. Jack Blunk of Omaha. Mr. Phipps is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Charley Phipps of Scottsbluff, formerly of Atkinson.

The double-ring ceremony was performed at 4 oclock by Rev. Charley Phipps.

The bride appeared in a floor length gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over slipper satin which was fashioned with a molded bodice, featuring an illusion yoke with mandarim collar. The long sleeves tapered to a deep point over the hand. A lace peplum extended over the hips and fell in deep points through the full bouffant tulle skirt worn over hoops. Her finger tip veil of imported french illusion was caught with a matching lace half-hat edged in pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white feathered carnations. She carried out the old tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue and a penny in her shoe.

The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather.

Miss Evelyn Grabenschoer of Omaha, friend of the bride, was the maid-of-honor. She wore a floor-length gown in tile blue of nylon chiffon over taffeta. The shirred drop bodice was styled with a draped sabrina neckline and wide streamers at the back. The full gathered skirt was worn over hoops. She wore a matching half-hat of nylon braid medallions centered with rhinestones and a scalloped circular veil. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Charley Phipps of Marion, Ind., was best man for his brother. The ushers were Lloyd Phipps of Scottsbluff, brother of the bridegroom, and Paul Focken, friend of the bridegroom.

Miss Debra Juracek, cousin of the bride, was the flowergirl, wearing a floor length gown of pink lace and net over taffeta. The shirred bodice featured a lace yoke with a sweetheart neckline and capsleeves. The full gathered skirt of net with a cut away overskirt of lace was worn over hoops. She wore a matching head band of looped iridescent nylon braid and carried a nosegay of blue carnations.

Miss Carolyn Frickel of Atkinson played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Milford Juracek, aunt of the bride, who sang "Because" and "Until".

The grandmother and mother of the bride both wore blue grey suits with matching accessories and pink carnation corsages.

The mother of the groom wore a blue grey dress with matching accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

A reception for about 160 guests was held in the church basement, which was decorated in the bride's colors, pink, blue and white. Mrs. Mark Hendricks served as hostess of the reception. The Misses Markita Hendricks and Mavis Rahn served the bridal table while the Misses Vivian Thurlow, Sharon Thurlow, Virginia Thurlow, Beverly Meyer, Marietta Heiser and Frances Chaffin served the guests.

The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. David Rahn. The Mesdames Leonard Chaffin and Walter Steincamp poured and Miss Marjorie Rahn presided over the guest book. Markita Hendricks and Mavis Rahn were in charge of the gifts.

For traveling the bride wore a beige suit with brown accessories and a pink carnation corsage. After a short trip the young couple will reside in Marion, Ind.

Relatves from out of town were Mrs. Jack Blunk and son, Dicky, of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Piekenbrock and daughter, Mary Ann, of Scottsbluff, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lutt of Niobrara, Mr. and Mrs. Soren Dahl of Omaha, Rev. and Mrs. Charley Phipps and sons, Lloyd and Bernie, of Scottsbluff and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Phipps of Marion, Ind.
