Babe Ruth's 44th Homer, Scoring Dugan, Wins 2 to 0 Victory for Yankees

Joe Bush Holds Red Sox Batters to Two Bingles

Everett Scott's Fielding of Spectacular Variety—Fullerton Driven From Mound in Eighth.

BOSTON, Sept. 8.—Babe Ruth's 44th home run, with Dugan on third base in the eighth inning, went into the middle of the center field bleachers and gave the Yankees a 2 to 0 victory over Boston today. Bush, twirling for New York, held the Red Sox to two hits. Ruth's clout was made off Fullerton. The fielding of Scott was spectacular. Score:

KRAFT AFTER RUTH'S RECORD

Fort Worth, Tex., Sept. 7.—With Fort Worth already an easy winner of the Texas league pennant for the fifth year in succession, interest just now is centered in the effort of Clarence "Big Boy" Kraft to reach or pass the home run record of Babe Ruth, made in 1922. Kraft has made 54 home runs to date and has eight more games in which to make five to tie Ruth or six to pass him. The Texas league season closes on September 14, but the club has a double-header in San Antonio and one in Beaumont.

Kraft has been playing ball for upwards of 15 years. He has always been a hard hitter but only in the last four years have his home runs been attracting attention. As he is 36 years old, experts have been predicting his finish each season.

However, this year he has almost doubled his home run mark of 1922, and 1923, when he hit 32 in each season.

Senators Down Athletics, 8-4

Philadelphia, Sept. 8.—The Washington Senators opened a brief series in Philadelphia today by sending the Athletics down to an 8 to 4 defeat. The veteran Walter Johnson worked easily behind the lead his teammates piled up in the opening innings and was never in series trouble. Hauser and Miller solved him for home run blows but the bases were clear on both occasions and the blows did little damage. Score:

BUFFALOES CONTRIBUTE TOWARD FORWARD MARCH OF WESTERNERS

Omaha Scores One More Run During Past Week Than Its Opponents, But Loses Lead.

DENVER'S climb into first place by taking three out of four games from Omaha in the "Mile High" city, the severe setback to Tulsa received at the hands of Oklahoma City, which also took three out of four, and Roy Allen's feat of turning in a no-hit, no-run game, featured the first week of the last month of the Western league race.

At the close of last week Denver was holding to first place by the margin of one game, with Omaha at its heels. Its defeat at the hands of Omaha Saturday threw Tulsa five games back of the leaders and four games back of the second place Buffaloes. Tulsa thus has only an outside chance to drive through to the front. The Oilers will have to pick up two or three games on the present road trip, its last, to be within striking distance when Denver and Omaha invade the south during the last week of the pennant race.

With the exception of Denver, which lost only two games while winning seven, Oklahoma City made the greatest gain during the week and improved its chance of ousting St. Joseph from a first division berth before the finish.

During the first part of the week Oklahoma City enjoyed another streak of marvelous pitching. Roy Allen started it in the second game of last Monday's double-header with Wichita, turning in a no-hit, no-run game, the third recorded in the Western league this season.

May blanked Tulsa 1 to 0 the following day, and then on Wednesday Songer beat the Oilers 4 to 1, and Joe Brown came back with a 2 to 1 victory in in the second game of the double-header.

During its slump Omaha made one more run than its opponents, but it lost one more game than it won.

Harry Lee held the Buffaloes in the running by winning two of their three victories. Koupal won the other and also lost one.

Songer of Oklahoma City, Pigg of Denver, Blaeholder of Tulsa were the other pitchers who equaled Lee's record for the week with two triumphs and no reversals.

WALKER-SHADE FIGHT PROBABLE

Promoter Jimmy Johnston is trying to book a Mickey Walker-Dave Shade world's welterweight titular fight for September 22, or later. He has given up hope of staging a Benny Leonard-Walker bout this year as physicians think Leonard's right thumb is so badly injured he cannot fight for weeks.

Sunday, thanks to the good pitching of Louie Koupal, the Buffaloes nosed out a 2 to 1 victory over Jack Lelivelt and his Tulsa Oilers. It was the second straight victory over the southerners for Omaha.

Four Hurt When Auto Hits Tree

Machine Wrecked as It Turns Over in Ditch Near Florence.

Four occupants of her car were injured Sunday afternoon when Mrs. Joseph Callahan, 8924 North Thirty-first street, drove the machine into a tree four miles north of Florence on the Washington highway. The automobile was totally wrecked.

The injured are: Mr. and Mrs. Callahan, Ed Finley, 1503 Corby street, and Charles Teller, 521 North Twenty-first street. Teller suffered a fractured rib, while Finley was crushed about the chest. All suffered severe cuts and body bruises.

Mrs. Callahan said she was attempting to avoid a collision with two cars coming from the north which attempted to pass each other. She swerved the machine into a ditch by the roadside where it struck the tree and overturned.

Lovell Callahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Callahan, and W. E. Davis, also of 8924 North Thirty-first street, escaped injury.

AK FOUR TRIMS FREEBOOTERS, 14-1

Ak-Sar-Ben polo team ran away with the Freebooters in the game staged at Ak field Sunday. The final score was 14 to 1.

Captain Boyer and E. John Brandeis led in the scoring for the Ak four, with five points apiece. Major Brannon and Wilbur Smith each scored two points.

Captain Palmer scored the lone point for the Freebooters. The lineups were: Ak-Sar-Ben, Major Brannon, No. 1; E. John Brandeis, No. 2; Captain Boyer, No. 3 and Wilbur Smith, No. 4.

Freebooters: Wilson and Bushman, No. 1; Clark, No. 2; Captain Palmer, No. 3, and Captain O'Toole, No. 4.

COUNTRY CLUB WIN INTER-CLUB MATCH

The Omaha Country club team defeated a team representing Happy Hollow, two matches to one, in the interclub games staged Sunday.

John W. Redick and E. A. Creighton defeated John Morris and P. A. Lyck, 4 and 2. F. H. Gaines and F. S. Gaines, father and son, won by one hole from B. C. Crook and Harold Montgomery.

Jack Pollard and Alex Larmon were the winners for Happy Hollow, defeating W. J. Foye and W. T. Burns, 4 and 2.

Umpires Shannon and O'Brien, who worked yesterday's game, ran true to form all afternoon. With the exception of Umpires Gaffney and Haze we think they are about the worst in the league. Shannon called a third strike on Koupal in the seventh inning that was as wide as Farnam street, while O'Brien called O'Neil out at first when the Omaha shortstop was as safe as the Rock of Gibraltar.

AT THE THEATERS

If an election were held to determine America's foremost actor, Richard Bennett, headliner at the Orpheum theater this week, in a comedy sketch, "To Let," would undoubtedly receive an enormous number of votes. There is no question but what he is among the very best American players. Mr. Bennett stands firmly for the artistic, intellectual and the dignified, at the same time being a firm disciple for progress. He has worked for the players' guild and similar organizations whose principal idea is a better theater. Mr. Bennett practically covers a good many years, and this despite the fact that he is still a young man.

The brilliant cornet playing of Richard Stross, feature cornet soloist Sousa's band, proves a revelation at the World this week. Stross appears with the four Hamel sisters, who play brass instruments in clever fashion themselves. The three White Kuhns in their lively melange of fun and song blended with instrumental numbers, are another popular feature, as is Frank Stafford and company in the unique novelty attraction, "Rip Van Winkle's Dream." The six acts combine to make a thoroughly enjoyable bill.

The success of the new Best Smith company, the Empress players, is assured if the subsequent shows have the quality of their opening attraction, "Hello Broadway," now being offered at the Empress theater. With a cast larger numerically and more talented than any company that has been here, the show is getting away to a flying start. The entire cast will undoubtedly be as great, if not greater, favorites than any musical comedy organization that has appeared in Omaha.

An allegorical number during the action of Ed E. Daley's new version of "Runnin' Wild" at the Gayety theater, is captioned "The Birchwood Trail." It is an original conception depicting a beautiful forest scene in autumn with the "ladies of the ensemble" indulging in an elaborate dance celebrating the departure of summer. It is conceded to be the "class" flash of the attraction. Gonzell White's colored jazz band is stopping the show at every performance, and Omaha's May and December of matrimony, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pauley, are reassuring the crowds that they contribute the happiest couple in Omaha as they married solely for love. Ladies' matinee at 2:15 daily.

Nick Cullop didn't get a home run, but his double in the eighth inning scored Thompson with the tying score. Take a dip into the Buffalo records and you will discover that a great number of Cullop's home runs have been slammed out when Harry Lee was hurling for the Herd.

Railroad Wage Meet Resumed

Representatives of Roads Appear Before Labor Board at Chicago.

By International News Service.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—Hearings on the wage controversy involving the Brotherhoods of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers on virtually every railroad in the west and southwest were resumed today before the United States railroad labor board here.

Only representatives of the railroads were present, and no steps were taken to bring in the union labor representatives, who walked out of the hearings some time ago, claiming the board had no jurisdiction in the case. If they fail to appear when the board has finished hearing the representatives of the carriers, action for contempt may be filed in federal court, as provided in the transportation act, to compel them to testify.

The brotherhoods are seeking wage increases similar to those granted some time ago by eastern roads. The carriers have countered with requests for changes in certain working conditions, and the entire matter came before the board when it arbitrarily took the matter in hand on the grounds that a tie-up was threatened.

WESTERN LEAGUE

The Lincoln club is having tough luck with its first basemen. Not long ago First Baseman Cartwright was injured. Yesterday Norman Sitts, first baseman, making his initial appearance in a Lincoln uniform, broke his ankle sliding into home plate in the sixth inning of the first game.

De Maggio, Miller, Beck, Purdy and Lazzeri hit home runs during the St. Joseph-Lincoln games yesterday. Purdy and Lazzeri play with Lincoln. Lazzeri clouted out two homers.

Jack Holland, owner of the Oklahoma City club, is still hammering at Al Tearney, president of the league. He wants the league head deposed and would like to place himself or Fred Clark in the chair.

Our friend the telegraph operator, who occupies a seat in the post box every afternoon the Buffaloes play, informed us after Sunday's victory that those Buffaloes won and didn't have any of those so-called "next presidents" in the stands either, as was the case Saturday.
