CLUBWOMEN MEET AT GRAND ISLAND

Hundreds Present for Federation Convention; Omahan Speaks on Music.

By Associated Press.

Grand Island, Neb., Oct. 14.—Several hundred women from all parts of Nebraska had registered here at an early hour Tuesday, the first day of a three-day session of the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs in the 29th annual convention. The six district presidents were meeting with their delegates as the opening number of the program.

A music luncheon at noon at which Mrs. Grace Pool Steinberg of Ralston and Miss Grace Finch of this city presided was the first general meeting of the convention. Mrs. Hester Bronson Copper of Omaha and Misses Jane L. Pinder and Harriett Norris of this city spoke on music in its relation to the community. Instrumental numbers by Misses Pinder, Rachel Clem and Corrine Rogers were included in the luncheon program.

Reports of various boards, brief talks on the value of the biennial convention held by the national organization and a playlet at a local theater comprised the afternoon's scheduled program.

Music again was to provide a large portion of the program Tuesday evening. Three short addresses on "General Federation Vision and Purpose" by Mrs. Edgar B. Penny of Fullerton; on "Who's Who at the Convention," by Mrs. C. G. Ryan of this city; and on "Community Service," by Mrs. M. Q. Lott of Bozeman, Mont., were also to be given.

WOMAN SENTENCED FOR QUARREL

Mrs. Eva Owen, 22, Folsom, Ia., was given a 30-day suspended sentence on a charge of disturbing the peace in municipal court, Council Bluffs, Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Owen was arrested following an argument with her husband. She declared that he had failed to take her with him when he applied for a job at a Bluffs elevator.

Police made two runs to the home of V. R. Lentz, 1610 Avenue B, Council Bluffs, where the Owens are visiting, in efforts to quiet the irritated woman.

Beauty Expert Speaks.

Madame Louise of Chicago, stopping at Hotel Fontenelle, will lecture Wednesday night in connection with a hair dressing style show to be given in the ballroom at 8 o'clock.

"To bob or not to bob is a 50-50 proposition," said Madame Louise Tuesday morning in an interview.

"Girls who have never had long hair want it," she said. "The hair is preferably worn short during the day. Beautiful wigs are worn in the evening, the elaborate ones being of short white hair.

"Flowers, combs and barettes will be much worn. Bandeaux slip on over the head like a cap.

"Large marcels are in favor. Short hair should be permanently waved. But the permanent wave has to be properly cared for or it adds nothing to appearance.

"As for a style of coiffure, I advise people to be individual, to study their own types and dress accordingly.

"Hair dyes are not a success with people who are too light or too dark in complexion. The dye makes their faces look harsh. The medium complexioned people can use hair dyes successfully. Gray hair should be curled. Straight white hair makes people look old.

"Lavender powder should be used in the evening or green for an alabaster complexion for blondes. In the day time, brunettes should use an orange powder, and blondes a bright red shade.

Actress Speaks on Waistlines

Ethel Gray Terry

"You can wear your waistline where you please this season as conturieres have differed so about its locality," says Miss Ethel Grey Terry, the beautiful stage and screen actress who is appearing at the Orpheum this week in a dramatic sketch called "Sharp Tools." Always chic in appearance, Miss Terry is one of the most avid followers of the passing changes of fickle fashion. "Sometimes," she continued, "the waistline is low on the hips, again it is up under the arms or not at all.

"Practically every gown is sleeveless and reveals more of the figure than ever before. As a matter of fact, the more expensive the frock the less there is of it, says Miss Terry. Lingerie, she declares, is at a discount, as the new gowns for evening wear need only a single garment underneath them, and as for the corset, it is buried forever.

"One thing is certain," says Miss Terry. "Whether they give you a waistline or not, whether they clothe your arms or leave them bare, whether they let your skirt drop to your ankles or lift it almost to the knees, whether they wrap you round in rich heavy brocade of almost barbaric colors or wispy tulle, which will hardly last three dances, you will pay a large and elegant price, which would have made your grandmother gasp, however extravagant she thought herself. But to be really smart this season you must have a coat for every frock," says this charming young woman.

Miss Terry, who is a ravishing beauty of the brunette type, is stunning in an amber colored brocaded silk gown which she wears in her act. It is made along straight lines with long, tight sleeves. A string of amber beads and shoes and hose to match her gown, complete the costume.

When this is done competitive stunts will enliven interest.

Merdiian Highway Convention at Yankton Bridge Opening.

John C. Nicholson of Newton, Kan., founder and president of the Meridien highway, which leads from Winnepeg, Kan., to Mexico City, and Ed McRae of Fort Worth, secretary and treasurer, are in Omaha today, following their visit to Yankton for the formal opening of the Yankton bridge across the Missouri river, which eliminates the last ferry on the highway.

The highway association held its annual meeting in Yankton, when Mr. Nicholson was re-elected president.

"The highway is being paved at the rate of a mile a day, and graveled at the rate of two miles a day," said President Nicholson. "It already has 500 miles of hard surface road—more than any highway west of the Mississippi except on the Pacific coast."

"No matter where located—to get quick relief from the agony rub on penetrating Joint-Ease," says a New England chemist.

Of course, Joint-Ease is the one great external remedy for inflamed, swollen, stiff joints in ankle, knee, hip, shoulder, fingers or spine, and for that purpose its sale is tremendous.

THIS WOMAN'S MARVELLOUS RECOVERY

All Due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Truman, Minn.—"I was badly run-down and had pains in my side and back; sometimes I couldn't hardly move around in bed. My husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and after taking it I was so much better I could do all my work again. I do my housework, have a garden, raise chickens, and in harvest time I worked in the field and helped pick corn. Sometimes I do chores and milk. I took the Vegetable Compound before and after my four-months-old baby was born, and it has always helped me wonderfully. I believe there is no better medicine made for women, and I hope every woman will give it a fair trial."—MRS. AUGUST R. WIEDERHOFT, R. No. 2, Box 84, Truman, Minnesota.

Women suffering from troubles so common to their sex should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

The Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has relieved women of such troubles for the past fifty years. For sale by druggists everywhere.

HAYDEN BUYERS LEAVE FOR EAST

A large contingent of buyers going to the eastern markets left from Hayden Bros. accompanied by Thomas Flynn, president of the firm.

The buyers represent the store-wide organization and will go directly to New York, returning by the way of St. Louis and Chicago.

As customary at this season of the year, Hayden's buyers attended the eastern markets with a big cash appropriation to supply the needs of the various departments. The announcement of their arrival in New York is usually heralded in advance and many manufacturers' representatives, converters and jobbers are on hand to offer their products.

This year, in anticipation of a record fall business, the buying will be unusually heavy. The results of their purchases will be announced later.

Rites Held for Mrs. McNair.

Atlantic, Ia., Oct. 14.—Funeral services were held Sunday at Lewis, Ia., for Mrs. Anna McNair, a former Cass county resident, who died October 10, at Cedar Rapids.

Better Than Calomel

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling comes from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "logy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.—Advertisement.
