RESERVE BOARD IN A HURRY

Gives Notice Expedition Required in Organization of Banks.

TEN SUBSCRIBE THE MINIMUM

Board of Directors Selected by Committee Representing Six States Comprising the Ninth District.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Notice was given by the reserve bank organization committee that expedition would be required in effecting the organization of reserve banks. The committee, not later than May 9, will designate five banks in each reserve bank district to execute the organization certificate provided for by law. To facilitate the incorporation of the reserve banks, the representatives of the five banks designated will meet in the reserve city of their district as soon as practicable.

This done, the subscribing banks will become member banks and will at once select electors, who in turn will choose the directors of the reserve banks.

How Banks Divided.

The organization committee will divide the member banks in each district into groups, the banks in each being of similar financial strength. Two of these groups will be filed by the organization committee and the third by the federal reserve board when it is organized.

The minimum of $4,000,000 of stock for each reserve bank has been subscribed for ten of the twelve banks of the system, according to advices received today by the committee. Of the 7,501 banks in the system, 5,797 have forwarded to the treasury department their stock subscriptions, an increase of 288 for the day. The total amount of stock subscribed to date is $92,164,200.

Board of Directors Chosen.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 6.—A board of directors for the new federal reserve bank were selected by a committee representing the six states comprising the ninth district, at a meeting here today. They are as follows:

Bankers—E. W. Decker, Minneapolis; Governor L. D. Hanna, North Dakota; A. C. Bassett, Webster, S. D.

Business Men—F. R. Bigelow, St. Paul; F. P. Hixon, La Crosse, Wis.; Norman H. Holter, Helena, Mont.

Key to the Situation—Bee Advertising.

Washington Affairs

With the reporting of the house "omnibus" anti-trust bill by Chairman Clayton of the judiciary committee yesterday leaders in the lower branch predicted early action of trust legislation. A rule to bring the Clayton measure before the house probably the first of next week will be taken up immediately.

Samuel Untermyer, who was counsel for the house money trust investigating committee, yesterday dissected the pending anti-trust bill before the senate interstate commerce committee. He approves in general the ideas in the bill for curbing trusts. He declared the bill should be drawn as "tightly" as possible, and that congress should put it through without delay.

Secretary Bryan and Dr. Constantin T. Dumba, Austria-Hungarian ambassador, yesterday signed a convention extending for another period of five years the limited arbitration treaty between the United States and Austria-Hungary. This convention provides that all differences between the two nations which cannot be settled diplomatically shall be submitted to the permanent court of arbitration at The Hague, providing that they do not affect "the vital interests, the independence or the honor of the high contracting parties and do not concern the interests of third parties."
