PROPOSALS FOR MILCH COWS AND bulls. Department of the Interior. Office of Indian Affairs, Washington, D. C., February 1, 1892. Sealed proposals, indorsed "Proposals for Cows or Bulls" (as the case may be) and addressed to the commissioner of Indian affairs, Washington, D. C., will be received until 1 o'clock p. m., Saturday, March 5, 1892, for furnishing and delivering at Pine Ridge, Rosebud, Cheyenne River, Crow Creek and Lower Brule agencies, South Dakota, Standing Rock agency, North Dakota, Santee and Ponca agencies, Nebraska, Flandreau agency, South Dakota and the Crow agency, Montana, about 11,000 milch cows and 400 bulls. Regular blanks for bids are not required. Schedules which will be made a part of the proposals showing the number of cattle required at the various agencies, conditions to be observed by bidders, time and place of delivery, terms of contract and payment, and all other necessary instructions, will be furnished upon application to the Indian office at Washington, the commissaries of subsistence, U. S. A., at Chicago, St. Paul, Omaha, Nebraska, and Cheyenne, Wyoming, to the publishers of the Stock Growers' Journal of Miles City, Montana, and the Journal of Helena, Montana, and the several Indian agents. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids, or any part of any bid, if deemed for the best interests of the government; also, the further right in making the awards to increase or diminish to any extent the number of animals called for in the schedules; also to require a delivery of twenty-five per cent, more or less, than the amount specified in any contract.

CERTIFIED CHECKS.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check or draft on some United States depository for at least five per cent of the amount of the bid, made payable to the order of the commissioner of Indian affairs, which check or draft will be forfeited to the United States in case any bidder receiving an award shall fail to promptly execute a contract with good and sufficient sureties; otherwise to be returned to the bidder.
