COUNTY COURT RULES.

SEPTEMBER TERM, 1892.

The call will be made commencing at 9 a. m. sharp.

1st. All cases not answered to by attorneys or parties at the call, will stand continued by agreement of parties.

2nd. In all cases which are set for trial, it is desirable to have the attorneys give a short statement in order to inform the court as to about the length of time it will take to try the case.

3rd. Cases in which issues are not joined will not be set for trial, unless for special reasons it is ordered otherwise.

4th. All cases will be set for hearing within the term, unless for special reasons it is otherwise ordered.

5th. All cases will be set for trial in the order in which they appear on the call docket, unless the parties agree upon a time when the case is called, or for special reasons the court shall order otherwise. Default cases will be set for the morning hour.

6th. The business each day will commence at 9:00 a. m.

7th. The morning hour will be from 9:00 a. m. to 10:00 a. m.

The morning hour will be devoted to (1st.) motions, demurrers, and default cases set for that day. (2nd.) To motions, demurrers and default cases which have previously passed on its regular day and transferred on the calander to this day.

8th. After a case, a motion or a demurrer has passed the time for which it is set, it cannot be called up until a motion is filed and docketed by leave of the court, and such notice to the opposite party as the court may order at the time leave is given to file the motion.

9th. Business set for a certain time, cannot be transferred to another day or hour, unless the transfer order is made at the hour the matter is set for hearing, except under Rule 10.

10th. Each day at 9:00 a. m., the business of the hour will be called.

11th. The matters will be heard in the order in which they are entered on the calander unless all parties present and interested consent to a different arrangement, or in case of urgent necessity.

TRIAL OF CASES TO-DAY.

12th. The trial of cases will commence at 10:00 o'clock, a. m., and continue until 5:00 o'clock p. m., with a recess from 12:00 a. m., until 1:30 p. m. Each case is entitled to be called at the time set or within ten minutes thereafter; either to be proceeded with, or a further order to be made. For this purpose no party will be required to wait longer than ten minutes for the opposite party or other business, except for urgent reasons. The trial of a case will be suspended at any time for this purpose. In case the court finds that any rule herein will work an unforeseen hardship, the court reserves the right to suspend the rule for the special case.

STATE OF NEBRASKA, } ss.
Douglas County.

In the County Court of Douglas County, Nebraska, September 24th, A. D. 1892; present, J. W. Eller, County Judge.

In the matter of the estate of Sidney Dillon, deceased:

Upon reading and filing the petition of the executors of the last will and testament of said deceased, showing that said deceased died in the county and state of New York on the 9th day of June, 1892, leaving a last will and testament; that said last will and testament was on the 7th day of July, 1892, duly probated in the county and state of New York, and that a copy thereof has been duly filed in this court.

And showing further that said deceased was possessed of real property, situate and being in the state of Nebraska, to be administered in accordance with the provisions of said will and testament, and praying that said last will and testament may be duly proved, allowed and probated before this court as the last will and testament of said deceased, and praying that such other and further order and proceedings may be had in the premises, as may be required by the statutes in such cases made and provided.

Ordered, that October 24, A. D. 1892, at 9 o'clock a. m., be assigned for hearing said petition, when all persons interested in said matter may appear at the County court, to be held in and for said county, and show cause why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted; and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, be given to the persons above named and all other persons interested in said matter, by publishing notice of this proceeding in THE AMERICAN, a newspaper printed in said county, three weeks successively previous to the time appointed.

And you will further take notice, that unless you appear to contest the probate of said Will at the time and place appointed for that purpose, the Court may grant the Probate thereof in your absence and may grant the further prayer of said petition.

Witness my hand and official seal this 24th day of September, 1892.

In the county court of Douglas county, Nebraska, September 26th, 1892.

Upon reading and filing the petition of F. W. Schneider, showing that M. Frances Schneider, of Omaha, Nebraska, died on the 19th day of September, 1892, leaving no last will and testament, and being possessed of real and personal estate to be administered, and that the above named persons are the only heirs at law of said deceased, and praying that administration of said estate may be granted to the said F. W. Schneider, and praying that such other and further order and proceedings may be had in the premises, as may be required by the statutes in such cases made and provided.

Ordered, that October 26th, A. D., 1892, at 9 o'clock a. m., be assigned for hearing said petition, when all persons interested in said matter may appear at the County court, to be held in and for said county, and show cause why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted; and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, be given to the persons above named and all other persons interested in said matter, by publishing notice of this proceeding in THE AMERICAN, a newspaper printed in said county, three weeks successively previous to the time appointed.

And you will further take notice, that unless you appear to contest the said petition of F. W. Schneider at the time and place appointed for that purpose, the Court may in your absence appoint said F. W. Schneider, or some other suitable person administrator and may grant letters of administration of said estate to said F. W. Schneider or some other suitable person, and may grant the further prayer of said petition.

Witness my hand and official seal this 26th day of September, 1892.
