HARRISON, - - NEBRASKA

NOTICE TO SETTLERS.

The rules of the local land office have recently been amended so that settlers to make final proof shall settle with the publisher before sending in their application. All parties desiring to make final proof can have their papers made out at THE JOURNAL office, free of charge, and promptly transmitted to the land office so that no time will be lost.

—C. F. Coffee will ship 13 cars of cattle from Van Tassell on Saturday.

—Jas. W. Scott reports the arrival of a 10-pound girl at his home on Monday.

—Call at THE JOURNAL office and have your final proof papers made out. It will cost you nothing.

—The populists are to hold a meeting at the Monroe school house Saturday evening.

—J. H. Brown has leased a place near Cody for a term of years and is moving his stock there.

—Mrs. Adam Morrow has moved to Harrison, and occupies the Cunningham building.

—Judge W. L. Greene, the populist-democrat candidate for congress, is billed to speak in Harrison on Tuesday, October 13th, both in the afternoon and evening.

—The populists of the first commissioner district held a convention at Gilchrist last Saturday and nominated S. L. Ellis for commissioner.

—Wm. Belden is not near so dead as reported. On last Sunday the writer saw him at the Blaine hotel at Chadron. He is not well yet but is in a fair way to recover.

—Hon. F. M. Dorrington of Alliance, will address the people on the political issues at the Serris school house on Monday evening, Oct. 12th. All in that locality should hear him.

—Floyd Clark shot himself through the thumb of the right hand with his rifle last Saturday. He had his thumb over the muzzle of the gun and was rubbing his foot along the stock when it discharged. Fortunately the ball did not ruin the hand.

—Harrington did not show up on Tuesday, but Elmer E. Thomas, of Omaha, was here to talk populism to the people. Not many attended and quite a number left before he closed. He made no votes for the side he represented.

—The Van Tassell tax case came up on Monday before Judge Wilson and was continued until November 16th. It was necessary for the county to have a certain witness and he could not be obtained in time to proceed with the trial, hence the postponement.

—The populists of Warbonnet precinct met on Oct 1st and put up the following precinct ticket: Chas E. Schilt and John L. Stratton, justices of the peace; James Merriam and E. Leon, constables; W. J. Lyon, assessor; G. Noriesch, road over seer; B. F. Thomas and L. Dant, clerks of election; O. A. Garton, James Nolan, and S. Thomas, judges of election. The delegates to the district convention were instructed for S. L. Ellis for Commissioner.

—Suit has been filed in the district court against Charles E. Schilt, Charles Biehle, Isadore Richstein and Robert L. Keel by Emelia Noreisch for damages in the sum of $25,000 00. The damage is claimed to have been sustained by reason of the treatment of her husband a few months ago when he was taken out and whipped for mistreating the plaintiff in the case. J. E. Porter, of Crawford, is attorney for the woman. There may be a serious side to the matter, but so far it is considered as a joke.

—For the information of those who appear very anxious to know where the editor went last week and why he went there, we will say that Thursday night we went to Valentine and on Friday attended a meeting of the members of the congressional committee who reside in the 15th judicial district. That night we went to Gordon and on Saturday attended a meeting of the senatorial committee. In company with the other members of the committee, the McKinley glee club and others we went to Rushville on the afternoon freight and partook of an oyster supper given by Landlord Stone of the Commercial hotel to the Rushville McKinley club, the senatorial committee being guests. We took the night freight to Chadron and as no extras came up this line had stay until Monday. The trip was political, pure and simply. If any desire further details of the trip they will be accommodated by calling at this office.

COMMISSIONER'S RECORD.

HARRISON, NEB., Oct. 6, 1896.

Board of county commissioners met in regular session.

Present—Commissioners Tinkham, Webster and Johnson, and clerk.

The petition of V. Vaughter and others asking that a bridge be built across Niobrara creek was presented and on motion laid over until the next regular meeting.

The petition of A. Stockwell, requesting that he be relieved from the payment of a poll tax presented, and the board being fully convinced of the propriety of the petitioner's request by reason of the petition being signed by the district assessor, the petition was granted.

Claims against the county presented and allowed as follows:

[illegible]

Board of commissioners met pursuant to adjournment.

Present—Commissioners Tinkham, Webster and Johnson, and clerk.

The board proceeded to draw the jurors necessary to serve at the November term, 1896, of the district court. The names of all persons who had been drawn as jurors for the past two years were first disallowed. The number of votes cast at the last general election were examined and the total number of votes polled in the county at the last general election in the county was found to be 1 4, which number divided by 60, the number of persons to be listed for jury duty, showed that one person should be listed as juror for each 2 and change votes cast at the election. Each precinct in the county being to the board that the population of no three, five or six and larger precincts have been changed since the last vote of the several precincts which, by reason of which fact it is impossible for the board to assert in the proportion to the number of jurors to be selected from said precincts as now constituted, it was decided by the board to proportion the drawing of the jurors for the November, 1896, term of the district court by drawing the jury on the basis of the last vote of the the several precincts.

The following list of names of persons eligible for jurors was then selected from the several precincts as constituted at the last general election:

Andrews precinct, 2—Samuel Beckley, and L. C. Lewis.

Antelope precinct, 2—G. H. Turner, and W. F. Shepherd.

Bodarc precinct, 3—Z. F. Antrim, Thomas Doyle and Ashael Orton.
