OFFICIAL PAPER OF SIOUX COUNTY.

Geo. D. Canon, - - - Editor.

Entered at the Harrison post office as second class matter.

The republican party is opposed to an incometax.

Grover the great has passed to innocous desuetude.

Have you read president McKinley's inaugural address?

Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher, wife of the great devine, died March 8, in Stamford, Conn.

High protection and reciprocity will be the republican motto and watch-word for the next four years.

So far as the lower house of congress was concerned it passed the immigration bill over the veto of ex-president Celveland.

President McKinley, has called an extraordinary session of congress to convene March 15, for the purpose of reforming the tariff and currency system.

The seven-day Adventists, who have been in session in a world's conference at Lincoln, this state, claim the millennium is about to be ushered in. How can that be with the single gold standard and the republican party in power.

The injunction brought against the county clerks of Douglas and Lancaster counties, restraining them from complying with the order of the state canvasing board, created under an act of the present legislature was desolved on Saturday, March 6th.

Governor Bradley of Kentucky, has appointed Maj. A. T. Wood of Mt. Sterling, to be U. S. senator to succeed J. C. S. Blackburn. The appointmnt was offed to St. John Boyl of Louisville, but he would not accept as he is the republican nominee of his party for the senate and he will prosecute his claim before the next legislature which will elect a senator for the full term. The chances are that Major Wood will not be seated, as the U. S. senate has established the precedent refusing to recognize the appointments of the governors of the different states. If they did do so, it would show bad faith on their part.

Mr. Bryan has it up his snoot for Mark Hanna—very properly, as Mark laid him out. As Mr. Bryan is never happy unless his mouth is at work, he will stump Ohio this year in the effort to secure the election of a silver legislature to defeat the election of Mr. Hanna to succeed himself to the senate. Mr. Bryan it will be observed, is a gentlema who takes very big contracts but never succeeds in executing them.—Alliance Times.

You may be like senator Thurston was during the early part of the late campaign, when he declared that Mr. Bryan could not carry his own state and that the republicans would carry the state by 55,000, but instead you lost the state by over 12,000. If it had not been for Hanna's money coupled with the millions of dollars contributed to the campaign fund to buy votes with by all the national banks, beef and pork trusts, iron and steel trusts, combined with the Palmer & Buckner side show and the coercion of the laboring class, who were dependent upon the corporations and men of wealth for daily labor, even at a small stipend as it was,—is today and will be much worse under the gold stardard—in order that they might keep their families from suffering with the pangs of hunger and cold that was just begining to stare them in the face who, were made to believe that all factories would close their doors with the banks that would break all over the country—and they have been at it ever since last Nov. 3.—and business enterprises would suspend and every thing in this country would be at a stand still if Mr. Bryan was elected to succeed the Cleveland administration. We say, if it had not been for this class of voters who we believe were compelled to vote against their honest convictons by the disreputable means used by the corporations, millionares, Palmer & Buckner ticket, the David B. Hills—who plaid horse and traitor—and a subsidised press, Mr. Bryan would have swept the country from ocean to ocean and from the gulf to the British domaim.

What Others Say.

The following are some of the notices exchanges have made of the former editor of THE JOURNAL, and will give our readers an idea of the position he occupies in the estimation of the newspaper fraternity of the state:

L. J. Simmons has disposed of THE JOURNAL at Harrison and will seek other newspaper fields. Simmons is a rustler and hard hitter, and the Hub hopes to see him on deck again in a Nebraska town that appreciates that kind of a newspaper man.—Kearney Hub.

L. J. Simmons announces in this week's issue of THE SIOUX COUNTY JOURNAL that he has severed his connection with the paper. He is an able, bright and versatile writer, and we hope he will not go very far away.—Alliance Times.

We have it from good authority that THE SIOUX COUNTY JOURNAL has changed hands. Some eastern party has purchased the plant and will continue the publication of THE JOURNAL. We have not learned what Mr. Simmons intends doing, but hope he will remain in the northwest and help build it up.—Crawford Bulletin.

By the retirement of Col. L. J. Simmons from THE JOURNAL at Harrison, that town has lost a very energetic citizen and knight of the Quill. We trust that he may again start up somewhere in this part of the state, to which ten years of his life have been devoted.—Alliance Grip.

THE SIOUX COUNTY JOURNAL changed hands this week, L. J. Simmons retiring. Mr. Simmons is a republican of the stalwart brand, one of the best all-around newspaper men to be found in the northwest, and the Tribune is desirous of seeing him engage in the near future in this section in the business for which he is so well fitted.—Crawford Tribune.

After eight years of varying fortune, that is, of different kinds of hard fortune, L. J. Simmons has sold THE SIOUX COUNTY JOURNAL, and will seek a new field of labor. Mr. Simmons is one of the bold, bright and energetic newspaper men of the state and by hard work, honest methods and perseverance he has made some money up there in the wilderness, and lets go now with credit. Success to him.—York Times.

Just From the Press.

A very attractive publication has just been issued by the passenger department of the Burlington Route. It bears the title "The Newer North-west" and describes in a most interesting and readable fashion those portions of northern Wyoming and the Black Hills of South Dakota which are reached by this company's lines.

The scenery, towns, mines, people and industries of these two remarkable sections of country are treated of with absolute fidelety. 200 pages with illustrations, sent on receipt of 10 cents in stamps. J. FRANCIS, G. P. & T. A. Omaha, Nebraska

Interests You.

Offer of cheap reading matter you can't afford to miss.

During the great campaign people want newspapers and want them while they are fresh and newsy. The Semi-Weekly State Journal, Lincoln, Neb., supplies the demand, as it will be mailed twice a week from now until January 1, 1897, for 25 cents, or from now until January 1, 1898, for one dollar. The twenty-five-cent proposition takes you all through the campaign, gives you the election returns, and through the balance of this year. A dollar for the great twice-a-week paper from now until January 1, 1898, is the biggest offer ever made to readers. All through the campaign, all through the Nebraska legislature, the congresses and the inauguration of a new president. Never since the war has so many incidents of vital interest to the masses been crowded into sixteen months, as there will be during this period. The Semi-Weekly Journal is almost as good as a daily. Send your order direct or give it to your postmaster.

At a Hundred Junction Points in Nebraska, connections are made with Burlington Route trains for Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Omaha, Lincoln, Denver, Cheyenne and beyond.

Our maps and time-tables showing where, when and how our trains run and wherein they excel the trains of other lines in many important respects, are sent on request—free.

Always glad to quote rates and give information.
