Continuation of the Pioneer Herald. JOHN H. SHAM, PUBLISHER. Subscription Price, $1.00 Per Year.

OTIS Robinson, editor of the Cron- Journal, which was totally destroyed by fire last Wednesday, was in Sioux City Tuesday picking out an entire new outfit.

An exchange truthfully remarks: "The man who gets mad at what a newspaper says about him should return thanks three times a day for what the newspaper knew about him and suppressed."

This from an exchange will bear reading and it can be read again and again and then some: "Every time the closet of your neighbor is opened, do you strain your neck to peek, then afterward turn your neck in talking about it? Do you ever stop to think that some day a tragedy may take up its abode in your home? Can't you get it into your head that some day the tongue of slander may cut you like a sharp sword and the whispers of your neighbors be as vinegar on your wounds? Misfortune and disgrace may have overtaken your neighbor, but it does not become you to get on the house-top and shout it out to the world. You will not be called upon to pay for any answer for any of the sins of your neighbor. You have all you can tend to, to pay for your own indiscretions. Some day one near and dear to you may fall—the prison walls may open to the son, or the scarlet letter of eternity blight a daughter. When a home is in mourning over a tragedy, the best thing you can do is to keep your mouth shut, unless you can say something that will come as a rift in the clouds. Then again you may be no better than your neighbor. The only difference was that your neighbor was caught, and you, up to date, have kept the sunlight away. Be charitable, my friend; you know not the day nor the hour when the blight will appear in your sacred circle."

SAVING SOMETHING Once I made a serious blunder And said life was one sweet song Now the summer's gone to thunder And I see that I was wrong. There's no flowers in the meadows, And my purse's as shy of money As the trees are shy of leaves.

Many people are thankful on Thanksgiving day to know the foot ball season is over. A local minister is quoted as saying, "The beautiful girl whom you worship as a pillar of unadulterated sweetness doesn't contain even three ounces of sugar." We know it! She's every ounce pure American womanhood, and that's good enough for us.

The saloon keeper who cannot keep his doors closed at any time, manages not to open his ears to complaints. A woman who is forever "harping" is not necessarily an angel.

It is much better to put a little faith in human nature than to expose your fellowman's weakness by experimenting on him in your search for knowledge. If your "heat" girl is her own house-keeper, you cannot make a "hit" with her by telling her you are in the dust at her feet.

We very often see right get a knock down, but we never saw it take the count. A man may be a model of honesty and yet best the railroad if he got a chance.

It would be a good thing for some people if they only knew the difference between notoriety and notability. There are two classes of women that like to be loved: those who have someone to love them, and those who haven't.

Did you ever notice that when they are passing the kicks around that it is the man who is doing his best that always gets the most of them.

Subscribe for THE HERALD—$1 per year. Dress to Suit Your Position. "Dress to suit your position," is a word of advice given by Miss Anna Steese Richardson to her girl readers in the Woman's Home Companion for November. "If you work in a dirty office, such as a printing concern, a wholesale grocery or a hardware shop, wear skirts that clear the ground by at least three inches; but if you are employed in the private office which has been well furnished and nicely carpeted, wear longer skirts, not trains, but cut to escape the ground. Your employer will want you, like the furniture and pictures, to dress his office harmoniously. Wear tailored shirts waists, and black or Oxford gray tailored skirts. If you prefer black silk waists, never fail to soften these with fine linen or lawn collars and cuffs and white or black ties. Avoid garish colors. Be dignified in your dress as well as your manner. Do not consider that money spent on office clothes is wasted. It will bring you better returns than money spent on party frocks or feather-trimmed hats." For Sale or Trade. This case was fought out in the district court in this county by Frank Hunt, one of the original promoters of South Sioux City, whose elegant home was destroyed by fire soon after he moved to Sioux City. "After four appeals to the supreme court Mrs Lois M Hunt, of South Sioux City, has been finally decreed to be entitled to receive the face value of her policy of $1,500 on a house of hers that was destroyed by fire. The company at first defended on the ground that the house was left unoccupied, a condition which automatically cancelled the policy. Beaten on this point, the defense finally rested on the plea that the agent who received the money had no authority from the state auditor to act as an insurance agent. The court holds that as the evidence showed that he had once had that authority and the company continuing to recognize him as its agent and accepting all business that came from him, regardless of the fact that he had not renewed his certificate to do business, it could not defend on that ground, but is bound by his acts and conduct in dealing with policy holders. Are You Sick? Much sickness is due to a weak nervous system. Yours may be. If it is, you cannot get well until you restore nerve strength. Your nervous system is nature's power house; the organs of your body get their power from it. If the power is not there, the action of the organs is weak, and disease (sickness) follows. Dr. Miles' Nerve cures the sick because it soothes the irritated and tired nerves and gives the system a chance to recuperate. Try it, and see if you do not quickly feel its beneficial effect.

"I was given up to die by a leading doctor. Got one of Dr. Miles' Nerve and got better. I am better now than I have been for years, and do all my own work on the farm. That's what Dr. Miles' Nerve has done for me, and I am glad to recommend it to others." JOHN JAMES, Riverton, Nebr.
