Prof. Worden is visiting in Hemingford this week.

Postmaster Irion of Lawn was a county seat visitor yesterday.

Thos. Green has been under the weather for a week.

W. J. Bean and family are now comfortably located in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Zimmerman of Liberty were in Hemingford yesterday.

WANTED—A girl for general housework. Inquire at the HERALD office.

A. V. Burk is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Burk, east of town.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schluntz, Sept. 17, a boy; mother and babe doing well.

SHOES of all kinds, styles and prices. Can fit any foot and pocket book. W. K. HERNCALL.

Attorney Iodence is looking after the hardware store during Mr. Uhrig's absence at the Fair.

Mrs. C. A. Burlew and children left Tuesday for their old home in Wisconsin.

Paints of all kinds at Green's.

Miss Velma Dada visited with Alliance friends this week, returning Thursday morning.

J. K. Neal returned from the Independent convention at Valintine, Monday.

Mrs E. E. Ford and two children returned from their extended eastern trip Friday morniug.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodenough took Monday night's passenger for Logan, Ia., their old home, for a few days visit.

Mrs. W. L. Bowman and little daughter of Hay Springs are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Volney Curtis.

A number of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Olds' friends gave them a pleasant surprise at their home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford of Lawn were in the city yesterday. Mr. Ford called and left money for the HEARLD.

Mrs. F. Schroeder, mother of H, J. Schluntz arrived from Cedar Creek, Neb., Friday morning and will visit for some time.

The time for holding the democratic county convention has been postponed until October 7, 1895, at 1 o'clock, at Hemingford,

Rev. Kendall returned from the M. E. Conference Wednesday. The Hemingford people are pleased to hear that Mr. Kendall will remain here another year.

Mrs. J. P. Hazard was a passenger on 42 Monday night for Hubbard, Iowa, where she will spend the winter. J. P. will teach school in Dist. 16 this fall.

The ninth annual meeting of the Northwestern Baptist Association will be held at Hemingford, Nebraska, September 27, 28 and 29. A large attendance is anticipated.

Ford Dodds, T. O'Donnell and A McGinley drove in from McGinley's ranch Saturday, Mr. O'Donnell and sister Miss Maggie departed for their home in Lucas, Iowa, Wednesday night.

Word was received here yesterday that Coroner P. H. Driscoll died Wednesday night at his home in Alliance of typhoid fever.

Mrs. J. A. Wells write us that there will be a Union camp meeting held in Wells grove, twenty miles southwest of Alliance beginning Saturday, Sept. 28. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

C. E. Ball came in from the west this week and started this morning for Hot Springs where he will attend the Black Hills college this year. Charlie is a hustler and will make his mark. Before going he called and ordered the HERALD to keep posted on Box Butte affairs.

Rev. Father Zak departed for Omaha Monday night where he has accepted another charge. Father Zak has been stationed in this county for nearly a year during which time he has labored hard in the church and made many warm friends who regret to see him leave. We have not learned who will be his successor.

Those from here who are in attendance at the State Fair this week are Messrs. A. Uhrig, M. E. Gooch, B. F. Gilman, C. J. Wildy R. McLeod, B. E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood, Mesdames Hammond, Schlumpf and Wheeler; Eli Gerber, Wm. Foskett, N. A. Kuhn; Misses Lena and Tillie Nekant of Lawn, V. Cladek and daughter of Dunlap.

Our old friend and townsman Rev. J. D. Schroeder came up from Grand Island last week and held Lutheran services in the school house Sunday. Since leaving here his wife has presented him with a little "German preacher" who has now reached the age of six weeks. It seems like old times to see Mr. Schroeder on the streets again, even if he does hold his head a trifle higher than of yore.

Some of the republicans and populists seem to be not a little interested as to who the democrats will nominate for sheriff. E. A. Hall the present sheriff is not fishing for the nomination and says he is not at all anxious to make the race, but the democrats will nominate him even if it is against his wishes, and we believe him to be the strongest possible candidate in the county.

The republicans held their convention at Alliance last Saturday and made the following nominations: For clerk, F. M. Phelps of Alliance; for sheriff, E. P. Sweeney, of Alliance; for judge. J. H. Hewitt, of Alliance; for commissioner. G. W. Duncan of Alliance; for coroner, Dr. W. K. Miller, of Alliance; for surveyor, Chas. Brann, of Alliance; for superintendent, D. Eberly, of Berea; for treasurer, A. M. Miller, of Hemingford.

On Sunday evening next at the Methodist church the services will consist of short talks from a number of the congregation on christian and educational work, what has been done and the needful preparation for future work. The exercises will be interspersed with good singing. All are cordially invited. The pastor desires to make this the first service of the new year retrospective as well as prospective, believing that with the experiences of the past better work can and should be done in the future.
