St. Joe Easily Wins the Morning Game, Final Outcome Being Five to Nothing.

BIG CROWD IN ATTENDANCE

St. Joseph came back Monday after the ignominous routing received Sunday and did the Rourke family into divers kinds of intricate knots. That is they succeeded in winning by the combined efforts of their own good playing and numerous errors on the part of the home team.

Everdon surmounted the mound and was backed up with the usual assortment of breakdowns that seem to greet his every effort. Evy pitched more than passable ball, but boots and free-for-all heaves got his nanny. He is the true descendant of the original Jonah that A. Sperm Whale coughed up some time back. Incidentally it might be meet to mention that St. Joseph won by a score of 5 to 0.

Trouble Starts Early.

In the first inning Page went out from Whalen to Schlebner, but Nicholson reached No. 1 bag when Red threw wild to first. Nicholl then proceeded to steal second. Again Whalen threw wild to first, on Rapp's infield hit and Rapp took second, while Nicholl scored on the play. Williams singled to left, sending Rapp to third, from where he tallied on Watson's inside poke. Fisher and Ewoldt were easy outs.

This start took large quantities of pep out of Marty's gang and, although several chances hove over the horizon, they never came within speaking distance of the home plate.

Wideman of St. Joseph pitched a splendid game and was master of the situation at every stage, deserving to win hands down.

Thomason Makes Great Catch.

The only event bordering on the sensational was a splendid catch by Arthur Thomason in the sixth, when he ran in from deep center and on the dead run caught Watson's drive off the top of the clover.

About 4,000 head of citizens herded into the Rourke enclosure to watch the massacre, and despite the futile fielding of Papa's youths, cheered them roundly to the echo.

The sixth, seventh and eighth innings each netted the enemy a run and in the eighth spasm they earned it. Watson singled and Fisher scored him on a two-bagger.

An additional feature of the morning was the faultless umpiring of Sucius Mullen, the new punk, recently added to President O'Neill's staff. Mulley guessed them all right and had the participants eating from his mitt. Score:

REDS PARE CHICAGO MARGIN TO A GAME

Cinci Whips Cubleta in Double-Header While Phils Spank the Giants.

BOSS BRESNAHAN IS BANISHED

CHICAGO, July 5.—Cincinnati cut down Chicago's pennant lead to one game today, when they took both ends of the holiday ball game, 8 to 5 and 12 to 7, while Philadelphia defeated New York.

In the first game Manager Bresnahan crossed the plate while the pitcher was in the act of delivering and ran to first base under the assumption that it was the fourth ball. Umpire Quigley called him out. Bresnahan rushed at the arbiter, who threw his mask to the ground and started after Bresnahan. Players stepped between the two men and after considerable wrangling Bresnahan was ordered to the club house. Score, first game:
