C. M. Eaton, 1104-6 W. O. W. Bldg., a broker who can supply the buying public almost any kind of a business it may want.

EATON—If you expect to get into business and take advantage of all the fall business, now is the time to act.

EATON—Here are a few that will be money makers September 1 and steadily from then on: Bakery, billiard and bowling, blacksmith, boots and shoes, cigars, confectionery, clothing. For $1,000 I can give you the best retail coal office in Omaha. Coffee and tea or Basket store in Lincoln; has 3,500 customers; will invoice between $4,000 and $5,000—a real, big, live snap.

EATON—Drugs. I wish I could just talk drugs to you. Have some snaps. Dry cleaning and pressing. Electric light plant, $7,000. European war and demand for wheat and big crop ought to make every mill I have sell at once. I have eight to select from.

EATON—A good foundry and machine shop; plenty of work, but lacking capital. I have 4 garages, any one worth investigating. Have two gas manufacturing plants, three good gents' furnishing stores, grocery store. I have 31 for sale. My best one will cost between $6,000 and $7,000. Sales for 1914 were over $60,000. Profits, after paying proprietor $1,800 per year, were over $6,000. It is a wonder some live wire does not snap this up. Store has been owned by one man over 30 years.

EATON—An even dozen hardware stores on my list; three splendid harness and saddlery. Only one good laundry on my list. Liquor and drug habit. I have an institution at Kansas City.

EATON—Uses original Gold Cure; profits 1914, $5,345 above all expenses. Price, $3,500. Good manager in charge. Lumber. A splendid opening in 3-yard town to buy the third yard and ⅓ interest in No. 2. No 1 is owned by parties who own Nos. 1 and 2. Do you realize what that means? It will require probably $30,000 to handle this, but it will be a good one. In Omaha I have a fine yard. Will require about $20,000.

EATON—I wish I had money enough to list everything I have. It would take a whole paper. Why not call and see me and tell me what you are looking for? I feel sure I can find just what you want.
