GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Progressive Buying in Holland Leads to Rally in Wheat Mart, With Prices Up a Bit.

ADVISE AGAINST BEAR TACTICS

OMAHA, March 30, 1915.

The Dutch government has been one of the leading buyers of wheat during the last few days. Due to this and the fact that Italy may enter the war at any time the market has a bullish tendency.

Many of the larger houses on the board were advising friends and customers to keep off the bear side at present. The reports received from points in Kansas say that considerable wheat has been killed there by alternate freezing and thawing.

Corn and oats were both higher today. There was a buying movement in corn by shorts and also by investors. Oats departed from their usual course, making a moderate response to the strength in other grains. Cash corn sales reported were 65,000 bu. and oats 75,000 bu., very little of which was sold for foreign shipment.

Omaha Spot Market—Wheat was 1½@2½c higher; corn, ¼@¾c higher; oats, ½c higher.

Clearances were: Wheat and flour, equal to 1,065,000 bu.; corn, 3,000 bu.; oats, 1,001,000 bu.

Liverpool close: Wheat, not quoted; corn, ¾d higher.

Primary wheat receipts were 536,000 bu. and shipments 291,000 bu., against receipts of 396,000 bu. and shipments of 440,000 bu. last year.

Primary corn receipts were 368,000 bu. and shipments 376,000 bu., against receipts of 813,000 bu. and shipments of 536,000 bu. last year.

Primary oats receipts were 847,000 bu. and shipments 686,000 bu., against receipts of 618,000 bu. and shipments of 778,000 bu. last year.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Assertions that a change of policy had seemingly prevented until May, if not altogether, the entrance of Italy into the war did a good deal today to lift the price of wheat. The market closed strong, 1½c to 1¾c above last night. Corn wound up with a gain of ½c to 1¼@¾c and oats unchanged to ¾c higher. In provisions the outcome was a 12½c decline to a rise of a shade. There were signs that foreign demand for cash wheat had again been enlarged. Estimates on the Argentine exportable surplus showed a big cut and Liverpool sent word that stocks were decreasing. For the most part reactions from the advance here turned out brief and of a profit-taking nature.

Strongest prices of the day in wheat came in the last hour. On top of the cable news complaints piled up from Illinois and Missouri that dry, cold weather was hurting the winter crop. A comprehensive report indicating that the winter-killed area was small and that the condition of the plant throughout the country as a whole averaged better than in December last had only a transient effect on the market. Corn mounted with wheat and as a result of a material improvement in cash demand, due largely to rough weather. There were also rumors of export business. Adverse conditions for seeding tended to make oats firm. Seaboard call, however, was disappointing.

Selling by packers offset all chance of a bulge in provisions. The grain strength and the smaller receipts of hogs served merely to hold prices steady.

CATTLE—There was a very fair cattle run today, making the total for the two days 11,949 head, being larger than last week and for that matter larger than for most recent weeks as well as larger than a year ago by over 3,000 head. As was the case yesterday the demand for stockers and feeders was quite good again this morning and the market on cattle of that description was fully steady and in many cases strong. They were the first cattle in the yards to sell and the most of the desirable offerings changed hands in good season.

Good heifers and cows on the heifer order were also free sellers at fully steady prices. Rough cows were very slow with the tendency lower.

Beef steers, which opened around 10c lower yesterday morning, became worse as the day advanced, closing in many cases 15@20c lower. The market this morning opened about where it left off yesterday so far as the general run of beef steers were concerned. The trade was slow and dull and it was late before buyers and sellers really got together on a trading basis.

The market on heavy beeves for the two days is around 15@25c lower than compared with last week's close. Handy light weights do not show so much loss.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice corn-fed beeves, $7.50@8.00; fair to good corn-fed beeves, $7.10@7.50; common to fair corn-fed beeves $6.50@7.10; good to choice heifers, $6.25@7.00; good to choice cows, $5.75@6.50; fair to good cows, $5.00@5.75; common to fair cows, $3.75@5.00; good to choice stockers and feeders, $7.00@7.60; fair to good stockers and feeders, $6.50@7.00; common to fair stockers and feeders, $5.75@6.50; stock heifers, $5.50@6.25; stock cows, $4.75@5.00; stock calves, $6.00@7.50; veal calves, $7.00@9.75; bulls, stags, etc., $4.75@6.00.
