RAILROAD WANTS OWN BOATS

Canadian Pacific Company Will Operate a Line Across the Atlantic Ocean.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Sir William Van Horn, chairman of the executive board of the Canadian Pacific railway, who arrived here this morning from Havana, when asked if it was correct that the Canadian Pacific was negotiating for the North Atlantic fleet of the Elder-Dempster, said:

"I have been away from home some time and I do not know whether or not the negotiations have been concluded. I do not know just how far the matter has gone, but we have been negotiating with the line for the purchase of from a dozen to a dozen and a half of their ships for some time. I cannot say just what number we have been figuring on, but it is somewhere between those figures.

"This move of ours is in no way an effort to compete with the Morgan combine for business to divert any traffic from New York. The Canadian Pacific has plenty of business for a line of its own across the ocean."
