ROURKES WALK ALL OVER THE JOSIES

While Tom Blodgett Shuts Out Invaders His Mates Hammer in Fifteen Runs.

FORSYTHE IS HITTING STAR

Great pitching by Thomas Blodgett, southpaw, and tempestuous hitting by the entire Rourke clan swept Omaha to a lop-sided victory over St. Joseph yesterday. The score was 15 to 0.

Mr. Blodgett certainly did provide the slab thrills by suppressing the Josies with two dinky hits, one of them a fluke which Huelsman lost in the sun. Tom also whiffed five Drummer gents and handed out no walks.

Not content with strangling the invaders from the box Tom took a hand in the slugging, poling three hits, one a double, and making two runs himself. Cy Forsythe and Marty Krug also did a little hitting. Cy walluped the pill four times out of five up and two of the blows were triples. Quite an auspicious beginning for the new comer from Topeka. Manager Marty nicked three hits.

Vance Is the Victim.

Dazzy Vance, the pink-eyed youth who was decorated with tinware at Pittsburgh, demonstrated to Omaha just why the aforementioned tinware was attached to him. In the third round Bodgett started a bombardment against Dazzy which soon had Dazzy dizzy. Breen walked, Forsythe tripled, Thomason singled and Krueger doubled for four runs and Dazzy beat it for the club house.

Jess Baker took up the toiling and walked Huelsman. Schliebner queezed Krueger home and Whalen's double counted Huelsman. Six runs.

Hits by Krug, Breen, Forsythe and Krueger counted three more runs in the fourth and spelled the doom of Mr. Baker. Here a gent named Turner appeared and was hammered for the other six tallies.

Hits by Whalen, Krug and Forsythe, Blodgett's sacrifice and an error by O'Day netted three off Turner in the fifth and blows by Forsythe, Thomason and Blodgett marked two more in the seventh. The fifteenth count came in the eighth when Schliebner doubled and Blodgett singled.

Reach Third But Once.

Only once did a Joetown athlete reach third. Willie Patterson got that far in the ninth round, but died a natural death there. George Watson got to second once, but could advance no further.

Old Jup Pluv attempted to balk the Rourkes of their prey by some malicious interference just before the combat started, but he fell down on the job. A frolicsome young shower fell at five minutes of three, but ceased in time to permit the fray to open on the hour. Again toward the latter part of the afternoon the raindrops fell, but nobody cared as five innings had been played and the game was ours anyhow. Umps Van Sickle let the athletes play, however, and the full nine stanzas were staged.

Bouquets for Forsythe.

The work of Cy Forsythe in left was a glory to behold. Cy certainly did smack the pill in the nose. He busted knocks off all these Joetown heavers. He also made a nice catch in left, swiped a bag and otherwise cavorted around in a most kittenish manner.

Today the Drummers and Rourkes will lock horns again. It will be ladies' day and all fair fanettes will be admitted free. The game will be called at 3 o'clock. Johnson or Crabb will probably pitch. Score:
