GEN. HALL REPORTS ON NATIONAL GUARD

Issues Statement in Which He Talks on What the Troops Will Have to Spend.

SIXTY-EIGHT THOUSAND DOLLARS

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, May 9.—(Special.)—According to a statement made by Adjutant General Philip L. Hall, the Nebraska National Guard will be forced to get along for the next biennium on $68,000 of an appropriation of money and $200,000 of patriotism appropriated by the members of the guard. In making a statement of the legislature General Hall says:

"In comparing the results of the attitude of our last legislature to that of the legislatures of the other states of the union relative to the finances of the National Guard for the ensuing biennium, which in time of war is expected to furnish three-fourths of the first line, it will be necessary for the guard of this state to run on $68,000 actual money for the two years and about $200,000 worth of patriotism.

"This is not taking into consideration the following. That each officer receives for his services the sum of about $75 a year in the form of pay at camp, and right on the start he is required to spend not less than $100 on uniforms, saber, pistol, etc., of his own money, for his personal equipment; that he is monded and is liable for the shortage of all property, and he must keep records, etc., of his organization; that he must spend time during the winter in carrying on a correspondence course with the War department.

Pay of Enlisted Men.

"The enlisted men receive as their yearly compensation about $10. For this they are required to drill one night each week in the year; they are required to have sixty days' previous service before going to camp. Ninety per cent of the men leave a position in civil life which pays them from $3 to $5 a day for this neat sum of $10, besides taking the chance of losing their position in civil life, to train themselves as a national police force that may respond to the call of the nation in time of peril."

Lincoln Dollar Gas Cases Heard in June

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, May 9.—(Special.)—According to information received in Lincoln as announced by Federal Judge T. C. Munger, Judge James D. Elliott of Sioux Falls, South Dakota has been assigned to hear the issues in the Lincoln dollar gas cases which have been pending for many years.

The hearing will be held in Omaha during the first week in June.

Sunday School Meetings.

WEEPING WATER, Neb., May 8.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the executive committee of the Cass County Sunday School association held at Union, plans were made for the county and the district conventions. The county convention has been set for some time in October at Louisville. The district convention will take place as follows: First district meeting, Mynard, June 2; Second district meeting, Avoca, June 3; Third district meeting, Elmwood, June 4. Following are the members of the executive committee who were present at the meeting: President, C. S. Aldrich of Elmwood; vice president, J. D. Cross of Union; secretary, Miss Ella Atchison of Elmwood. There were also present the following departmental superintendents: Rev. William Elledge, Weeping Water; Rev. H. B. Hutchman, Murray; C. C. Wescott, Plattsmouth; Mrs. Fred Zink, Murdock; Jesse Perry, Plattsmouth.

Remonstrate Against Saloon.

WEEPING WATER, Neb., May 8.—(Special.)—On Wednesday of this week a petition was sent in from here to the county commissioners dealing with the matter of granting a saloon license at the village of Cedar Creek. The paper was in a sense a protest against granting a license. It was signed by some 100 citizens and was instrumental in getting the commissioners to postpone the matter until May 12, when a hearing will be had.

Little Frost Damage.

WEEPING WATER, Neb., May 8.—(Special.)—Tender plants were slightly frost bitten in the gardens of this vicinity last night. Just a few miles from here on higher ground no damage was noted. It is thought that no damage was done to fruit.

J. J. Johnson of Wahoo Finds Someone Had Deeded Away His Farm.

WOULD GET THE TITLE BACK

WAHOO, Neb., May 9.—(Special.)—John J. Johnson of Wahoo has the task ahead of him of quieting title to a piece of land he owns in Holt county. When Johnson wrote to the county treasurer of Holt country a week ago asking how much taxes he owed on the quarter section there, he was informed that the taxes had been paid. Knowing that no one would be likely to be so benevolent as to pay his taxes for him, he wrote back to inquire as to who had been so bold.

"You don't own the land," or words to that effect, was the reply.

Then Johnson sat bolt upright in his chair and took notice. He was informed that a man representing himself as John J. Johnson had sold the property to a man named W. E. Bondson of Omaha, that the sale was made in Omaha and that acknowledgment of the transaction was taken by Lucy L. Sawyer in Omaha November 13, 1912. The property was later sold by the Bondson person to W. F. Kuhlman, and F. I. Devel of Omaha took the acknowledgment.

Kuhlman and wife later deeded the property to M. E. Bartlett, who is the man who now claims ownership. Johnson of Wahoo, of course, asserts his name was forged to the deed when it was alleged to have been transferred to Bondson.

Action to quiet title has been started in the district court of Holt county. Judge Slama of Wahoo is representing Mr. Johnson in the case.

Three Girls to Walk To San Francisco

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, May 9.—(Special.)—Three Lincoln girls will start out Wednesday morning to walk to San Francisco. They expect to earn their way by selling papers in the cities along the route. Their names are Miss Lena Gillan, a bookkeeper; Miss Susie Portche, a musician, and her sister, Miss Catherine Portche, a stenographer. They say they are tired of office work and want to get out in the open and see some of the country and believe they can pay their way by selling papers along the line of march, which covers about 2,100 miles, and they expect to make it in fifteen weeks.

CRAWFORD GIRL WINS PRIZE FOR DECLAMATION

ARNOLD, Neb., May 9.—(Special.)—The humorous division of the Nebraska state declamatory contest was held here Friday evening. The gold medal was awarded to Miss Prudence Macomber of Crawford and the silver medal to Miss Hannah Cotant of Alliance. The contest throughout was excellent. Miss Macomber, although she won clearly, was given a very close race by Miss Cotant. The following schools were represented: Arnold, Alliance, Alma, Wakefield, Crawford, Fremont, Lincoln and Geneva. The judges were Prof. R. I. Elliott, Prof. O. W. Neale and Miss Lulu Wirt, all of Kearney. The contest was conducted by W. J. Braham of Sidney, secretary-treasurer of the state association.

ABANDONED RAILROAD GRADE MAY BE MADE HIGHWAY

BURWELL, Neb., May 9.—(Special.)—Ed Cram, one of the directors of the Central Nebraska and Loup river route, was at Taylor, Neb., yesterday looking after the opening of a public road over the abandoned grade of the Burlington through Loup county. For a part of the way the Black Hills, Loup river and Omaha route will go over the old grade. The commissioners are eager to take the old grade over for back taxes and open it up for a public road.

TWO FRATERNAL ORDERS TO MEET AT LINCOLN

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, May 9.—(Special.)—Lincoln will be the meeting place this week of two of the big fraternal orders of the country. The Knights of Pythias, with their auxiliary, the Pythian Sisters, will hold its forty-eight annual session beginning Tuesday and holding over Wednesday. The Ancient Order of United Workmen will also convene here at the auditorium at the same time. It is expected that there will be a large attendance at both metings.

Weeping Water Teachers.

WEEPING WATER, Neb., May 8.—(Special.)—The school board has completed the selection of teachers for next year, as follows: Superintendent, T. V. Truman; principal, Miss Olga M. Gereke; science, O. L. Webb; language, Miss Pearl Hummel; eighth grade, Miss Minerva Gunther; sixth and seventh, Miss Rene Jameson; fifth, Miss Lenora Gordon; fourth, Miss Vera Baldwin; third, Miss Leone Switzer; second, Miss Mildred Hart; primary, Mrs. Sawyer. The meeting marked the close of O. K. Cromwell's service with the board, he having served for fifteen consecutive years, and it marked the beginning of the term of Mrs. F. H. Gorder, who is the first woman to serve on the board.

Cass Medical Meeting.

WEEPING WATER, Neb., May 8.—(Special.)—At the annual meeting of the Cass county medical association held at Elmwood, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, M. M. Butler, Weeping Water; vice president, O. F. Gillispie, Manley; secretary-treasurer, O. E. Listen, Elmwood; censors, A. C. Welch and F. Reed, Weeping Water. Dr. M. M. Butler was elected delegate to the state meeting at Hastings, May 18 to 21.

Marriages in Richardson County.

FALLS CITY, Neb., May 9.—(Special.)—The following marriage licenses were issued in Richardson county this week: Lester Morgan Vanderventer and Hazel James, Stella; Wayne Richardson and Josephine Mahan, Rulo; Frank Fountain and Mrs. Emma Boeck, Humboldt.

A. O. U. W. TO MEET SOON IN LINCOLN

Great Fraternal Order of Nebraska Will Hold Grand Lodge Beginning Tuesday.

STATE EXERCISES ITS CONTROL

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, May 9.—(Special.)—The sixteenth biennial session of the Ancient Order of United Workmen will be held at the city Auditorium in Lincoln, beginning at 9 o'clock in the morning Tuesday, May 11. Headquarters will be maintained at the Lindell hotel.

The grand lodge was organized on June 8, 1886, with a membership of 2,080. Since that time it has steadily grown until on January 1, 1915, it had a membership of 39,461 in good standing in this state. Since them the membership has increased so that at the present time there are over 40,000 in good standing.

Many Benefits Paid.

Local lodges have furnished aid to their members when in distress, and the grand lodge, during its existence, has paid out nearly $10,000,000 for the benefit of the widows and orphans that survived the deceased members.

After the organization in 1886 in Grand Island, Neb., the Rev. J. G. Tate was elected as its first grand master workman in this state, and the following men were elected to fill the other offices of the first grand lodge: Past grand master workman, S. R. Patton of Fremont; grand foreman, F. E. White, Plattsmouth; grand observer, H. W. Cole, McCook; grand recorder, H. M. Waring, Lincoln; grand receiver, W. R. McAllister, Grand Island; grand guide, W. I. Boulware, Valentine; grand watchman, S. S. Kauffmann, Stromsburg; grand trustees, J. L. Miller, Red Cloud; J. S. Johnson, Superior; J. W. Carr, Omaha. The following men have actively served as grand master workmen in this state: J. G. Tate, M. E. Schultz, Jacob Jaskalek, O. J. Van Dyke, J. D. Brayton and A. M. Walling, the present grand master workman.

Domestic Corporation.

This organization at the present time is incorporated under the laws of the state. It is known as a domestic corporation, giving the civil authorities of the state the same control over its finances as they have over the banking institutions of the state. The order is a mutual organization and is not operated for profit. The session of the grand lodge is held every two years and is composed of delegates from all subordinate lodges, who elect tht officers and enact the laws of the order.

The order owns its own headquarters building at Grand Island. The local committee has arranged a reception and entertainment at the city auditorium for Tuesday evening, for which the following program has been arranged:

Chairman—H. J. Whitmore, past master workman No. 80.
Music—Band, U. P. lodge, Omaha.
Greeting from the Capitol—Governor J. H. Morehead.
City of Lincoln's Welcome—Mayor.
A Business Appreciation—H. K. Burkett, president Commercial club.
Music—Male quartet.
Response for Grand Lodge—A. M. Walling, grand master workman.
Music—Band, U. P. lodge, Omaha.
Reading—Mrs. Bess Gearhart Morrison.
Response for Ancient Order of United Workmen—J. G. Tate, past grand master workman.
Music—Band, U. P. lodge, Omaha.

The first session of the grand lodge will be Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock for organization and appointment of committees. The second session will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the nomination of officers. The election of officers will take place at the third session on Wednesday morning and later sessions will be held as announced and found necessary.

Detectives Chasing Alfred James Bourne To Give Him Wealth

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, May 9.—(Special.)—Sleeping in haystacks and barns, working for farmers at whatever he can get and tramping about the country with no particular object in view is the case of one calling himself Brown, but whose real name is Alfred James Bourne, heir to an estate in Melbourne, Australia, worth $7,000,000.

For weeks detectives have been on his track, attempting to locate him, but they have so far appeared on the scene just after their man had left. The hunt began in New York, covered Michigan, North Dakota, South Dakota and Minneapolis. Finally the trail grew warm in Missouri, it being discovered that Bourne had been in a hospital in St. Joseph twenty-five weeks, paying $1 a week for his board. Frim there he was trailed into Nebraska and located at Lincoln, but before the detectives could reach him he had again disappeared, going to Nebraska City. From there he doubled back to Lincoln and there the trail is lost.

Since April 1 the detectives have chased Bourne 4,325 miles. They describe him as five feet, eight and three-fourths tall, blue eyes, light hair, clean shaven, Roman nose and long face, dimple in chin and wears gold eye glasses. He has been well drilled and walks very erect.

The property which has been left him by a deceased uncle, consists of 320,000 acres of free land, 25,000 sheep, 400 horses, hundreds of cattle and £50,000 in English money, which would make a quarter of a million of dollars in American money and it all lies in the bank. All he has got to do is to claim it. He is Irish and 50 years of age.

High School Banquet at Holdrege.

HOLDREGE, Neb., May 9.—(Special.)—The junior-senior banquet was held Friday evening, May 7, at the high school building. Plates were laid for 105, including members of the faculty. A nice program was given and an excellent four-course dinner was served by the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church. Miss Freda Pope of Lincoln was an out-of-town guest.

Commencement at Stella.

STELLA, Neb., May 9.—(Special.)—Commencement exercises of the Stella High school will be held at the opera house Thursday evening, May 20. The class sermon will be delivered by Rev. S. De Freese of Verdon Sunday evening, May 16. The junior-senior banquet was held last evening at the home of H. B. Kelly.

Burwell Making Rapid Growth.

BURWELL, Neb., May 9.—(Special.)—The Congregational, Christian and Methodist churches have taken the church census of Burwell and completed it today. It shows 1,500 people living in the corporate limits of Burwell, or a gain of 600 since the 1910 United States census. There were 301 votes cast at the recent village election.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.

"About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted for over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved me and within two days I was as well as ever." Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

Ridder Returns to Home.

WEST POINT, Neb., May 8.—(Special.)—The bloodhounds which were sent from Beatrice to trail the footsteps of Frank Ridder, who disappeared mysteriously from his farm home at Monterey on Wednesday evening last, arrived in this city on Thursday evening and were taken to the home at once. They caught the trail in a very few minutes and followed it in an easterly direction to the bridge near the farm of Henry Harstick, where operations ceased for the night on account of the darkness. At midnight Ridder walked into his home, but offered no explanation as to his strange conduct and whereabouts and did not seem to realize the sensation he had caused.

Note Given Attorney Annulled by Court

TECUMSEH, Neb., May 9.—(Special Telegram.)—The case of George Rothell, guardian of Mrs. C. H. Dennis, against Frank L. Dinsmore and M. E. Cowan closed today after being tried before Judge J. B. Raper in the district court all week.

The guardian enjoined Dinsmore and Cowan from disposing of a note for $2,825 given Dinsmore by Mrs. Dennis for services as attorney. It was claimed to be excessive and that Mrs. Dennis was not in a fit mental condition to transact business. The court ordered the note and contract annulled. The costs were thrown upon the defendants.

Dinsmore and Cowan were disassociated from the case.

STATE SOON WILL ENGAGE IN FURNITURE BUSINESS

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, May 9.—(Special.)—The State Board of Control has about completed arrangements to buy the plant, good will and everything owned by the Handcraft Furniture company, which has been manufacturing furniture at the state penitentiary.

Negotiations for the purchase of the plant have been going on for some time, but the board could not see its way clear to pay the prices demanded by the company, which at first was $55,000. Later they came down to $37,000 and now the figure which the board will consider will be in the neighborhood of $21,000, the exact amount to be determined by the invoice of the material on hand.

TWENTY-ONE PER CENT LIFT FOR PULLMAN CAR TAXES

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, May 9.—(Special.)—After a seance with the board of assessment this morning, Colonel Thomas Benton, representative of the Pullman Car company was able to convince the board that the figures reached by it yesterday were too high and it agreed on approximately a 25 per cent increase over last year. Colonel Benton had offered to accept a 21 per cent raise, but could not make the board look at it that way.

There Is No Sin

Being the Transcript of a Message given by Celestia, sometimes called "The Goddess" and the Maiden from Heaven.

TO really exist, anything must be incapable of being destroyed. It is a law of science. But sin is destroyed by just thinking it so! And therefore there is no sin.

You may think you are bad. I will show you that you are an angel. You may think that you are beyond redemption. I will show that I can wipe out every unholy thought and leave you deified.

How can I force you to listen to me? I am coming to you. I have left my heavenly home to save you—to help to make the community a little better.

I will appear in your house. Be not afraid. I will accost you on the street. Be not afraid. I will sit opposite you at your work. Be not afraid. I will answer that question that troubles you. Be not afraid.
