$25 PER MONTH.

This is a cottage of five fine rooms, and it's different, too, from the regular run of cottage homes. The outside appearance is most pleasing, it's neat and attractive. The porch is 9 feet instead of 7, with pressed brick piers built up to a line with the top of the heavy sided railing and has brick approaches on each side up the steps, built up with heavy columns resting on top, supporting a pretty ornamental dormer built out over the porch steps. The front door is full bevel plate quartered oak. Living room is good sized with massive oak colonnade opening to nice dining room. Large kitchen and pantry, full brick and concrete basement, two fine bedrooms with closet for each, large bathroom with high grade plumbing fixtures, electric lights and nice electric shower fixtures, gas polished oak floors. Living room and dining room finished in selected red oak. Built good, strong and substantial. Nicely decorated throughout. It's a real home ready to move into with no expense getting it ready. The lot is full size, 50x128, on good street, close to car line and school, concrete walks. Several bearing fruit trees that were set out before the house was built. You are no doubt now paying $25 per month rent for some house that does not just suit you, and one, too, that does not compare with this one. I know it is a little late to move, but if you will look this place over carefully you will find it is worth the effort; and, further, I will pay your moving expense up to $15. Now, then, let the rent you are paying downtown pay for this good, cozy home. The price, on account of being a little late, is $2,650, and to a good party I will sell for $100 cash and $25 per month. This $25 per month includes the interest. I want you to see this home. You will not find offers like this next spring. Take the car now; get off at 61st St. in Benson, come south about half a block to 2866. Phone Benson 122. F. S. TRULLINGER.*
