Queen Quality

FINE apparel is nearly always light apparel. And so it is with shoes. Every "Queen Quality" Shoe is as light as the service for which it is intended will permit. A woman's shoe should be light in weight and flexible to the foot to enable her to walk in an easy, graceful manner.

This is one of the especial charms that has made "Queen Quality" Shoes so popular. They combine lightness with strength. We only ask the favor of fitting you with one of the many fashionable and beautiful Oxfords we have on display.
