STANDARD BEARER MEETING

From Monday's Daily

Yesterday the Standard Bearers of the Methodist Episcopal church met at the home of Mrs. R. B. Hayes. We first had our business meeting and decided to have a tea sometime in April.

The real purpose for yesterday's meeting was for the Standard Bearers to give a program for their mothers.

The program was as follows: Reading, "Old Mistis," Frances Gamblin; piano solo, "Glow Worm," Amy Elliott; reading, "Caleb's Courtship," Virginia Trively; song "I Would Be True," Grace Simons and Virginia Trively; play, "What Happened to Jane," Helen Schultz and Frances Gamblin.

Dainty refreshments were furnished by Mrs. E. H. Wescott and served by Frances Gamblin, Virginia Trively and Grace Simons.

REPORTER.

SOCIAL WORKERS MEET

The Social Workers of the Methodist church were most pleasantly entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. G. Kieck on west Marble street, Mrs. Kieck being assisted in entertaining by Mrs. A. H. Duxbury.

The business session of the society was largely occupied by the plans for guest day which will be held at the church on April 19th.

Following the business of the afternoon the members enjoyed a number of games which proved a delightful diversion of the occasion. At an appropriate hour dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.
