CANDIDATE VISITS CITY

J. B. Hutchings of Falls City, who is seeking the democratic nomination for state railway commissioner, was in the city Saturday to interview the voters in the interests of his candidacy for the office. Mr. Hutchings is at the present time the chairman of the board of county commissioners of Richardson county and has been one of the most efficient officers of that county. Mr. Hutchings is one of the best qualified men in the state for the commission and should receive a strong support from this section of Nebraska.

They're taking the 101 ranch show away from Zack Miller, but no one so far has offered to relieve Jack Garner of his rodeo.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

The W. C. T. U. held a very interesting meeting on Monday afternoon at the hospitable home of Mrs. Fred Morgan, who was assisted in entertaining and serving by Mrs. Mary Spencer and Mrs. A. L. Tidd.

Mrs. W. S. McGrew of Louisville, county president of the W. C. T. U. was present and gave a most interesting report of the conference held at Omaha by the various dry groups of the state. Mrs. McGrew also discussed the eighteenth amendment at some length.

Mrs. Charles Troop also gave a fine talk on the life and work of General Neal Dow, the father of prohibition, relating many incidents of the life of this Maine statesman who had been the first to attack the liquor traffic.

The playlet, "The Doctor and the Nurse," taken from the Union Signal was given by a cast composed of Mrs. Adelaide Boynton, Mrs. George L. Farley, Mrs. Robert Troop, Mrs. J. E. Wiles, Mrs. Robert Hayes, Misses Mary Kathryn and Elizabeth Ann Wiles, being very much enjoyed by all of the party.

Mrs. Hayes gave a very pleasing vocal offering, "Nebraska."

At the close of the afternoon the hostesses served a very dainty and delicious luncheon that all appreciated very murh.

ARREST YOUNG PEOPLE

From Tuesday's Daily

Deputy Sheriff Ray Becker was at Union yesterday where he was called to apprehend Ralph Crawford, 19, and a girl companion, aged sixteen years, both of Sioux City. The young people had left their home at Sioux City several days ago, hitchhiking to Union, where they were staying at the home of Lawrence Crawford, a cousin of the young man. The young people stated to the deputy sheriff that they had planned on being married today as the climax of their springtime outing, but the word from the parents in the Iowa city cut short the plans of the two youthful parties. The two are being held here pending the arrival of their relatives from Sioux City to take them back home.

'Twould be nicer if Prosperity, instead of being just around the corner, was just around.
