LAUNDERING THE RIBBONS

Substantial Saving May Be Made by This Method of Freshening.

Lingerie ribbons are no small item in the summer. One can save considerable by using this mode of cleaning them. Wash in either cold or luke warm water with white soap and while still wet wind around a bottle or glass. The wrinkles smooth out perfectly and the ribbon comes off unfaded and as fresh as new. It can be used all summer by washing each time this way. A narrow tape sewed to the ribbon as it is taken out and the tape pulled through saves the trouble of using the bobbin when the garment is washed, as it is tacked again to the clean ribbon and pulled through in a few seconds.

Crystallized Fruit.

Small fruit and sections of large fruit are attractive when served with a frosting of sugar. Beat the white of an egg to a stiff froth; dip the fruit in so that it will be coated entirely with the egg; then roll in powdered sugar and lay on parchment paper to dry. Keep cool and serve while fresh.
