HELP WANTED—MALE

Agents and Salesmen—Continued.

MANAGER OF SALESMEN.—I want a man, experienced, with best references and record (no others need apply), for developing and managing real estate salesmen; my ideal would be a man who can sell himself and get others to do so, who could take up one of our out-of-town territories (it is out of New York and Brooklyn that the best real estate money can be made) and develop it, adding another within easy railway distance as soon as he could get the first so it would run itself with moderate oversight, and so on until he should have a state or a little group of states paying him an annual tribute for his brains and energy that ought to run to $20,000 or more; I can show how men in our last previous operation did this or better, and successful as have been our previous developments they were small as compared with Long Beach, where $8,000,000 is being spent for improvements; any successful solicitor who is making less than $10,000 a year at books, at advertising, at real estate or in any similar line is not doing himself justice if he does not endeavor to qualify for this rare chance.
