Desperate Coughs

Dangerous coughs. Extremely perilous coughs. Coughs that rasp and tear the throat and lungs. Coughs that shake the whole body. You need a regular medicine, a doctor's medicine, for such a cough. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Ayer's — We publish our formulas. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor

Any good doctor will tell you that a medicine like Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cannot do its best work if the bowels are constipated. Ask your doctor if he knows anything better than Ayer's Pills for correcting this sluggishness of the liver.

A decision was handed down this week by Judge A A Welch in the case of Rosa Austin and Wilbur Austin vs Daniel O'Hanlon and wife and James Wallace. This suit originated over the sale of blocks 241, 242, 271 and 272 in Dakota City to Stebner by the O'Hanlons. Austin garnisheed the payment of the money on a claim which he held against the property and was given a verdict in the sum of $1,510.86, with interest at 8 per cent. Stebner, who had the money ready in bank to make the payment on the purchase, is taxed with over $300 interest, and on the strength of this will probably go to the supreme court for a decision.

DISTRICT COURT DOINGS

The case of Margaret E Adams vs August Moeller et al, which was on trial last week when the Herald went to press, was finished Saturday evening and given to the jury. The jury, after being out about three hours, returned a sealed verdict, court having adjourned Saturday evening until Wednesday morning, at which time the jury was ordered to report. The verdict returned was in favor of the defendants. The case was a suit for $5,000 brought by Mrs Adams against the Moeller saloon for selling liquor to Albert Adams, her husband, who, about a year ago was hurt while scuffling and died from the effects of his injuries.

Upon motion of county attorney McAllister the case the State vs Lulu McIntyre was dismissed, the only witness for the prosecttion having decamped.

In the case of John D Foltz vs Nellie R Foltz the defendant defaulted, and judgment and decree of divorce was granted as prayed; costs taxed to the plaintiff.

The case of M O Ayres vs Geo Barnett, a dispute over the boundary lines to certain lands on Walker's Island fronting on Crystal lake, was tried before the court Wednesday and Thursday. The arguments of the attorneys will be submitted on written briefs, and a decision will be rendered later.

Court adjourned Thursday afternoon.

Bert Miller, a conductor on the South Sioux City lines of the Traction company was quite severely injured Monday morning. While coming down off the Combination bridge something having gone wrong under his car, he leaned out the door to see what the difficulty was when he was struck by an iron post along the trestle and knocked from the car. After falling several feet he lodged amoung the beams under the track which prevented a fall of thirtyfive o forty feet to the frozen ground below Mr. Miller continued his work that morning.

The contest that has been going on in the courts for the past year between Thomas Curry of this place and the Omaha railroad was settled out of court Mr Curry was fighting a proceeding to oust him from the land on which he lives which was at one time owned by the railroad company, but which they had abondened. Mr Curry has lived on it for a term of years. Under conditions of the settlement Mr Curry remaines on the land for a long term of years to come and gets a money consideration besides. The railroad retains the title of the land which is valuable.

A New and Interesting Book

We are just in receipt of an unusually attractive circular announcing a very unusual book —"The Stark Year Book for 1910"—which is now being sent out by Stark Bros Nurseries & Orchards Co, the famous nurserymen of Louisiana, Mo. The book contains 116 pages, 32 of which are a four color process reproductions of fruit in nature's own colors—the most natural, like-to-nature illustrations we have ever seen. The other 84 pages are devoted to full descriptions and prices of the various fruit trees shade trees, ornamentals, vines, plants, roses, small fruit plants, etc, grown by Stark Bros.

Any of our readers who are planning to plant a home orchard or to increase the beauty of their home grounds by planting shrubery, roses or other plants this spring, should by all means send for the "Stark Year Book for 1910." It really is a remarkable volume—one you will thoroughly enjoy looking through because of its exceeding beauty and one you will find very practical and helpful. Stark Bros have advised us they will send this beautiful book to anyone interested, on receipt of 7 cents to cover postage. Address them at Louisiana, Mo.

WE MEAN YOU

During the one week of March 21 to 28 The Lincoln Daily News will accept $2 from mail subscribers for a whole year to April 1, 1911. This is a cut of just one dollar from the regular price made just this one week by cutting out all sorts of canvassing and letting you do business by mail at the cost of a stamp. This is a year filled with big things, the nomination and election of a United States senator, a big row over the saloon question and then the coming legislature, to say nothing about the scrap over Uncle Joe Cannon and a few smaller guns. You cannot afford to be without a live, independent, fearless newspaper. We let you in right by knocking off a dollar on the start. No booze or nasty medical ads, and free from bossism. It is human throughout and is always doing things it thinks will help Nebraskans. Remember, Lincoln is your town and here is where lots of your interests are. This is the paper you ought to take, and by sending in before March 28 you can save this dollar. Don't pay money to strangers for any paper, but send your order direct to the Lincoln Daily News or to your local agent.
