Geo W McBeath left Tuesday for Florida with the intention of looking up a location, when he will return for his family. He was much pleased with the country down there on his recent trip, and will locate there before another winter strikes us. He was accompanied on this trip by Frank Hirsch and family, of Sioux City, who have purchased land near Kissimee, Fla, and will make that state their home.

County Attorney J J McAllister, while returning from the Old Settlers' picnic last Thursday evening was run into by an automobile coming up from behind and was thrown from his buggy, which was smashed to smithereens by the machine which was being driven at a forty mile clip by a drunken chauffer. Mr McAllister and L H Smith, the other occupant of the buggy, were severely cut and bruised by the smashup. McAllister says he knows the parties with the machine, and also got the number of the auto, but as yet is undecided whether to prosecute or not.

Mr Dean, of Leeds, Io, presented a proposition to the property owners at the resort house in this place Saturday evening in which he guarantees to protect the banks of the river from washing away. The feat is accomplished by a floating apron anchored where the current strikes the bank. This is suspended in the water and the river current is supposed to deposit sand and form a bar—just as snow will blow under a fence or other obstruction, and form a drift. By placing them at intervals along the river front he guarantees to stop the cutting of the banks and form a sandbar that will permanently protect the land from erosion. His scheme is covered by patents, and the only objection offered by those who attended the meeting is the expense of the project.

Bears Lose to Biscuit Shooters

The Teddy Bears gave the Johnson Biscuit Co. team a run for their money at Riverside Park Sunday in a 1 to 0 game. A little bobble—the failure of Hyke or Miller to cover second when an easy grounder was hit to McAllister with a man on first, roubed our boys of a double play and the game, the man making second scoring on a hit soon after.
