Welfare Association Holds Meeting

The Welfare Association held its regular meeting at the public library Tuesday evening. While the organization is not yet complete in all its departments, there were some definite steps taken to take care of some work that seems most urgent. A committee with F. R. Elliott as chairman, was appointed to confer with the Red Cross of the city with regard to improving and safeguarding the bathing pool at the south river bridge that is being enjoyed by so many of our people. Life guards will be kept there as soon as proper persons can be secured. Steps were also taken to make this very enjoyable recreation a permanent thing. For the present, to meet the emergency, temporary robing booths will be erected and a place for parking cars to keep them off the highway which is considered very dangerous.

A committee of five with Mrs. A. P. Kelly as chairman was appointed to prosecute a great membership campaign for the next ten days and all who are in sympathy with the betterment of our community should boost such a worthy proposition along.

When the organization is completed there will be at least nine different working departments laboring for the welfare of our city and surrounding community.

Death of Mrs. E. W. McMillen.

Mrs. E. W. McMillen nee Luella A. Pingree, was born near Eureka, Wis., August 12th, 1865. In 1880 she came with her mother to Kearney, Neb. She was a member of the Kearney high school graduating class of 1884 which was the first class to graduate from the high school. She taught in the public schools of Kearney for five years. She was married Nov. 21st, 1889, at her sister's home in Kaukauna county, Wisconsin, to Rev. E. W. McMillen, who was pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Arborville, Neb.

She was converted early in life and had a bright christian experience. Both her parents and she were members of the Methodist Episcopal church in which she worked faithfully, as well as in temperance work. At the time of her death she was a member of the Methodist church in North Platte.

Her health was not good for several years. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband and daughter Mrs. G. R. (Bertha) Reynolds of North Platte, a brother, Lewis Pingree, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Gangdon, of Neenah Wisconsin.

Her death took place at the Omaha M. E. Hospital, July 8th, 1919, and she was laid to rest in Forest Lawn cemetery. Rev. T. C. Webster, of the Florence Methodist church officiated.

President Wilson Home

President Wilson returned Tuesday after an absence of four months at the peace conference. He took up his work Wednesday and found such a mass of official business that probably will be two weeks before he can start on his tour of the country speaking for the peace treaty and the laegue of nations.

Plans for the trip have not yet been completed, but it was said at the White House that the president probably would so time his schedule as to reach the Pacific coast at the time of the arrival there of the newly created Pacific fleet, which is to start from Hampton Roads for San Francisco about the middle of this month.

Germany Ratifies Peace Pact

The resolution ratifying the peace treaty was adopted by the German national assembly at Weimar Wednesday by a vote of 208 to 115.

Ratification of the peace treaty by the German national assembly removes all doubt of the acceptance of the terms by Germany.

The national assembly by ratifying the treaty makes it possible for the allied and associated powers to raise the blockade. Official notification was sent to Germany June 29 that the blockade would be raised when the treaty was ratified. Placing this condition on the raising of the blockade was looked upon in peace conference circles as a sure plan for securing speedy ratification by Germany.

The council of five on Monday decided to lift the commercial censorship on communication with Germany simultaneously with the removal of the blockade.
