Chas. Burt, traveling engineer for the Union Pacific transacted business in the city yesterday.

Mrs. L. F. Wernert came from Kearney Wednesday to visit at the E. F. Seeberger home. Mrs. Wernert was formerly Miss Anna Rebhausen.

Miss Laura Murray and Miss Vena Warrington left yesterday for Long Beach and other California points where they will spend the summer.

The Enright children left yesterday for Keystone where they will spend the summer months on the farm of their grandfather, A. L. Armstrong.

The Volunteer Fire Department has received 600 feet of new hose to be used in emergency and to replace some now on hand which has been used for some time.

With the warm weather, a renewed interest in tennis has developed The grounds at the Methodist Church are in use most of the time when the weather permits. The lack of courts prevents many of the young people from taking a part in this fine game.

The boys of the local Fire Department received $500 from the Anderson-Srader shows which were here last month under their auspices. From this amount they must pay the expense of the lights. They have not heard that they will be held for the license and are in hopes the city will donate that to their fund.

Fred Anderson has made application for a patent on an arrangement whereby the siren on a fire or police auto is connected with the foot accelerator. He has received word that there is no such patent on record. He has equipped the small truck belonging to the local department with such a device and it works to the complete satisfaction of the driver.

Commissioner Jones has had men at the old dump grounds near the North River and they are cleaning it up and making it more sanitary. He expects to have the new dumping grounds ready by the last of next week. It is the intention to license drivers of wagons which are used for carrying garbage and refuse to the dump grounds and in that way control the dumping at other places.

While in the city last week W. L. Park made the statement that North Platte is better off than towns in a number of ways. He said he found considerable contrast between the golf links of the Country Club and the games he used to play with the Sioux Indian boys on the same grounds. He gives the credit for some of his early enthusiasm and serious thought about the problems of transportation, to his interest in the old overland stage wich used to come through North Platte in the early days.

THIEVES MAKE WAY WITH SILKS AND CLOTHING FROM THE JOHNSON STORE.
