Johnny Hopp to Speak to Linons

Ex-Pro in Baseball Coming to O'Neill

Johnny Hopp of Hastings will be the principal speaker at the meeting of the O'Neill Lions club Wednesday, June 11.

Hopp, for 15 years a top-rated professional in major league baseball, is now associated with Kansas-Nebraska Natural Gas company, serving that firm as assistant agricultural representative and in public relations work.

One of six brothers in a family famous for its interest and skill in athletics, he began his baseball career as a member of the first American Legion baseball team in Hastings, then continued on to the Norfolk, Nebraska club.

Established as a player with promise, Johnny entered the major leagues in the late thirties, serving in succession with Rochester, Houston and St. Louis. As outfielder and first baseman with the Cardinals, he played in three world series (1942-'43-'44) before going on to Boston, Pittsburg and New York. With the Yankee club, he again participated in World Series play in 1950 and 1951.

Out of the five series, four were winners. Johnny's major league batting average was .298; his highest average was .340.

Following coaching assignments in Detroit and St. Louis, he retired from professional baseball and returned to Hastings to join Kansas-Nebraska in February of 1957.

Topic of his talk will be sports in general, with emphasis on baseball. He will review briefly his own experiences in America's greatest sporting event, and his association with some of baseball's most famous players.

Johnny's own thought-provoking philosophy goes far beyond the baseball diamond, however. He believes that many of the same requirements for a successful career as a professional athlete apply also to every line of work.

"Certain physical attributes and a proper mental attitude," he says, "combined with adaptability, a willingness to work and a keen desire to succeed are an unbeatable formula for success in school, in business, and even in professions."

Johnny, a popular public speaker throughout the area, concludes his appearance with a question-and-answer period for all his listeners, with specific pointers for parents with boys interested in sports.
