POPULATION OF LINCOLN, 60,000.

We are leaving the city for the summer can have THE COURIER sent them without extra charge. Leave orders at the office or notify the carrier during the absence of the family. The COURIER does not stop because its patrons are absent from the city, but follows them wherever they may be. The COURIER does not think of leaving its patrons during the summer, but continues its visits to them at their new summer homes. Have the COURIER follow you as a means of keeping posted on home affairs. Its weekly appearance will be more interesting than a letter from home.

THE SUMMER TRIP.

The following "final circular" issued by the chairman of the excursion committee indicates the enterprise displayed by the committee in arranging this trip. Arrangements have been made for the excursion and you are requested to meet the committee at Burlington depot, corner O and First streets, on the morning of July 9th, at 7:30 o'clock, promptly, ready for the train which will leave at 8 o'clock. Be on the ground early and secure a good place in line. Remember the time, July 9th, 8 o'clock a. m. Train porter, due notice of arrival for the train will be sent to the depot the day before the sale. Northern Pacific, Northern Pacific and Tacoma, which, however, unusual delay will be encountered
