Some of our old timers were looking gloomy today, which we found was caused by John Shannon's destroying an old land-mark, known as sidewalk, which has ornamented his livery stable front for lo these many years. John is bound to be up with the times, if possible.

Parties indebted to me on their Ice bills will please call at once, as we are needing some money very badly just now. 149-d2t. F. S. WHITE.

The beautiful residences of Messrs. McLaughlin and Leonard, on north 4th are fast nearing completion, and at a near day the HERALD proposes to speak of these evidences of enterprise and thrift at a greater length.

Joe. Ford has ordered 75 new pair of roller skates and will open up a rink in the Waterman block in a few days. 150-6

A. Beeson, accompanied by his wife, started last evening for an extended tour through the east. They will visit Mrs. Beeson's old home, near Cleveland, Ohio, and then take run up through New York—visit along the great lakes and see Niagara. No man in Plattsmouth deserves a respite from his labors more than attorney Beeson, who has put in more hours per day at hard work than ordinary constitutions will bear. We trust Mr. B. will return home fully recuperated from his labors and in the enjoyment of good health.

WEEPING WATER VICTORIOUS.

The Boys Won Because They Played the Best Game.

The score stood eight to four in favor Weeping Water. There was very little money on the game, and good order and good humor prevailed.

One of the finest plays made was Kiepser in the left field who took a swift grounder on a keen run with one hand fielding it in to second base in time to prevent a two base run.

Rail Road Rumors.

A survey will soon be made on the proposed line of the Plattsmouth & Southwestern.

The contract is already let by the B. & M. folks on a line running from Nemaha City to Salem a distance of 22 miles. The contract calls for its completion by the middle of October.

Work on the Southern division of the U. P. line from Omaha to Manhattan has been commenced, as we learn from a Manhattan paper. F. Stinson, engineer of the work, has been looking over the southern end of the line and the Manhattan Republican says: "Mr. Stinson informed us that Nebraska part of the line would soon be completed. He was pleased with the looks of things at this end. The road will no doubt, be put right through." The work between Beatrice and Lincoln is making good progress, and it is probable that trains will be running through to Omaha by the middle of October.—Beatrice Express.

Polin's Fate.

A dispatch just received from Lincoln reads as follows:

"Judgement in Polin case affirmed. November 9th set for day of execution.

The following letter was received by Manager Young:

BOYD'S OPERA HOUSE.
OMAHA NEB, Aug. 21, 1883.

J. P. Young, Business Manager Waterman Opera House, Plattsmouth, Neb.:

DEAR SIR: Mr. Townsend, agent for the Chicago Ideal Opera Company, will be in your city on Wednesday. You will find him a perfect little gentleman. The Company is, "without doubt," the best on the road, presenting Gilbert & Sullivan's operas; and your people will enjoy a good treat. Anything I can do for you that will advance our mutual interest will be happily attended to.

Regretting very much my inability to be present at your opening, and trusting your people will appreciate such a Company as the "Ideal," and greet them with a full house, I remain, as ever, Yours Very Truly,

E. E WHITMORE,
Treas. Boyd's Opera House.

"The Chicago Ideals" open Boyd's Opera House, August 23, 24 and 25, and the citizens of Plattsmouth ought to feel proud to have such a fine company come here.—[EE]

A Success.

The Plattsmouth Circulating Library is a go, and has been a great success from its inception. The interest taken by our people has induced Will J. Warrick, the proprietor, to make an addition of 200 choice, carefully selected volumes. The books will be ready for circulation about Sept. 1.

We saw a list of the books ordered, and feel confident our reading public have a rare treat in store for them this winter. It is not often a town of this size can have access to such a class of books as Mr. Warrick is carrying in his library.

Card of Thrnks.

The undersigned takes pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of one week's benefit from the Working Men's Benevolent Aid Society, during his recent illness and inability to work. It came at a time when most needed, and consequently was most appreciated. With sincere thanks, and good wishes for the order, I remain, Yours, &c., W. B. SHORT.

The Womens' Christian Temperance Union will have a tent at the Grand Army reunion at Hastings, where they will serve lunch and distribute temperance literature the proceeds to go for the good of the order in the state. We guarantee that if there's a band of workers in the state it is the organization of W. C. T. U. It persistent effort, backed by being on the right side is worth anything success will most certainly, ultimately crown their efforts.

In the case yesterday from South Bend tried in the county court wherein Geo. D. Mattison asked for $1,000 as damages sustained by being pounded up by the defendent T. J. Fountain, a jury trial was had, which assessed the damage at $4 50, judgement awarded accordingly; the costs whice will be heavy will of course fall on the defendent.

Some of the Mills county officials were in the city yesterday looking after parties whom they have reason to believe are harboring some thoroughbred cracksmen. Something interesting is expected to develop in a few days if the "coast is not cleared."

In the assault and battery case against William Holtschneider tried a few days ago judgement was rendered against Mr. H. yesterday to the amount of $100 as damages sustained by the plaintiff.

The Workingmen's Benevolent Aid society meets in Rockwood hall Friday evening Aug. 24. A full turnout is desired.

Eight Mile Grove Items.

A great deal of sickness is prevailing in this vicinity.

H. Miller's little babe was buried in the Grove cemetery last Thursday.

Herbert Richardson, who has been very low for sometime past, is able to be out again.

A little child of A. Kennison died last Saturday. The remains were buried in this cemetery on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John McConkey returned from Syracuse last Friday, where they have been visiting relatives a few days.

Oscar Richey and brother, of Portsmouth, Ohio, are visiting at W. Jenkins'. They have come to view our country and visit relatives and friends here.

Edward Pool of South bend, has been rusticating among his friends here the past few days, as the guest of S. Richardson.

E. E. Sturdivant, a brother of our Doctor, has rented a farm of R. Morrow. He will try farming for himself, next year.

F. E. Fulton, and others, were in Omaha Saturday night, on a bum. They returned Sunday evening, looking the worse for the trip.

Miss Carrie Draper, of Ashland, was visiting at S. H. Draper's last week. She returned Monday, accompanied by Miss Minnie Draper, who will spend a few days in the city

Dr. Joe Hall and wife and Peter Merges were among our guests from Plattsmouth that came out to the G. A. R. festival, last Wednesday night.

J Voodry, commander of the G. A. R. Post, at this place, will move west, near Hastings, next week. He has been one of the leading stars in our society so long, that we will greatly miss him. We wish him success in his new home.

The festival given by the G. A. R. Post, last Wednesday night, proved quite a success; the attendance was good; several were out from Plattsmouth Rev. Cooley, of Mt. Pleasant, helped the boys make ice cream. The band discoursed some fine music for them. Everything was very pleasant. They all went home at a late hour, happy. DICK.

Our old friend, Perry Gass, was badly disappointed this morning, and this was how it came about: He was at the depot, "on time" as usual, when it was reported a negro excursion from Omaha would be in soon, on its way to Red Oak. Our informant says Perry secured the soft side of a truck and seated himself to await the expected train. The minutes flew by and the hours rolled along, and still no "coon" excursion hove in sight. The crowd, by noon, had nearly all deserted the depot, but still they say, Perry waited until about 2 o'clock, when the pangs of hunger drove him homeward, disgusted, followed by Doc Clutter, who had been watching out for the same show, through the baggage window. When you say 'coon" to either of the boys, you had better see first that they are not armed.

We are authorized to announce a farewell sociable at the the M. E. parsonage, at Mt. Pleasant, on the afternoon and evening of next Friday, August 31st. Everybody is invited Mr. and Mrs. Cooley, who have labored faithfully for the past three years at Mt. Pleasant, will, in accordance with the rules of the Conference, be assigned to new fields of labor. They will be missed by the good people of Mt Pleasant, and we venture the remark, that it will be many a day before any other minister and family will fill the place in the hearts of the people there that Mr. and Mrs. Cooley have. Wherever they may go they have the best wishes of the HERALD for continued success.

ED. HERALD:—I wish it to be known to all the tenants on Mr. John Fitzgerald's property in Plattsmouth that I will resign the collecting of rents at the end of this month. I hope those behind on rents will pay up before then. It is my own free act. Mr. Fitzgerald has never intimated that he wanted me to resign, or ever found fault with my collecting; the fault is mine not his. I intend in future to pay more strict attention to my law business. I here also return him thanks for his confidence in me, as several thousand dollars of his money has passed through my hands yearly. M. O'DONOHOE.

Mr. Henry Boeck the old reliable furniture man of Plattsmouth wants the people to understand that his rooms are full of the latest and best styles of furniture of every kind and description which he now offers at bed rock prices. Call and examine the stock. It won't cost anything to look it over and if you do not find lower prices than Omaha and Chicago can give you on the same kind of goods he will not ask you to buy,

Our patrons will notice the advertisements of Messrs. Hansen and Boeck Mr. Hansen proposes to close out his queensware, crockery and glassware at rare bargains and Mr. Boeck has placed his splendid stock of furniture upon the market at bedrock prices. Persons desiring goods in the line of those offered by these gentlemen cannot afford to pass them by.

BED ROCK PRICES. I have on hand a large and very superior stock of furniture, much of which I propose to sell off at cost. My goods are for sale and before purchasing I wish everybody who needs furniture to call and look them over. All I ask of the public is to examine my goods and my prices
