CITY BREVITIES.

SATURDAY.

Sam Long of South Bend is in town today on business.

R. W. Hyers came home this morning from an extended visit of several week's in Illinois.

Louisville has secured the Rexford Sorghum factory which is quite an institution and is a good thing to have in the community.

E. W. Woodruff, the popular Cedar Creek pedagogue, and George R. Sayles are in town today from that village and made THE NEWS a pleasant call.

Mrs. Phil Wurtemberger returned home from Aurora, Ills., this morning where she had been visiting her father Colonel Greusel who is rapidly failing from his cancerous ailment.

Elder Youtzy's subjects tomorrow at the Christian church will be: Morning—"Parents' Duty Toward Children." Evening—"What I Think of R. J. Ingersoll's Last Sunday Sermon."

The Farmers' Butter and Cheese association property advertised to sell today was not sold for want of bidders. The George Mayfield property at Louisville was sold to Sarah Cutforth for $334.

The damage suit of Mrs. Griffin of Louisville, wherein she sued the village marshal for $1,000 damages for entering her premises, resulted, after trial to jury in Judge Spurlock's court, in a verdict of $40 for her.

Captain David Neal, the martial hero of Mercertown, came all the way in and borrowed a NEWS of a friend to see what it said about him. After reading it he concluded to allow us a few more days lease of life.

Uncle Robt Metteer came over from Weeping Water today where he loaded a dwelling house on to the cars for shipment to Elmwood. It looks as though Elmwood was determined to become the second town in the county the way it encroaches on its neighbors.

MONDAY.

Uncle Ben McNurlan of Greenwood is in the city today.

Mayor Fred Gorder came in from Weeping Water yesterday afternoon for a visit with his friends.

Elder Mapes went out to Weeping Water today where he will work at his trade near there for a time.

Judge Hall will hold court at Nebraska City this week for Judge Ramsey, beginning this afternoon.

Frank, Iva, and Carrie Anthony of Glenwood came over Saturday to visit their cousin Miss Jennie Anthony.

The Turners held their Saturday evening's ball at their hall according to program and a nice time was had though the crowd was not as large as common.

Mrs. Joe Klein is the happy possessor of a birthday present from her husband, a nice new phaeton and horse which she can enjoy during the summer immensely.

Billy Woodard was in town today looking as good natured as of yore. He will move back to this city in a few days, having secured employment as cook at the Riley.

Dr. Burgess returned to his home at Cedar Rapids this morning after a visit of several days in the city with his porents. Mrs. Burgess will not return for several days

Uncle Timothy Clark tried to move over to Weeping Water, but he manages to spend most of his time here, just the same, and we suspect he will ere long change his residence back to Plattsmouth.

While the workmen on Nick Halmes' barn were changing the scaffold last Saturday the rope became entangled around Sam Chambers' feet in such a manner as to throw him violently into the basement, fractering his shoulder.

The wedding of Mr. Vincena Pilny and Miss Mary K. Hadraba occurred at the home of the bride's parents in west Plattsmouth at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. F. H. Freund officiating. They will make Plattsmouth their permanent home.

E. E. Hilton and family are rejoicing over the arrival of Mrs. Hilton from Lincoln, she having fully recovered from her recent mental malady. The many friends of the family are glad to see her at her home again. She returned Saturday evening.

Plattsmouth merchants enjoyed a pretty lively trade Saturday, the stores being filled with farmers who were laying in a supply preparatory to engaging in a long siege of work putting the ground in shape and planting corn. The soil was never in better condition than it is now, and fall wheat and oats are looking fine.

R. F. Dean, of the Cass county dairy had a little excitement with his team at the foot of Fairfield hill yesterday while returning home. He had undertaken the task of driving an unruly horse for some one, and while he was not not noticing the animal gave a side lunge against the other horse and wheeled the wagon around in such a manner as to break a wheel.

A permit to wed was granted to Wilber J. Hayes and Miss Viola Beck by County Judge Spurlock today. Mr. Hayes is the son of County Commissioner J. C. Hayes and is a prominent farmer residing near Elmwood. They are two of Cass county's best young people. THE NEWS did not learn the date of the wedding but extends its best wishes in advance.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Moonshiners lynched an informer near Chattanooga, Tenn.

A McKinley mass meeting was held at Rochester, N. Y. Platt was denounced.

Shaefer and Daly defeated Ives and Garnier in a billiard game of 500 points at Boston.

The American schooner George W. Whitford, siezed by the Spaniards, has been released.

Francis E. Willard, who is about to sail for Europe, was tendered a reception at New York.

Mrs. Annie Dyer, the London baby farmer, had her preliminary trial at London and was bound over.

The filibuster Bermuda has finally secured British papers of release. Today she will sail for Puerto Cortez.

Major-General Sir Frederick Carrington, at present commanding the infantry brigade at Gibralter, has been appointed to the supreme command against the Matabeles.

Leon Daudet, the son of Alphonse Daudet, the novelist and playwright, has challenged an artist named Steinlen to fight a duel in consequence of a circular recently published in the Echo de Paris.

The Central News says the war office has telegraphed all military officers who are away from South Africa on leaves of absence to hold themselves in readiness to immediately return to their regiments.

The factory of the Dauntless Bicycle company, a four-story brick structure located on Superior street in the heart of the factory district, Cleveland, was gutted by fire. The loss on the building is estimated at $25,000; on stock and machinery about $150,000.

An Important Position.

William F. Canada, formerly of Nebraska City, has been appointed inspector of rates and classifications with the joint-rate traffic bureau of the Central Pacific association in Chicago. The position is important and the selection a compliment to Mr. Canada's ability. He has been under Lot Brown of the "Q" in Chicago a number of years' having charge of the board of trade business. He is a son of W. T. Canada, superintendent of the special service of the Union Pacific.—Nebraska City News.

The Sokol Fair and Ball.

The Sokol hall was the scene of gay festivities Saturday night, one of the largest balls of the year being held there. The fair was also a great success and the numerous prizes were satisfactorally distributed. Jim Pollock drew a ham and Dr. W. H. Dearing a bottle of wine that created some merriment. The best of music prevailed and a first-class time is reported by all present.

Seed potatoes at A. H. Weckbach's. The very best.

Call For Mass Convention.

The democrats of Cass county who have shown their fealty to the party of Jefferson by the support of its men and measures and who have refused to fall down and worship at the silver mammon, are hereby called to meet in the city of Plattsmouth at 2 p. m. on April 22 in White's opera house, for the purpose of electing eleven delegates to the democratic state convention which meets in Lincoln on April 29, 1896.

P. E. RUFFNER.
State Central Committeeman.

Notice to Painters.

Sealed bids will be received until noon May 6, 1896, at the office of the county clerk, for cleaning, painting and tightening up county bridges, according to the specifications on file in the county clerk's office. The right to reject any or all bids is reserved.

and keep it dry. There'll be no danger of its molding. But moisten the bread with water, and see the result, in a short time it is covered with mold. It is just so with consumption. Its germs will not grow in the lungs unless everything is suitable to them. Weakness, poor blood, loss of appetite, coughs and colds often prepare the ground for the development of the germs of consumption. To destroy germ-life the system must be kept in a well-nourished condition. Do not lose flesh. Take Scott's Emulsion, with hypophosphites, as a preventive. It furnishes the reinforcements necessary for the body to conquer in the easiest possible form. The oil is in a state quickly taken up and rapidly transformed into the organs and tissues.

John Fredrick Appuhn, Susan Appuhn, C. Aultman & Co., The Lombard Investment Co., Milton B. Whitney, Chas. S. Fairchild, Harry E. Mooney, Sanford B. Ladd and Frank Hagerman, receivers of The Lombard Investment company, defendants.

C. Aultman & Co., the Lombard Investment Co., Milton B. Whitney, Chas. S. Fairchild, Harry E. Mooney, Sanford B. Ladd and Frank Hagerman, non-resident defendants, will take notice that on the 31st day of March, 1896, Eliza A. Wood, the plaintiff herein, filed her petition in the district court of Cass county, Nebraska; the object and prayer of which is to foreclose a certain mortgage executed and delivered by John Fredrick Appuhn and Susan Appuhn to the plaintiff upon the following described real estate, to-wit: The south half (s ½) of the northwest quarter (n. w. ¼), section thirty (30), township eleven (11), range nine (9), east of the 6th principal meridian, Cass county, Nebraska. Said mortgage was given to secure the payment of two promissory notes, dated April 14, 1891; one for $300, due January 1, 1893, and one for $300, due January 1, 1894, with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from date; that there is now due and unpaid upon said mortgage and notes the sum of $725, for which sum, with interest from this date, plaintiff prays for a decree that defendants John Fredrick Appuhn and Susan Appuhn be required to pay the said amount or that said premises be sold to satisfy the amount found to be due; that C. Aultman & Co., claim to have a mortgage lien upon the land as heretofore described, and that they be required to bring in to this court their mortgage, if any such they have; that an accounting may be had and that the lien of said C. Aultman & Co., be declared subsequent to that of this plaintiff; that the Lombard Investment Co., or their receivers, to-wit: Milton B. Whitney, Chas. S. Fairchild, Harry E. Mooney, Sanford B. Ladd and Frank Hagerman, claim to have a mortgage lien upon the land as above described, and that they be required to bring in to this court their mortgage, that an accounting may be had, and that the lien of said Lombard Investment Co., be declared to be subsequent to that of this plaintiff.

You and each of you are required to answer said petition on the 18th day of May, 1896.

Legal Notice.

In the district court of Cass county, Nebraska, in the matter of the estate of William J. Agnew, deceased.

This cause coming on for hearing upon the petition of Stephen A. Davis, administrator of the estate of Wm. J. Agnew, deceased, praying for license to sell the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section one, township thirteen, north range eight, and the southwest quarter of section eleven, township eighteen, range eight, east of the 6th principal meridian, or a sufficient amount of the same to bring the sum of $450 for the payment of debts allowed against said estate and the costs of administration, there not being sufficient personal property to pay the debts and expenses; it is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at the office of the clerk of the district court at Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska, on the 23 day of May, 1896, at 1:30 o'clock p. m., to show cause why a license should not be granted to said administrator to sell so much of the above described real estate of said deceased as shall be necessary to pay said debts and expenses.

Dated this 17th day of March, 1896.

B. S. RAMSEY,
Judge of the District Court.

Notice to Creditors.

To all creditors of Hiram G. Spencer: You are hereby notified that the sheriff, as ex-officio assignee, herein has sold all of the assigned property, and has made a return and proof that he has obeyed all orders of distribution, and paid the money as directed by a final order of distribution entered herein, and that if you fail to appear and object thereto at 9 o'clock a. m., April 23d, 1896, an order will be entered discharging the said assignee, and the sureties upon his official bond from all liability on account of said trust.

Dated this 6th day of April, 1896.

GEORGE M. SPURLOCK, County Judge.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of an order of sale issued by G. F. Houseworth, clerk of the district court, within and for Cass county, Nebraska, and to me directed, I will on the 2d day of May, A. Sheriff, Cass county, Nebraska.

Legal Notice.

In the district court of Cass county, Nebraska. In the matter of the application of John F. Polk, administrator of the estate of William W. Conn, deceased, for license to sell real estate to pay debts.

Upon reading the petition filed herein and it appearing by the petition that there is not sufficient personal property of said estate in the hands of the administrator to pay the debts of said estate of William W. Conn, deceased, and it appearing from the petition that it is necessary to sell the real estate described in the petition filed herein for the payment of said debts against said estate and the expenses of administration, therefore it is ordered that all persons interested in said estate may appear before me at chambers at my office in the court house, in Plattsmouth, in the county of Cass and state of Nebraska, on the 9th day of May, 1896, at 3 o'clock p. m., to show cause why a license should not be granted as prayed, to sell lots 326-327-363, in the village of Greenwood, in Cass county, Nebraska, and lot 19 in Jones' 1st addition to the village of Greenwood, Cass county, Nebraska, to pay debts against the estate of William W. Conn, deceased, and the expenses of administration.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this notice be published for four successive weeks, prior to the time fixed for said hearing, in THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS-HERALD, a legal newspaper published in said Cass county, Nebraska.

Dated this 23rd day of March, 1896.

BASIL S. RAMSEY.
Judge District Court, Second Judicial District.

Legal Notice.

In county court of Cass county, Nebraska.

To John Lauer, ——— Lauer, and to the unknown heirs of Conrad Lauer, deceased, and to all other persons interested, notice is hereby given that on the 11th day of March, 1896, William Tonat, as guardian of the person and estate of Conrad Lauer, (insane,) filed in said court a final report of his acts and doings as such guardian and a petition praying that said final report may be settled and allowed and that he may be discharged from his trust as such guardian and that he may be allowed extra compensation for extraordinary services rendered in said matters.

You are further notified that if you fail to appear before said court on the 11th day of April, 1896, at 9 o'clock a. m., and contest said petition and final report, the court may settle and allow said final report and grant the prayer of said petition and make such other and further orders, allowances and decrees as to said court may seem proper, to the end that all matters pertaining to said guardianship may be finally settled and determined.

Dated this 11th day of March, A. D. 1896.
