IN THE DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF CASS, NEBRASKA.

Samuel G. Stone, Plaintiff, vs.
Frederich Fuchs, et al., Defendants.

To Frederich Fuchs, Mrs. Frederich Fuchs, his wife, first and real name unknown, the unknown heirs and devisees of Frederich Fuchs, deceased; T. W. Newman, first and real name unknown, the unknown heirs and devisees of T. W. Newman, deceased; H. F. Price, and the unknown heirs and devisees of H. F. Price, deceased, defendants:

You and each of you are hereby notified that on the 17th day of February, A. D. 1914, the plaintiff herein, Samuel G. Stone, filed his petition in the District Court of Cass County, Nebraska, against you as defendants, the object and prayer of which are to quiet and confirm in the plaintiff the fee simple title in and to the following described real estate, to-wit: Lots seven (7), eight (8) and nine (9), in block seventy-five (75), in the City of Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, except a strip four and one-half feet (4½) in width off of the east side of said lot nine (9), to obtain a judgment decreeing that the plaintiff is the owner in fee simple of all of said described real estate, and to forever exclude and enjoin you and each of you from claiming any right, title, claim, lien or interest in or to the above described real estate, and to remove certain clouds from plaintiff's title thereto, and for equitable relief. Plaintiff alleges that he and his immediate grantors have been in the actual, continuous, open, notorious, exclusive and adverse possession and ownership of all said described real estate, claiming the same against all the world and especially against the defendants herein, since the year 1866.

You and each of you are required to answer said petition on or before the 27th day of April, A. D. 1914, and if you fail so to do your default will be entered therein and judgment entered as prayed for in plaintiff's petition.

Dated this 12th day of March, A. D., 1914.

SAMUEL G. STONE, Plaintiff.

James P. Rainey was down from his Mynard farm Tuesday afternoon attending to business affairs and meeting his friends.

Misses Zola Frans and Edith Frans went to Lincoln last Friday evening and were guests of their cousin, Miss Lola Wolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Patterson of Plattsmouth were visiting here last Friday, and were the guests of their son, J. M. Patterson.

Miss Emma Anderson of Lamoni, Iowa, made a three weeks' visit with the family of George Everett, southeast of town, and departed for her home on Monday.

Robert Banning came in from the north last week and made his Union relatives and friends a visit, and will go from here to Billings, Mont., to locate permanently.

W. H. Betts, who a few weeks ago located on his ranch in Holt county, passed through here Tuesday, going out to his farm near Avoca to spend a few days attending to some business affairs.

C. Wes Clark's cash pocket was just a dozen dollars short Saturday night, due to the fact that a purse containing the "wampum" dropped out of his trouser pocket and up to date the property has not found its way back to the owner. Perhaps it was found by the one who picked up a purse containing $4.50 a few weeks ago—name known, but proof not yet conclusive.

The man who thinks Joe Bauer a novice in the line of artistic work has another think coming. For proof, notice that fine large "L" desk that was added to the equipment of the Bank of Union. Joe is the man who built it entire and a neat piece of furniture it is, and Cashier Patterson says the first man who squirts tobacco juice upon it will have his measure taken in Upton's undertaking room.

Earl Upton finished loading his implements and household goods Wednesday and started for Chapman, Neb., where he will locate on a farm. Mrs. Upton and daughter, Mary, will spend a few days visiting relatives and friends before going to their new home. Union is losing most estimable citizens by the departure of this family, and they take with them the best wishes of all the people who knew them.

GERMOZONE'S Big Value

is not so much in its great efficiency as a remedy for roup, canker, chicken pox and other diseases of poultry, but it is the greatest bowel regulator in the world for either poultry or stock (including pet stock), counteracting, especially, bowel troubles due to musty, spoiled or improper food. With man, fowls or animals, regular bowels means health. Continued irregularity means some sickness, difficult to cure if not fatal. Thousands give Germozone regularly twice a week to chickens, young and old, at the same time having it ever handy as a ready remedy for other diseases. Sold by dealers or postpaid. One size only, 50 cents.

The First National bank of Elmwood was sold this morning to E. E. Butler, president of the Citizen's State bank of University Place, C. T. Butler, cashier of the same bank, and R. M. Turner, a capitalist, of Lincoln.

The funeral of James Clark, a former resident of this vicinity, was held here Wednesday morning from St. Mary's Catholic church and interment made in the Elmwood cemetery. Mr. Clark passed away at his home at Rockford Mo. He was aged 72 years.

J. F. Hoover had the misfortune to have a shoulder dislocated Wednesday morning, when he was dumped out of his buggy in front of the H. W. Miller residence. His horse shied at a pile of boards in the Rolofsz pasture, breaking his course suddenly to one side of the road, thereby cramping and upsetting the buggy. Mr. Hoover was taken home where a physician soon attended him and he is now doing nicely, we are glad to state.

JUDGE BEGLEY HOLDS A SHORT SESSION OF DISTRICT COURT TODAY

From Saturday's Daily.

This morning District Judge James T. Begley arrived from Papillion and held a short session of the district court, taking up the matter of the estate of Nicholas Halmes, deceased, vs. Henry R. Gering. The case arises out of a note that the estate claims was given by Mr. Gering to the First National bank for $2,000, and which they allege was signed by Mr. Halmes as security, and which the estate was compelled to pay. The defendant claims that Mr. Halmes was the principal in the giving of the note and Mr. Gering as the security. There were a great many documents bearing on the case submitted to the court for its inspection.

First-class alfalfa seed, at my farm, 5 miles north of Nehawka. Z. W. Shrader. 3-30-6wks-w

MR. FARMER

You can make money raising alfalfa in the Big Horn Basin or the North Platte Valley. If you will go with me to either of these localities, I will show you many farms whose alfalfa yield will amaze you. You do not have to sow and reap for each crop. You seed the ground to alfalfa once and then cut three times each year for succeeding years.

You can homestead forty or eighty acres of this land under the Government Canals, repaying the Government the actual cost of water, the payments spreading over many years, without interest.

The Burlington's new main line train through Central Wyoming will traverse these localities and conneet them with an immediate and perpetual market at profitable prices. There are, also, deeded lands and Carey Act Lands available in both of these regions.
