STORE FORCE HAS MEETING

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Johannes entertained at Nebraska City Sunday evening, members of the staff of Joe's New Way stores and the Mullen meat market of this city. The event was in the nature of a dinner party served at the private dining room of the Grand Hotel, the table being very attractively decorated with lavendar and pink sweet peas to lend a touch of charm to the scene.

Following the dinner all took part in a general discussion of present day retailing from both the consumer's and dealer's standpoint, which was very interesting.

A. E. Deiter, the main speaker of the evening, discussed the future of the grocery business and predicted a good business year in 1939.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mullen, Walter Fornoff, Wilma Wiles, Antonia Vanek, Josephine Warga, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Pearson, Vincent Kelley and Margaret Ann Pitz, all of Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Johannes, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Deiter, Otto Strause, Gene Smith, of Nebraska City; Georgia Grisk of Elk Creek.
