ON A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS.

An Effort Being Made to Release Myrtle Cole From the Home of the Good Shepherd.

Wednesday morning, May 23, Attorney McMillan went before Judge Abner Smith and swore out a writ of habeas corpus for the release of Myrtle Cole from the House of the Good Shepherd. The case will be heard Thursday morning. The writ was applied for in the name of Mrs. S. E. VanDine of this city. Myrtle Cole has been an inmate of that institution for more than two years. She is one of those unfortunate young girls we mentioned in our issue of April 14, as being the alleged victims of unparalleled cruelty at the hands of the "Sisters" in charge of this institution.

At that time we made the following allegations, furnished us by a former inmate who had been fortunate enough to secure her freedom: Myrtle Cole, who went under the name of "Louise" in that house of detention, was sent there about two years ago for 100 days, on an order of the court.

After being in the house for one year and a half she asked for her freedom.

This was denied her unless she consented to become a Roman Catholic.

This she could not do, and on their refusal to permit her to go, she threatened to run away.

Then came the order, "to the dungeon."

She was placed in the dungeon in the month of September, 1893, and released during March of 1894.

While confined therein she was compelled to work the button holes in one dozen white linen shirts each day.

Her provender consisted of two meals each day—the leavings from hotel tables and the table of the other inmates of the house.

It is expected at the hearing of this case that a great deal will be exposed that will not redound to the credit of the management of this so-called House of the Good Shepherd and will doubtless raise the question whether Cook county shall continue to pay nearly $11,000 annually towards the support of this institution when girls are treated in the manner that it is alleged Myrtle Cole and others have been treated, or shall Cook county have a public, nonsectarian reformatory for girls and women where humane treatment will be at least accorded them.

LATER.—At the hearing of the case Myrtle Cole testified that she did not want to get out, and was contented where she was and went back to the House of the Good Shepherd. Of course we can only surmise at the influences that were brought to bear on the young girl.

SUING THE SERVITE SISTERS.

Sensational Bill Filed by an Alleged Recalcitrant Member of the Order.

If the bill filed in the Circuit court on May 23d by Attorney General Moloney should fulfill its object, the Servite Sisters, who have been practically outside the pale of the Catholic church for some years past will soon be compelled to yield up the fine property, valued at about $500,000 and accumulated chiefly through the donations of public charity, which they hold at West Van Buren street and Albany avenue.

Alleged improper conduct and gross misappropriation of funds form the ground-work of the proceedings. The mother superior, whose lay name is Elizabeth Cooling, and who has had the title of the property placed in her own name, contrary to ecclesiastical discipline, is charged with improper relationship with one J. A. McDonald, music professor, of No. 92 Loomis street, to the great scandal and injury of the institution. It appears that on account of the scandals Archbishop Feehan endeavored to persuade the mother superior to deed the property in trust to some good person, and to withdraw from the institution, but she refused, and sold some of the property, devoting the proceeds to her personal use. It is claimed that she will further deplete the property and destroy its value unless the court interferes and places the property as a public trust in charge of responsible and reputable persons. Attorney General Moloney claims that while the proceedings in this case are not in accordance with the statutory provisions governing his official duties, the common law compels him to act as he is doing in the case.

The suit is taken at the instance of Sister Veronica, who was expelled from the institution as recalcitrant and who claims a sum of $25,000 as due her by the institution for services rendered. Sister Gertrude, another member of the Servite order, came to Attorney General Moloney's office yesterday to protest against the suit, but was promptly ordered out. The bill was filed late in the afternoon and the writ placed in the hands of the sheriff for immediate service.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Inspect the Convents.

Ulster Scott, in the Belfast Weekly News, says: "Why should convents flinch from inspection? How would it interfere with them? The law does not leave other people unprotected. It is sentimental nonsense to say that the communities in question would be insulted. The doctor who keeps a luxurious asylum for mad people does not take it as an insult when his house is officially visited. Innocence feels it a horror to be even wrongly suspected. On the other hand it is plainly written: 'He that doeth evil hateth the light.'"

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The State Republican convention will be held in Omaha Wednesday, August 22nd at 10 a. m.

C. D. Wilson of South Omaha was married Thursday evening to Miss Phoebe Hopper of this city, at the home of the bride's mother, only the immediate friends and relatives were present. The best wishes of THE AMERICAN go with them to the new home in South Omaha that friend Wilson has prepared for his bride.

Why Did It Stop.

A couple of weeks ago the World-Herald in several issues exposed to the public some city matters that were termed by that paper as "awful." If the paper told the truth, as we believe it did, there is more corruption in the city government than citizens dreamed of. According to the World-Herald the mayor's own appraisers awarded a large sum of money to the mayor for damages on a piece of property owned by the city. The property is said by real estate dealers to be worth less than $2,000, but the appraisers awarded over $7,000 to the mayor for property to which, it is claimed, he had no title. Suddenly the World-Herald become as silent as the grave on this fraud.

Inquiry was made at the office of Mr. Paul, chairman of the board of appraisers, as to the World-Herald's sudden silence. Mr. Paul's countenance betrayed a great deal of agitation over the exposure, and he meekly gave the following information: "Well, I called on Mr. Hitchcock with my team and drove him down to see the property, and explained to him how badly I felt over the matter, and he promised to let the matter drop and say nothing more about it." "Well," said the interviewer, "how much was there in it for Mr. H.?" Mr. Paul smiled with a sickly smile and a knowing wink, and nothing more. Now, Mr. Hitchcock, why did you stop the fight?

FIFTEENTH STREET THEATRE.

"Michael Strogoff" will be the attraction all next week at this popular amusement resort. The eminent actor J. P. Rutledge assuming the title role. Matinees Sunday, Wednesday, and Saturday. Manager Burgess, to whose very efficient management the house owes its success and popularity, has decided to inaugurate summer prices for this engagement and it will be the first opportunity the people of Omaha have had to see this great Russian drama for 10, 20 and 30 cents. At these prices, with this acknowledged great attraction, the several performances should be very largely attended.

Marry This Girl—Somebody!

MR. EDITOR:

I stained a blue silk dress with lemon juice; what will restore the color? I am making lots of money selling the Climax Dish Washer. Have not not made less than $10 any day I worked. Every family wants a Dish Washer and pay $5 quickly when they see the dishes washed and dried perfectly in one minute. I generally sell at every house. It is easy to sell what every family wants to buy. I sell as many Washers as my brother, and he is an old salesman. I will clear $1,000 this year. By addressing J. H. Nolen, 60 W. Third Ave., Columbus, Ohio, any one can get particulars about the Dish Washer, and can do as well as I am doing.

Talk about hard times; you can soon pay off a mortgage, when making $10 a day, if you will only work; and why wont people try, when they have such good opportunities?

They Will Not Parade.

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., May 21.—All the Catholic societies have passed resolutions against taking part in the Decoration Day exercises. The societies have hitherto always joined the procession in a body. Their reason for withdrawing, they claim, is that the leading G. A. R. men are members of the A. P. A. and that the grand marshal of the day is a leader of the latter society. This action was taken at a special meeting called for the purpose, and has created a good deal of unpleasant feeling.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. THE • HORRIBLE • BOOK.

Extracts from the Theological Works of Peter Dens

On the Nature of Roman Catholic Confession and the Obligation of the Seal.

New Edition, Revised and Edited by STEPHALIUS, Editor of "Merry Tales of the Monks."

This book was first published in New York in the year 1832, by an anti-Catholic agitator named Sparry E. Zosinius, a Monk of La Trappe, being the translator. It attracted great attention, and was the cause of much controversy. The sympathies of the press and public were with the publisher, and the advocates of Catholicism consequently met with defeat in their attempts to suppress the Book. A revised edition was afterwards printed in Boston. Both of these editions are now very rare. The present issue contains considerable additions, much new matter having been inserted without impairing the original text in the slightest degree. No man who regards the purity of his wife and children, or other female members of his family, should fail to peruse this book. And never would he, after perusing it, permit a female member of his family to frequent that HELL upon earth—a Roman Catholic confessional—or allow them on any pretense whatever, to hold any communion or intimacy with Romish priests or their female jackals, the "Sisters of Charity," or of "Mercy," or those of any other of the numerous orders of mockery that have of late become so plenty in the United States of America. As nauseous and as outrageous to all decency as we know the matter contained in this book to be, we are still confident in the belief that it should be read by every head of a family in the Union. For, unless we probe the gigantic ulcer to its very core, that is now gradually eating into the vitals of our Republic, in vain will be our attempts to eradicate it. Price, in cloth, 75c; in paper cover, 25c. Cash must, in all cases, accompany orders. Address all orders to,
