The following letter and the written opinion of the county attorney were filed and read:

Omaha, Nebr. Jan 3rd, 1896.

I M Polski, Esq, County Treasurer, Loup City. Dear Sir:—We have determined to test the legality of the following bonds in your county for the year 1895, namely: The water-works bond levy of twenty seven mills in Loup City and irrigation bonds of ten mills each in Logan and Loup City townships, as our attorneys advise us that same are illegal. Will you please lay this letter before your Board of County Commissioners at their first meeting and have them authorize you to accept our taxes for the year 1895 less these levies? All we ask is a receipt for what we pay. If this is not done we shall be compelled to make a tender of what we consider the proper amount and enjoin the balance. This would work a hardship on the rest of our taxes in your county for the year 1895, as it would tie same up indefinitely and this we wish to avoid if possible.

Yours Truly,
J G TAYLOR, Auditor.

OPINION OF COUNTY ATTORNEY:

To the Honorable Board of supervisors, of Sherman county, Nebraska:

The County Treasurer, I M Polski, having presented the letter hereto attached, to me as County Attorney, for an opinion as to whether he could legally accept a portion of the taxes of the B & M railroad company as indicated in said letter and to whether your Honorable Board could authorize such acceptance legally? After an examination of authorities upon the subject, I am of the opinion,

First.—The Treasurer may legally issue a receipt pro tanto, that is, for the specific amount paid, and that it will not prevent the county treasurer from enforcing, by legal process, the collection of the tax unless restrained from so doing by order of the Court.

Second:—The County Board have supervisory authority over the affairs of the county and I see no legal reason why an order should not eminate from this Board as to the action of the county upon this matter of accepting or rejecting the tender of said B & M railroad company taxes.

JOHN W LONG,
County Attorney.

The foregoing letter and written opinion were taken under consideration and on motion the county treasurer is authorized to accept from said B & M railroad company the tender for that part of the tax as indicated in the letter of J G Taylor, Auditor, and to issue a receipt therefore, and that he proceed to collect the balance of the tax of said company according to law, unless enjoined from so doing.

On motion, Dunker and McKeon are authorized and instructed to cause to be made what repairs are required on bridge across Middle Loup river at Rockville.
