FLAGS & ENVELOPES

The "Advertiser" Office has provided itself with Flag cuts, and also, those for printing various kinds of National Envelopes, and is now prepared to fill orders wholesale or retail. Apply at the "Advertiser" office, or Post Office.

School Exhibition.—One of the most pleasant and interesting entertainments that ever took place in this city was the School exhibition at the Congregational Church, on Tuesday evening last under the superintendenc of Prof. O. F. Lake. It was gratifying to see such an attendance on the part of citizens; many were unable to get into the house. The exhibition consisted of declamations, compositions, addresses and dialogues. The students acquitted themselves in most admirable style, reflecting much credit upon their Teacher, Mr. Lake.

Such exhibitions are productive of great good in many respects, and ought by all means to be encouraged and sustained. This being the first of the kind here, we are pleased to know it met with general favor.

Personal.—On Tuesday evening last, we had the pleasure of meeting and passing an agreeable hour with the locals of the Nebraskian and News, G. W. Rust, and A. F. Harvey, Esqs. who have been in "the expedition" with the portion of the Nebraska Regiment now below and were returning to their "posts." They are both in "good condition," gave evidence that they could "bite a cartridge;" were "military" both by "inclination" and "practice" and said they had no hesitancy whatever in declaring their preference for "fodder" butter.

We may look for flaming accounts of the daring exploits of the Nebraska soldiers, given by "one who was on the ground and an eye witness."

P. S.—Harvey—"Left, left, left, left, forward—march."

Capt. Merrill, of the U. S. Army and Capt. Hollins, and Lieut Howard of the Nebraska Regiment Volunteers, stopped over here, on Tuesday night, on their way to Omaha and Council Bluff, Capt. Merrill goes to the Bluffs for the purpose of mustering into service the Iowa Regiment rendezvousing at that place.

Lieut Majors of Company "C," 1st Regiment Nebraska Volunteers, we see in town to-day.

L. Shields, Esq., of the Glenwood (Ia.) Times, called on us yesterday. He was on his way to Ft. Leavenworth as a soldier in the Iowa Regiment. He informs us that he closed up his office and with all the hands therein volunteered for the war.

Hon. H. W. Depuy, agent for the Pawnee Indians passed down on the Emily yesterday on his was to St. Joseph. He reports the Pawnees now loyal and peaceably disposed; but that they have been terribly tampered with by the rebels.

Major Baker—from the Indian Reservation was in town last week on his way to St. Joseph. He reports all quiet with his Indians and hopes to be able to keep them so.

Don't forget that we take corn, oats, potatoes, butter, eggs, cheese, lumber and all such, on subscription at this office. The Advertiser and Farmer will be furnished one year for five bushels of wheat.

The Dance—On Friday evening for the benefit of the Band was a most magnificent affair—say all who attended.—More, prettier, and most handsomely attired ladies than were ever before congregated in this city; music better; more sociability; warmer weather, and more money shelled out for the Band boys.—"Good enough."

"Nary" Sesesh.—Jos. Schutz desires us to say that he is now, always was and intends to remain a full-blooded, double-breasted Union man, reports of his enemies to the contrary notwithstanding.

To say that the weather just now is "hot" conveys but a poor idea of the true state of affairs. Were it not for Worthington's "cool ice" and his various liquified spiritualities commonly sucked through straws, don't know what would become of us. Whew!

Hungarian Grass.—We want a few loads of Hungarian Grass. Will somebody bring it along soon.

"Hole hog" is informed that the gentleman who he attempted to dissuade from subscribing for the Advertiser, came to town and ordered two copies, saying he wanted no better recommendation of a man or paper than to know of such men's opposition. "Go on with your show" old fellow.

Our "Phunny Phellow" wants to know why delinquent subscribers are like the rebel commander Pillow?

Because they "show no quarters!"

It is high time candidates for office this fall was placing their names before the "dear people." Owing to the hot weather, hard times, bad state of the roads, prospect of failure of corn crop and other reasons "too tedious to mention" we have concluded to reduce the price for announcing candidates from $5 to $2 50, payable in cash or good country produce.

The corner stones of the new Masonic and Odd Fellow's Halls in Nebraska City were laid on Saturday with appropriate ceremonies. The building when completed will be an ornament to the city and reflect honor upon the orders and citizens of our sister city.

We see that the Otoe Co Bible Society has presented each member of the company from that place composing the Ist. Nebraska Regiment with a copy of the Bible New Testament and Psalms.—Will the Nemaha County Bible Society follow the example, and present the brave boys from Nemaha County with like books. What say you Bro. Hoadly?

Will the owners of Reaping Machines in Nemaha county be good enough to report to us the number of acres wheat and other grain cut by each this season. We are preparing a statistical report for the Agricultural Department of the Patent office at Washington, and desire all and as accurate information as we can get as to the small grain crop in this county,

Mournful.—Last week we announced that two of S. W. Kennedy's children were poisoned by eating the phosphorus from matches, and that one had died but the other recovered. We were mistaken. They both died.

Come Back.—Hon. W. A. Finney one of the first settlers of Nemaha county and who removed to California two years ago last spring, returned to this place on Friday last. We are glad to see our old friend look so well. It is singular that all who once reside in Nemaha county, should they leave us to hunt new locations, are sure to return.

Mr. Hatfield of this place and Mr. Beard of Mo. who went with Mr. Finney also returned with him.

A Huge "Goak."—The "Hole hog" man gives as a reason for discontinuing his paper that he feared its "immoral influence" in his family! Oh! M-o-s-e-s!! To those intimately acquainted with the fellow's own morals the hugeness of the "goak" cannot fail to be "visible to the naked eye." Wonder if he ever thinks of the morals of his little three year old, who he teaches to utter the most profane oaths; or of the honest impressions formed by allowing the boy present about the mill when he tolls his patrons grists?

Religious.—Preaching may be expected next Sabbath in the Presbyterian Church of this City, by Rev. H. H. Dobbins, at 10 1-2 o'clock A. M. and 3 P. M.

Also, one week from next Sabbath, August 18, by the same, in Nemaha City at 10 1-2 A. M., and in Fairview (or the Kennedy School house) at 4 P. M.

Accident.—A Mr. Campbell was quite seriously injured at Sprinkle's steam mill in this city yesterday, by the breaking of a large rope with which logs were being drawn out of the river. He was standing near where the rope broke and in the recoil was struck

Five companies of an Iowa Regiment passed here yesterday on the Emily.—They are under orders to repair to Fort Leavenworth. They are a hardy, robust looking sett of men capable of doing good service.

During the thunder storm this morning the house of Mr. Jacob Rogers in Middle Brownville, was struck with lightning His mother, an elderly lady was quite seriously shocked.

Cavalry Companies.—We understand the war department has called for two companies of Cavalry from Nebraska. We are not advised as to details; will be, undoubtedly by our next issue, and if so will inform our readers.

On the first page will be found the "Confiscation Bill," and the "Pawnee County Delinquent Tax List."
