LOCAL MATTERS.

J. L. Colhapp, Editor.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1869.

Heating Stoves, from $4,00 up, at Den's.

4-Penny Nails in abundance, at Shellenberger's.

Sleigh Bells and Horse Blankets at Bauer's.

A Full Stock of Choice Groceries at F. E. Johnson & Co.'s.

English Meltons.—Full suits at A. May's Regulator.

100 Cords of Hard Wood for sale by Hauk & Armitage.

J. V. D. Patch loaded up the last of his goods for Nebraska City last Tuesday morning.

Hon. T. W. Tipton started east last week to visit friends, and be in his place when Congress meets.

Those Plaid and Plain Waterproofs have arrived at the Regulator, and are being sold at such prices as to be within the reach of all.

1st Premium.—The Canton Clipper Plows manufactured by Parlin & Orndoff, took the 1st Premium at our State Fair. For sale by Shellenberger Bros.

Those Ladies' and Children's Furs have arrived at the Regulator, and from inspection we are forced to say they are splendid. They are going off rapidly.

You get the full worth of your money if you buy your Boots and Shoes at Chas. Helmer's, for he is a good workman and a conscientious shoemaker. Call on him.

Religious.—Rev. G. J. Johnson, of St. Louis, District Secretary of the American Baptist Publication Society, will preach in the 1st Baptist Church in this city on Monday evening, Nov. 22d.

Kilbourn, Jenkins & Co. are still selling Pine Lumber, etc., in large quantities, daily. There cheap lumber has drawn more trade to our city this season than any other influence.

Geo. Dorsey has just returned from Beatrice, and reports matters lively out there. He says he passed at least fifty emigrant teams going out, and that the rush for land is unprecedented.

City Marshal McCabe resigned his position a few days since, and made Tuesday hideous with his drunken carousing on the street. He took a very unfair advantage, as Lodger Marshal had been appointed.

Dr. Cowles has removed his office to the room in the rear of Hauk & Armitage's store, where he will be pleased to see all who desire to be treated by the Homeopathic method, and where he will be pleased to explain the theory of this rapidly growing science.

The Star Hotel, with its new front, adds greatly to the appearance of the front of our city, and its table and the accommodation of its proprietors have always done honor to the city in making it a first class stopping place. They deserve, as they receive, a liberal patronage.

New Jewelry Store.—Mr. Dunn will in a few days open up a new and splendid stock of Clocks, Watches and Jewelry, in the establishment just vacated by Mr. Patch. We learn he is a No. 1 workman, and will bring on as fine a stock as was ever opened in this city. Success attend him.

J. W. Bliss and Geo. B. Moore, now canvassing the county for Col. Furnas' Nursery, are authorized agents to receive subscriptions or advertising for this paper; and as canvassers for good, reliable nursery stock, we take this opportunity of recommending them to all wishing anything in that line.

J. R. Bell's shed improvement to keep lumber dry at all seasons and in all weather, is acknowledged by carpenters to be the best thing ever struck in that line in this city, and and the lumber costs no more than if it was wet. Mr. Bell is accommodation and enterprise all over, and lets no opportunity pass to prove it.

D. C. Smith has received a call from Falls City to organize a Brass Band in that place. He is also to furnish the instruments. This is a wise move on the part of the members of the new band, as Mr. Smith's facilities and knowledge are such as to ensure their receiving good instruments as low as they can possibly be had. And, as an instructor, we doubt if his equal is west of the Mississippi river. He is prepared to furnish all kinds of musical instruments on short notice.

Take Notice.—The unsettled accounts of the Journal Printing Company will be left with Judge Morgan for immediate collection, after the 20th inst. Many of these accounts are small, and the costs for the collection of one dollar will be as much as for one hundred. Those concerned will take due notice, and govern themselves accordingly. The undersigned will be at home each Saturday till the above date, to make settlements.
J. W. BLACKBURN.
Brownville, Nov. 4, 1869. 3-3t

We are pained to see article after article in our cotemporary, assailing our city, its improvements, its merchants, its railroad prospects, etc., as these articles have a tendency to drive from us emigrants and capital which we need, and because, in fact, they have no foundation. Our streets are as good as those of any city on the Missouri river similarly situated; the character of this year's building improvements are first class; our merchants are selling goods as low as at any other point, and our railroad prospects are certainly encouraging. Under these circumstances we cannot see the object it can have in thus slandering the good name of the city owners from whom it draws its support, unless it be a natural disposition to foul in its own nest. If it were alone in the work we should say nothing, as its own circulation could do but little damage; but these articles are made a point of by papers of rival towns, and are credited to a journal in our city, thus giving them a character ten fold more damaging than mere assertions of outsiders, while these same journals, copying, know full well that with light crops for the past three years, heavy rains this season, and tight times, every town on the Missouri river in Nebraska is about similarly situated. But this they keep in the back ground, while they copy the thrusts at Brownville.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, The President of the United States, by his Proclamation, has set part the 18th day of November as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer; and, Whereas the Governor of our State has recognized said proclamation, and recommended the observance of said day as a day of Thanksgiving, and believing that it is proper for communities and cities throughout the length and breadth of our country to give thanks to a Supreme Ruler, for health and prosperity, and all blessings, I, therefore, recommend to the people of the City of Brownville to put aside their usual avocations, and have respect for that day, for the manifold blessings we as a city have received in the past, and the hope we have for the future.
G. W. FAIRBROTHER,
Mayor of Brownville.

DISTRICT COURT

For this County has, by order of Judge Mason, been adjourned to the 23d inst.

Axes and Hardware, at Den's.

Demorest's Monthly.—A splendid Christmas number. This favorite periodical for ladies improves with every issue. Its reliable fashions, its numerous fullsized patterns, its admirable illustrations, and great variety of useful and interesting reading matter, render it by far the most desirable magazine of the day, and in fact, indispensible to ladies living away from the metropolitan centers. It is also the cheapest magazine at $3 per annum, with a handsome premium, which, for a limited time, may, we see, be a large and magnificently engraved copy of Lillie M. Spencer's "Fourth of July Pic-Nic"—a picture worth three times the cost of the magazine. Published at 838 Broadway N. Y.

Hay Knives and Thimble Skeens, at Den's.

A Thanksgiving Festival will be held at Phelps City to-night. See in another column that such preparations have been made as to make this a perfect success.

Ballou's Monthly Magazine.—We are in receipt of this marvelously cheap and handsome Magazine for December. Its table of contents is varied and charming, embracing the usual fine variety of serials, sketches, stories, poems and attractive engravings. The publishers announce in the prospectus for the coming year, a serial story for adults, by the popular Magazine writer, James Franklin Fitts, a juvenile serial, by the young people's favorite, Horatio Alger Jr. The price of this periodical is a marvel to everybody—a hundred page, first-class, illustrated Magazine for fifteen cents, or $1,50 per year, is indeed wonderfully cheap. Elliott, Thomee & Talbot' Publishers, Boston, Mass.

Guns, Powder, and Shot, at Den's.

PAY UP!
All accounts due D. H. Lewis & Co. must be paid up immediately, or they will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. "A word to the wise:" save costs.

A Most Liberal Offer.—We will send the ORCHARD & VINEYARD, price $1.50, OUR SCHOOLDAY VISITOR, one of the best magazines for boys and girls published in this country, worth $1.25 a year, and a magnificent steel-plate engraving, entitled "HELP ME UP," worth $2.50 per copy, all to anyone who will send us $2. The engraving will be sent post-paid, secure from injury, and will make a charming ornament for any parlor or sitting room. Send in the names, and secure $5.50 worth for only $2.

New Stock of Lady's and Gent's Shawls, and a fine assortment of Clothing, at Den's.

English Shevlots.—Full suits, at May's Regulator.

Boots and Shoes.—From the best factory in the U. S., at F. E. Johnson & Co.'s.

George Marion, at the foot of Main st., has a bigger stock of goods than ever, and sells as cheap as any house in town. Call and see him.

"Astonishing but True."—That DOOLEY'S CHEMICAL YEAST BAKING POWDER is not only the best but the cheapest in market. It is entirely free from any deleterious substance, and compounded with such scrupulous exactness that the contents of each box are the same, and will produce the same results every time. It is unequaled for making biscuits, rolls, cakes, pastry, &c—at once healthy and nutritious. Full weight in each package. Grocers everywhere keep it.

A choice assortment of fine fleeced Cotton and Woolen Hosery, at Den's.

200 Pounds Live Geese Feathers, at May's Regulator.

Pride of the West Corsets, at F. F. Johnson & Co.'s.

$2.50 for Flour.—You can now live, for that is the price for a No. 1 article at Hauk & Armitages.

Over Shoes, and Gum Boots and Rubbers, at Den's.

Demorest's Young America.—This sprightly juvenile is constantly improving. A new and most interesting feature consists of a beautiful chromo series of Audubon's American birds, each seperate picture of which is fit to a frame, and together would form a charming set for a child's room. Altogether, the December number ought to be good for ten thousand additional subscribers to Young America. $1,50 with a beautiful premium. Publication office, 838 Broadway, N. Y.

Scotch Casimere Suits at A. May's Regulator.

A full line of Woolen Goods, of any description, at F. E. Johnson & Co.'s.

For Clothing, call on Herr Von Grundstein, at May's Regulator. He knows what is good, and recommends nothing but what is.

Best Family Flour—only $2,50 per sack, at Den's.

New Meat Market.—Kelswetter & Whitman are now fixing up the front of the room just vacated by McFall & Co.'s Furniture store for a meat market. They are good butchers, and will do a good, fair, business. They will be open about to-morrow morning.

For Good Groceries and Salt, and fair dealings, go to W. T. Den's.

For Woolen Goods and Flannels, plaid and plain, go to McPherson & Tuttle's, 66 Main street, for their new stock of Flannels especially cannot be excelled. They have also a fine stock of Ladie's Waterproofs, Prints and Blankets, just opened. Call and see them.

For the best Blankets in the world, go to W. T. Den's.

Ayer's
Hair Vigor,
For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a
HAIR DRESSING,
nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.
