To Our Patrons in Job Work.

We would say, parenthetically, that we have received a considerable addition to our Job Office in the way of New Type, Inks, Cards, Papers, etc., which warrant us in inviting an increase of the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed. We cannot turn out as fine Job Work as can be had anywhere, and believe, as low.

The Keno gents, who were upon trial last Thursday, were found guilty and paid $100 each and cost. They paid the cost and gave security for the payment of the fine. We hope the experience gained here may net them a $100 a piece—and cost.

"Under a Ban."—This is the title of a new novelet just commenced in the Saturday Evening Post of Philadelphia, by that admirable authoress, Miss Amanda M. Douglas. This novelet will run for about three months; and will be followed by novelets by Frank Lee Benedict, Mrs. Henry Wood, Mrs. Hosmer, Miss Prescott, &c. The Saturday Evening Post is one of the best of the literary papers, and adapted for family reading by the unobjectionable, useful and entertaining character of its contents. Price $2.50 a year. Address H. Peterson & Co., 319 Walnut street Philadelphia. Sample numbers sent gratis.

A PINE LUMBER YARD.

Kilbourn, Jenkins & Co., corner of Fourth and Main streets, in this city, have constantly on hand a full stock of the best Pine Lumber of all kinds; also, also Sash, Doors, Blinds, Shingles, lath, Mouldings, Frames, etc., etc., which they are selling at the lowest possible figures for which the same can be got out of the log and shipped to this point. They are determined to continue as heretofore to supply the bulk of lumbes, etc., used in this Land District. Call and see them!

The Revival Meeting at the M. E. Church is still in progess.

Rev. J. E. Church, of Marshall, Michigan, will preach in the first Baptist Church in Brownville, next sabbath morning at the usual hour.

Last Sabbath again saw the waters of the old Muddy made a Jordan of to wash away the sins, by the immersion of a sinner into the First Baptist Church of this city.

J. R. Bell of this city has bought out the lumber yard of E. A. Wyatt, at Phelps city, Mo. This is enterprise, and shows a prosperous business on the part of the buyer. Mr. Bell has made himself almost master of the Lumber Trade on this side of the Big Muddy, and his style of fair dealing and small profits are bound to win him an extensove trade on the other side.

A Rooster Fight, In the absence of Keno, or something more exciting, created quite a lively interest last Tuesday morning, causing five cents to change hands on side bets. It was a free fight.

 Religious.—Elder C. F. Short, of the Christian Church of Fairfield Iowa, will preach in the First Baptist Church of this city on Saturday evening, before the 3rd Lord's Day in February.

The Baker Family, as we anticipated, drew a good attendence at Simpson s Hall, last evening. Their voices have lost nothing of their old sweetness and strength. Every song received heavy plaudits. We ore sorry they do not think it advisable to give another entertainment in this city. They would be largely patronized.—Omaha Republican of the 8th.

This family gives a concert in McPherson's Hall to-morrow night, which will, we are satisfied, be a musical treat. Don't forget to go!

RESIDENCE FOR SALE.

"The negro troops fought nobly" for about a minute last Thursday, in front of the Beer Hall on Main-st.; when, to the great sayrin of a large crowd and the darkies—who all enjoyed the fight—Marshall Berger laid his legal clutches upon one of the aforesaid beligerants, the other, "Sweet William," had business elsewhere. The one arrested gave the school fund $5 and cost.

TRUTH WILL PREVAIL.

Dooley's Baking Powder is chemically pure in all its combination, and possesses no ingredients but such as are harmless, healthy and nutritous. In strength and weight it has no equals and but half the quantity is needed for use that is required by those of ordinary manufacture. Used in all families, and is pronounced the best gs well as the cheapest. Prepared by DOOLEY & BRO., New York, and sold by grocers generally. 16-17

Berger's Alhambra is now very tastily fixed up; and Berger nuckles to no man in fixing up good drinks from pure liquors, unless it is Dick Harpster, and he can't be beat. Go and see Dick!

A first-class Cabinet Organ for sale.—One of the celebrated Peloubet Organs, five octave, double blowers, knee swell, four stops, solid Walnut case, the price of which is $175. This Organ is nearly new, in good order, and will be sold cheap for cash. Inquire of
GEO. B. MOORE.

A CARD.

A great many people owe me bills of various sizes; if I had this money I could use it in making my spring purchases, and could, perhaps, again afford to trust. I guess I must have my money. So all who owe me will please take notice that they must call and settle up immediately, or I must take other means to get it. So come right along and pay up and I will say nothing more about it; if not; look out!
WENDTEL GRANT.

Rich & Gilmore are certainly doing a good part by the public in selling choice groceries low for cash and it is a pleasure to note the fact that their custom is good and constantly increasing. Few persons but will sooner or later find out and deal with such "white" business men as Messrs. Rich & Gilmore.

WHOLESALING.

It is a relief to go into one establishment in Brownville and hear nothing said of "hard times," and scarcity of money; we have never heard it of Johnson & Co., but on the contrary have found them complaining for want of conveyance to take wholesale bills into the back country, and saw one bill of about a wagon load, all packed. Besides this they do a thriving retail trade, being the most popular firm in the city; and backed by a superior stock of goods.

Distress.—We saw in our city last Tuesday a female for whose distress the most hardened must feel. A middle aged woman in rags, nearly barefoot, and looking the very picture of forlornness. Her face and hands were however clean. We learn that a creature by the name of Munn is her husband, but who loves rum more than the marital vow can overcome. It is a shame that no legal process can be had to bring such a creature to a sense of his obligation—to do better or drown himself.

"Lincoln's Boyhood" is one of the finest chromos ever issued, and, apart from its associations, is full of artistic excellencies. It is the only true picture of its kind extant. This is a large size picture, worth $10; yet Marsh is selling it at $1, on his popular plan.

BILLIARDS.

THE SLOAN-VALLEAU MATCH.

The following letter was received from Mr. Colhapp last evening. It will be seen that on account of the compelled absence of Mr. Valleau, he asks a postponement of the Sloan match for twenty days:

Brownville, Neb., Feb. 2, 4:30 P. M.
Editor Omaha Daily HERALD:
Sir: Wm. H. Valleau has just received a dispatch announcing the death of a brother in New York, and starts for home this evening; sparing time only to request us through you, to ask for a postponement of twenty days of the billiard match made up between him and Mr. A. A. Sloan, as it would be impossible to make the trip, return and be prepared for the match short of that time.
Hoping, as his friend, that this will be granted by Mr. Sloan, I am yours, etc,
JOHN L. COLHAPP.

NOTE FROM MR. SLOAN,

The following note was handed to us by Mr. Sloan last evening, in reply to Mr. Colhapp: Omaha Daily Herald.

OMAHA, Feb. 4th.
EDITOR OMAHA DAILY HERALD:
SIR,—I see in the HERALD of to-day a letter from Mr. Colhapp, requesting (in behalf of Mr. Valleau) a postponement of our billiard match for twenty days; which, under the circumstances, I most cheerfully grant.
I sincerely sympathize with Mr. Valleau in his affliction, as will his many Omaha friends. Yours respectfully,
A. A. SLOAN.

The Most Popular Chromo published in any country, is the famous "Group of Chickens," by A. F. Tait, which has penetrated every State, and almost every county of every State, in the American Union.
"Quails" and "Ducklings"—companion pictures—are quite equal to "The Chickens" in artistic merit.
Bruith, the painter of "The Kid's Playground," is an eminent living German artist. The subject represents a kid gamboling with a calf, while a cow, goats, and ducks are looking gravely at the sport. It is a rural idyl. The managements of lights and shades, and the harmony of the colors, in this favorite piece, display the hand of a master. "The Free Christian Commonwealth" says of it—"It is a book of only one page; but, for all that, it is a great book, and tell as much of a story as most of the books that describe meadow-pastures, well watered, with their tenants—cows, calves, goats, kids, and ducks. To common eyes, like ours, the copy is just as good as the original. The calf looks so much like our calf, as we turn and see her out of the window, that, for all other purposes than the vulgar one of eating, we do not see but one is just as good as the other."
"The Baby" (or "Going to Bath"), after Bouguereau, the eminent French painter, is a characteristic piece after a water color copy from the original.
"Sunset in California" is one of the most brilliant landscapes ever issued in chrome. It is a view in California, by Bierstadt, the well known American painter.
This is another group of pictures that Marsh has on hand. Each is a gem of art in itself, worth from $5 to $9, which are disposed of on Marsh's favorite Dollar style.

Skiff & Gaylord gives one of their star performances on the evening of Friday the 18th, at McPherson's Hall in this city. This is, undoubtedly the best Troupe of Minstrels now traveling in the United States. Comment from us, however, is unnecessary, as they gave a performance here in 1868, which is still so fresh in the minds of many, who attended then, that a crowded house is sure Read their advertisement on second page.

Window Fastener.—It will be seen that this very useful attachment to windows is at last invented, and one that in all likelihood will, from its simplicity and range, supercede all others. See advertisement on 2nd page.

WHITTIER'S BAREFOOT BOY.

"Blessings on the, little man,
Barefoot boy, with cheeks of tan;
With thy turned-up pantaloons,
And thy merrey-whistled tunes;
With thy red lip, redder still
Kissed by strawberries on the hill;
With the sunshine on thy face,
Through thy torn brim's jaunty grace.
From my heart I give the joy:
I was once a barefoot boy!
Prince thou art: the grown-up man
Only is republican.
Let the million-dollared ride!
Barefoot trudging at his side,
Thou hast more than he can buy
In the reach of ear and eye,—
Outward sunshine, inward joy;
Blessings on thee, barefoot boy!"

This has become the most popular figure-piece ever published in chromo. It is also in Marsh's Dollar Store, to be sold for $1.

TOO GOOD TO BE LOST.

We met a stranger at the postoffice the other day, newly dressed up, and seeming to feel the dignity of a good fit of clothes. As we entered, an acquaintance of the "party of the first part" entered also, when the following dialogue ensued:

"Hello! Jim. Been to a fire?"

"No Sir-ee!"

"Well, where'd you get your 'store clothes?' I thought you said you couldn't afford to dress up."

"Well, Will, I did think I could not; but concluded to step into Hetzel's just to take a look. I actually found goods marked down so low that a bred thief would blush to steal them. Mr. Hartshorn showed me more than a hundred suits, and I finally thought I could, at their prices, stand a suit of regular English Beaver, for I know I could not have done so well even in St. Joseph. Will, you can afford to fix up a little; so let's go over and see."

And we saw them cross the street and enter Hetzel's, No. 70, McPherson Block; and they were both "made happy."

FRESH ARRIVAL OF FURNITURE!

Hannaford & McFall are receiving their first lot of furniture this season and intend to keep up their stock to supply the demand. We will vouch for what they promise.

Correggio's Magdalena.—The "Reading Magdalena" of Correggio is one of the most famous pictures in the world. It has been reproduced and copied in countless forms. Mr. Prang was the first to publish it in chromo. It is claimed for this picture, that it is the finest specimen of flesh-color that has hitherto been produced in chromo. Can be had for one dollar at Marsh's Dollar Store. It is beautifully framed, and worth at least $10.

Hauk & Armitage are shelving up the east side of Jas. Berry's store building, and will remove to it early in the spring. This house will greatly extend its business during the coming season.

Valuable City Property for Sale

Having determined to go on my farm in the Spring, for this reason I desire to dispose of my old home property in this City. As the size of it seems to be a difficulty in selling it, I have concluded to divide it into smaller lots. Terms will be made reasonable as to price and time, apply at my office.

Financial and Commercial.

On the 3rd, 9th, 17th and 22d of this month Government sells $4,000,000 worth of gold in New York; and on the 10th and 24th will purchase $2,000,000 worth of Bonds. Money is tolerably scarce all over the country, and loans, even on good paper, range high—in St. Louis bearing from 8@10 per cent., the former being on good two-name paper, the latter on warehouse receipts; in Cincinnatti from 10@12 per cent., and in Chicago from 12@18 per cent. Yet while this is the case in the West, New York complains of a plathoric money market and low rates of interest; and from the tenor of our St. Louis exchanges we judge that Western bankes prefer speculating in Wall-st. on their deposits, rather than accommodate their home demand for steady, safe loans.

This is one of the leading causes that keep grain locked up at this season of the year, and is undoubtedly greatly due to a lack of confidence on the part of capitalists to launch out until the policy of the present Congress is definitaly fixed.

Under these circumstances it is not surprising that trade is languid, and that although business is not entirely stagnant it is not up to former years. Western buyers take hold very cautiously in Dry Goods, and makers hold firm for prices.

Gold in New York on the 7th opened at $1,21 and closed at $1,20.

Prices of Provisions and Groceries remain unchanged, with but little activity in any of the large marts of trade; we have, therefore, but slight changes to make:

MANHOOD:
How Lost, How Restored.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒE, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, IMPOTENCY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to marriage, etc.; also CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,
