MATILDA FLETCHER

Will Lecture in

McPHERSON HALL,

BROWNVILLE, NEB.,

SATURDAY EVENING, DEC. 17th,

under the auspicies of the

Brownville Literary Association,

SUBJECT:

"ARE YOU FOR SALE? OR THE CIVIL SERVICE."

Beatrice is taking steps to become incorporated. Sensible people.

"Pap" Towle, of Beatrice, has purchased a "real" coal stove, and is burning stone coal.

A breakesman on the St. Joe & C. B. R. R. was instantly killed at Craig, on Saturday, by having his head crushed between two bumpers, while coupleing cars.

The Local of the State Journal has had his "phelinks" hurt, by finding himself setting beside a "gal" who had been eating onions. He "smelt her bref."

A friend to Coleman, of the Beatrice Express, knowing Theodore's native penchant for "punkin pie," presented him with a Hubbard squash on Thanksgiving day.

The Weekly Advertiser contains more reading matter, and has a greater circulation than any other paper in the State. Does anybody want to "go in" on that? "Business!"

Sidney Press.—We are in receipt of a new paper published at Sidney, Nebraska, under the title of the Press. It is a neat little weekly, a size smaller than our Daily. Success to the new enterprise.

We are pained to learn, as we do from a private letter from Omaha to-day, that Mr. Augustus Kountze, who was on a short visit East, met with a sad accident, the breaking of his leg. Particulars not given.

The Omaha papers say that the U. S. Assessor of Internal Revenue, of this city, on account of his Samsonian locks, was, while on a recent visit to that city, mistaken for the famous plains man, "Buffalo Bill."

Marshal Campbell in the exercise of a peculiar and admirable characteristic of his, having completed putting down the sidewalks from the river to Sixth street on Main, is now putting down substantial and permanent stone crossings.

New Advertisements.—See advertising columns. "Little Bee Man," Springfield, Ohio; "Lee & Son," Minonk, Ill.; "A. P. Cogswell, Real Estate Dealer," Brownville, Neb.; "Little Nemaha River Railroad Co.;" "H. H. Massey," Jacksonville, Ill.

Dr. Cowles, formerly of this place, now of Beatrice, is about opening a branch drug store in Meridian. Mr. Elwood Davis, a very gentlemanly young man, also formerly of this city, is to take charge. The good people of Meridian will be well pleased with Mr. Davis.

The Craftsman and Canadian Masonic Record is the title of a Masonic publication on our table, hailing from Hamilton, Ontario. The present number contains a fine portait of Robert Marshal, S. G. I. G., 33°, P. Gr. Master, Dominion of Canada. It is an excellent publication.

We were pleased, this week, to make the acquaintance of the Rev. A. RIPPETON of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, who has recently located in our city. He is desirous of purchasing property, building a parsonage and making this the base of his ministerial labors. We speak for him attention and liberality.

Capt. R. B. Preston, of Blue Springs, Gage County, passed through our city on Wednesday, on his way from visit east to his home. The Captain is one of the stirring men of the State. Like all others desiring the truee light, and the latest information, he left his name and the stamps for the Advertiser.

The contractors for the construction of the R. Ft. K. & P. R. R. Co., paid off their hands in cash, promptly at the end of the month. Sixteen thousand dollars of the money necessary to meet this payment was advanced by the Board of Directors individually. This is the Board that was never going to throw a shovel full of dirt!

The Plattsmouth Literary Association has secured the services of Miss Maude Ernst, to deliver her lecture entitled "The Other Side," and W. L. Visscher to deliver his lecture, "Thistle Down." It is endeavoring to engage Anna Dickinson and the "Fat Contributor." They have also engaged gentlemen of acknowledged ability in the State.

The Chronicle office has just turned off an immigration pamphlet which is considered by all printers highly creditable.—Nebraska City Chronicle.

We have been looking over a copy of the pamphlet, and while we admit the typographical execution fair, the proof reading is unpardonable for a pamphlet. For instance: F. King for F. Krug, Treas.: p. 4, quarries and granit for "quartz and granite": p 7 had for made, twice, and lond for town; p 19 Poocell for Pawnee county, Cuhar for Cahn: p 25, court for constitution: p 26, Empacy for Cropsey, R. N. Francis for R. W. Furnas. That wont do to brag on, Bro. Waters.

A Valuable Enterprise.—Through the kindness of Mr. Wiswall we were to-day introduced to Mr. Chas Trupp, from Ohio, who is here with a view of locating a new lumber yard, in connection with which he will have a general wood manufacturing establishment, planing mill, door and sash factory. He will start out with an investment of $2,000, and increase as demand may require. No better point can be found in the west for such an establishment. Brownville wants just the man and the business. Mr. Trupp is well known to many of our citizens, and stands high as a business man. He will work about fifty hands. Welcome, Mr. Trupp.

Indianapolis & St. Louis Railroad Company.—Chas. McCabe Esq., General Western Agent, of this Company, paid us an agreeable visit yesterday. This Company will commence running a full line of the celebrated Pullman, Wagner and Sanderson Drawing Room and Sleeping cars through without change to principal points in the East, on the 27th inst. These cars are elegantly furnished, and afford the traveler every comfort and convenience.

Train No. 1 leaving St. Louis at 7.00, a. m., will run a through day and night coach, via Indianapolis, Cleveland and Buffalo, arriving in New York City at 7.00 o'clock, a. m., of the second day.

Train No. 3 will leave St. Louis at 3.30, p. m. with a through coach for New York by way of Indianapolis, Crestline, Pittsburg, Harrisburg and Philadelphia, arriving in New York City at 10.35, a. m., second day. This train will also run a sleeping coach through to Cincinnati without change.

Train No. 5 will leave St. Louis at 9.50, p. m., with a through palace car via Indianapolis, Cleveland, Buffalo and Rochester, at which point passengers are transferred to the celebrated palace car fast train of the New York Central Raiload, arriving in New York City at 7.00, p. m, of the second day.

These unrivalled adantages afford St. Louis what it has so long needed, facilities for direct and rapid communication with the East, not excelled by any city in the West.

The Star Hotel in this city, sells tickets.

Call for Colhapp Bro's Tobacco, if you wish the best.

Stop at the Sherman House, if you want solid comfort and good living.

A Singer Sewing Machine, of any style desired, for sale at this office.

Fresh Oysters.—In all styles known to the culinary art, at Daugherty's Restaurant.

Dividends are never forfeited in the Washington Life Insurance Co., of New York.

The State Bank in this city, is to commence business operations on the first day of December.

Chester White Pigs.—Four Chester White boar pigs, 8 weeks old, of the Haight stock, for sale by R. W. Furnas, Brownville, Nebraska.

The Presbyterian Church Social will meet Thursday evening, at the residence of R. W. Furnas, Main street. General invitation extended.

Remember Daugherty's Restaurant in the time of thy hunger, for there is the place to get a "square meal," served up to the "Queen's taste."

The disasters of business and uncertainties of life can all be turned into victories and certainties by life insurance alone. Get insured in the Washington Life.

Colhapp Bro's Tobacco is not drugged; it is the best, purest and brightest Natural Leaf in the market. At Wright's, Rich & Gilmore's and at the Post Office.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church, will meet on next Monday evening at the residence of Col. T. J. Majors. A cordial invitation is extended to all, to be present.

Wanted—Farms in Nebraska.—To purchase one or two improved farms within eight or ten miles of Brownville, Neb. Call on C. M. Kauffmann, Brownville, or address R. W. Smith, Toledo, Ohio. 6w3m

The amount of building going on in the city is really astonishing. We strolled out into a portion of the city the other day in which we had not been for some weeks, and counted fifteen dwellings up and under way, since our former visit.

The last installment of the subscription for the erection of the Catholic church being now due, as the building is enclosed, Tim. McLaughlin will visit the subscribers during this week, and collect the same. It would be pleasant if all were prepared to pay promptly.

Wm. M. Chaffee and Wm. D. Lewis have, we understand, associated themselves in business relations, and will open up the Distillery near this city, soon. These gentlemen are both tip-top business men, and we predict for them a successful business career.

It is reported in the city that Judge Sanders, one of our Representatives elect, was very seriously injured on Friday last, by being thrown against the saw of his mill, on the Nemaha. The injury is said to be dangerous. We hope, however, it may not be so serious as represented.

Mrs. I. T. Whyte and her daughter, Mrs. Wright, of St. Joseph, Mo., are visiting our city, and are the guests of their daughter, and sister, Mrs. Holladay. They will be remembered as among the earliest settlers of Brownville; Mrs. Whyte as the wife of Capt. Whyte, merchant, and Mrs. Wright as Miss Hatty Pfouts,

Judging from the sales of Pine Lumber and building material generally, made by J. R. Bell the country west must be rapidly improving with first-class buildings, for this yard alone loads from ten to twenty teams per day. People are finding out more every day just where to get their lumber low down for cash.

W. H. Sylois, Editor Workingman's Advocate, of Philadelphia, insured his life through the Chicago office of the Washington Life on the 24 of July, and died at his home on the 27th of July. He paid $130.88, and his heirs received $4,000! As an investment it paid three thousand per cent.! This is the lowest stand point to view the subject. We prefer to live to a green old age, enjoy life and enjoy conciousness of kept in the way of duty, by having a provision made for those immediately in our care.

Why yeast powder should be used.—Because it is much more convienient than brewer's or hop yeast, produces better and more nutritious food, and never fails of success. This is particularly applicable to Dooley's Yeast Powder as each package not only contains the full weight as represented, but the contents are perfectly free from any injurious substances. Nothing enters into its composition but articles that are healthy and nourishing, and the bread prepared with it is such as can be eaten with impunity by the most sensitive invalids. For sale by grocers everywhere.

Brownville Brewery.—Conrad Shriner, of the Brownville Brewery, is making extensive and substantial improvements and additions to his present brewing establishment, at the head of Main street. At present he is building an additional cellar, increasing his capacity in that respect twice what it has been heretofore. Conrad will keep up with the times, and is determined to furnish this city with all the lager and ale it can dispose of, which is no small quantity. By-the-way, the Brownville Brewery has the reputation of making the best malt drinks in the country.

Speaking of a herd-law, we know of no place in the world where one is more deceded than in this city. At this season of the year and during winter, about twenty-five head of cows make their living off farmers' wagons coming into town. We know one or two that will "climb" a wagon quicker than a goat, or a boy hookin' watermelons. Let a grain wagon be left alone five minutes in the street, and the whole load is destroyed. It is an outrage, and ought not to be permitted. A man who is not able to feed his cow in winter, or who permits her to forage on country wagons, ought to be compelled to sell out.

Agricultural Newspapers.—The commencement of a new year will soon be upon us. Every farmer—besides taking his county paper, should take some good agricultural paper. We advise a trial for 1871 with Moore's "Rural New Yorker." We consider it the best agricultural and farming paper in the world. It is the largest, and contains more reading matter. It treats on agriculture and all kindred subjects, and contains in addition a vast amount of excellent family reading matter. Weekly: Terms, $3, or you can club with the Advertiser at $4.50, for the two. Address D. D. T. Moore, 41 Park Row New York City.

Bee Culture.—To the Editor and Author D. L. ADAIR, Hawsville, Kentucky, we are indebted for a full set of his publications on Bee Culture; The "Annals of Bee Culture" in two volumes, for 1869 and 1870; 72 pages well written and well selected matter and illustrated, pertaining to Bee Culture. Published annually. Price 50 cts. Also:

"A New System of Bee-Keeping," adopted to the habits and characteristics of the Honey-Bee, with descriptions, and directions for manageing; improved methods of artificial swarming, whereby the business of Bee-Keeping is rendered more profitable and pleasant, illustrated. Price 50 cts. Also:

"Outlines of Bee Culture," and Descriptive Catalogue, of Adair's Section Bee-Hive and Honey Boxes; the Mel-Extractor, or machine for emptying honey from the comb.

While not claiming to be thoroughly versed in Bee Culture, we are a lover of the "busy-bee;"—yea a worshiper and an experimenter of a few years standing. Bee culture and fruit growing are intimately—almost inseperably—connected. We have read Mr. Adair's publications with pleasure, and we trust profit. We are pleased with his Section-Hive, and can see but one possible objection, and that is the expense. In our opinion to make bee-culture profitable, the praticable point to gain is the expense of the hive.

For particulars, address D. L. Adair Hawsville, Hancock Co., Kentucky.

LITERARY NOTICES.

PETERS' MUSICAL MONTHLY.—The December number of Peters' Musical Monthly, price 30 cents, contains the following new and beautiful pieces of music: Fear not! or There's Pardon for us all, by J. Cox; Sweetest Love, I'll not forget thee, by Emmet; Little Dimpled Hands, by Persley; Meet me again to-morrow, Bessie, by Persley; Sunshine on the Sea, by Tucker; He Sleeps 'neath the Shade of the Willow, by Martin; The Star of Bethlehem, by Reichardt; Merry Christmas, Dressler; See the leaves around us falling, by La Hache; Through another Year conducted, by Reis; Pleasant Memories Waltz, Sweet Music, Driven from Home Waltz, Nobody's Darling Waltz, Damask Rose Schottische. Think of it! Fifteen pieces of realip good Music for 30 cents, any single piece being worth as much as the publisher asks for the entire lot. This seems strange to parties accustomed to pay from 30 to 50 cents for every piece of music they buy. It is trne nevertheless, and the subscribers to this valuable magazine are getting the lates and best new music for about two cents a piece. Send 30 cents for a sample copy. Address J. L. Peters, 599 Broadway, N. Y.

ARTHUR'S LADY'S HOME MAGAZINE.—The December number of this "Queen of the Lady's Magazines" is the richest and handsomest ever issued. The publishers announce their intention to make it lead all others for the coming year, in the richness and extent of its illustrations, the brilliancy of its novelets and stories, the beauty of its getting up, and the high tone of its reading." As an earnest of what is to come in 1871, we have in this number a fine steel colored fashion plate, a cartoon on toned paper, giving a lovely picture, called "The Welcome Home," a double fashion engraving, and a large variety of styles of dress and patterns for needlework. Send a stamp for postage to T. S. Arthur & Sons, Philadelphia, and get a copy of this elegant number of the "Lady's Home Magazine." You will, if you see it, surely want the magazine for 1871.

THE CHILDREN'S HOUR.—The December number of this pure and beautiful magazine closes the year, and we advise all who wish to put into the hands of their little ones a wise counselor, a loving friend, and a pleasant companion, to take it for 1871. T. S. Arthur, the editor, will commence a serial in the January number called, "The wonderful story of Gentle Hand," which cannot fail to be deeply interesting. A Holiday Supplement will be given with this number, containing nine Carols for Christmas, new and old, Send a stamp for postage to T. S. Arthur & Sons, Philadelphia, Pa.' and, get a specimen of "the Children's Hour.

THE APICULTURIST & HOME CIRCLE.—This is an eight page monthly, devoted to Bee Culture and choice family reading. Every family wants it. Every bee keeper needs it. Published on the 15th of every month at $1 a year in advance. Address W. G. Church, Mexico, Mo. The Advertiser and Apiculturist one year for $2.50.
