HELP WANTED—MALE

Miscellaneous.

THE NAVY HAS EVERY KIND OF WORK for ambitious men. Successful applicants for Navy positions find work not only as seamen, but as machinists, firemen, stenographers, bookkeepers, musicians, carpenters, blacksmiths, shipfitters, electricians, boilermakers, cooks, stewards, waiters and others.

Many young men who thought there was no congenial work in the Navy discover there more agreeable and varied positions than in civil life.

THE UNITED STATES NAVY offers a life that is healthy; work that is pleasant; excellent opportunity for promotion; the incentive to save money; and the finest of chances to learn by study and travel. And besides these things, companionship with ambitious men of good character.

The Navy Department never urges men to enlist, only to investigate Navy opportunities. It is worth the while of any man 17 to 35 years of age, to look into the subject of taking four years training in the Navy, or of making the Navy a life's work.

The nearest Navy Recruiting Station is at Postoffice Bldg., Omaha, Neb. The officer in charge will be glad to see parents and sons, and explain everything you wish to know about work, pay, promotion, retirement, recreation, etc. Or send for "The Making of a Man o' Warsman"; it is free. Address Bureau of Navigation, Box 209, Navy Department, Washington, D. C.
