MRS. WHITE.

—Stevenson & Cross have a nice stock of Majolica ware, China sets toys, and lots of nice things for Christmas presents.

—The Nemaha Times says stone is being hauled for the foundation of W. H. Hoover's brick block, to be erected next spring.

— Everybody who wants the best job printing done, and at the lowest rates, comes to THE ADVERTISER office.

—Another large invoice of New Victor Sewing machines, warranted a first class machine in every respect. Do not buy one until you examine the Victor. STEVENSON & CROSS.

—Persons traveling on the cars during the winter are subject to cold from the oft opened doors, which can be cured with a twenty-five cent bottle of Lung Syrup. Buy of your druggist.

— Mr. Joseph Curtis, owner now of the Allen mill, informs us that they have recently put in new bolting cloths, and otherwise improved the mill, and have a miller of thirty years experience making flour.

—There seems to be war on high prices amongst the merchants of this city these times, and they vie with each other in reducing prices on goods. The consequence is, they are selling goods right along, in immense quantities.

—Eld. J. J. Henry is again made the subject of a few remarks by the Tecumseh Journal. That paper claims to have letters from deacons of the church containing statements about the Elder which if true, ought to, and will settle his hash as a preacher and teacher in a respectable church. The locality whence these letters emanated is not stated by the Journal, but it says they came "from a place where he resided in 1876 and 1877, and are signed by three deacons of the church." The Journal says "the letters are too plain spoken to publish," but that "anyone interested in exposing this fraud can see the letters" at the Journal office. The decent portion of the Christian church will look after the matter of course, for they are not inclined to harbor any devils in the livery of heaven, even could they afford to do so.

HOLIDAY GOODS.

AN IMMENSE STOCK.

Books, albums, autograph albums, fancy toilet boxes, toys, vases, fancy cups and saucers, Majolica ware, dolls, drums, picture frames, etc., etc. I will not be undersold. Call and get prices.—At Drug Store of W. H. McCREERY.

—L. L. Hulburd's office, for the present, is with W. T. Rogers.

—Oak cord wood is now being shipped from this place to Lincoln.

—When Christmas comes on Sunday, Monday is the day generally observed as a holiday.

—Monday was another damp cloudy day. No frost in the ground, and river still free of ice.

—Nickell's display of holiday goods is actually immense. Call and see—it's a delightful show.

—James Stevenson recently received a pair of very fine Poland-China pigs from Church Howe.

—If you want a variety of local and general news in your home paper, take the ADVERTISER.

—The Fairmont Signal of the 16th says "a son was born to Mr. Body last week." We presume that was our old friend Charles, and we wish him and Mrs. B. much joy.

Good Farm for Sale.

For sale cheap, a fine 160 acre farm. Good buildings, pasture and water, in a good neighborhood, everything complete. J. S. STULL, 27w2 Brownville, Neb.

—Children cry for Dr. Marshall's Lung Syrup. It is the most pleasant preparation for coughs and colds known, and perfectly harmless. Price twenty-five and fifty cents a bottle. Sold by druggists.

—Our saloons seem to be run with considerable care for the respectability of the town these times; and an efficient marshal, we suspect, has much to do with the suppression of exhibitions of drunkenness on the streets, and disgraceful scenes incident thereto.

—Sheridan folks tell us that when Fellows of the Post gets a hard lick from the ADVERTISER he goes out and leans up against a hitching post and cries like a gal baby. We pity the dirty dunce, and should think he would learn that "little boats should keep near the shore."

—Nosey, of the Post, is a sort of a one-horse lawyer, (he used to sweep out Schick's office and clean the spittoons) but with the profession here he is regarded a cranky dead beat and a disgrace to the profession. A lawyer who will betray a client for a dollar witness fee as Nosey did in the Tanner case, ought to go west and join the cowboys instead of trying to edit a newspaper in a respectable community.

BROWN'S TWINS.

We are still making and selling our patent bed springs. They are superior to any bed spring made, and will last a lifetime.

—PICTORIAL ILLUSTRATIONS.—"The usefulness of pictures in a general way is seen by comparing the keenness of observation, the general intelligence, the accuracy of knowledge exhibited by children brought up in the midst of an abundance of wholesome illustrated literature, with the comparative dullness of vision and narrowness of information shown by those who have not been so privileged." The foregoing, which we take from the "Canada School Journal," truthfully applies to the 3000 illustrations in Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, in which more than 340 words and terms are illustrated and defined under the following twelve words: Beef, Boiler, Castle, Column, Eye, Horse, Moldings, Phrenology, Ravelin, Ships, Steam Engines, Timbers, as may be seen by examining the Dictionary.

One Experience from Many.

"I had been sick and miserable so long, and had caused my husband so much trouble and expense, no one seemed to know what ailed me, that I was completely disheartened and discouraged. In this frame of mind I got a bottle of Hop Bitters and used them unknown to my family. I soon began to improve and gain so fast that my husband and family thought it strange and unnatural, but when I told them what had helped me the said Hurrah for Hop Bitters! long may they prosper, for they have made mother well and us happy."—The mother.

Purify the blood and regulate the bowels, if you would have health. There is no remedy equal to Prickly Ash Bitters for this purpose. They act directly on the organs concerned, going to the seat of diseases and driving it from the system. Nor do they stop here, but strengthen the system, giving it tone and action, rendering it much more capable of resisting all future attacks.
