The Nebraska Herald.

LOCAL NEWS.

From Thursday's Daily.

A few large warehouses are needed near the railroad track.

A good foundry is almost an absolute necessity here. Who will start it?

Mr. Reed, R. R. yard master has already commenced to improve his property in the north part of the city.

The daily HERALD is now the best advertising medium west of the Missouri river. Everybody reads it.

Wayman & Curtis are finishing the iron railing around the porticos of the Brooks House.

The Kate Kinney arrived at our landing this morning. She has gone above, and will probably be down to-morrow morning.

Mickelwaits neighbors left him yesterday evening. In the language of the "sage of Ashland," he feels as though he had "let a bird go."

A school house is very much needed in the south part of the city, and one in the north part. We need at least three public schools within the city limits.—Just think of our seven or eight hundred children attending one school!

There are a large number of new residences going up in the north part of the city, near the Surveyor General's office. The are started so rapidly that we do not pretend to keep track of who the owners are.

A gentleman from Chicago, we did not learn his name, leased a couple of lots to-day on sixth street for the purpose of opening another large lumber yard.

It does not make a particle of difference to the people of this city whether the Chinese wear their hair plaited or twisted, so long as we can get five or six hundred houses erected here this season, and an hundred new business houses filled with goods.

Clark & Plummer are now receiving the first installment of a heavy stock of goods. They are making preparations to do a large business this season, and will sell at the lowest possible figures. Mr. Plummer is now east taking advantage of the low prices.

Geo. S. Harris, Esq., Land Commissioner of the B. & M. Co., arrived from Burlington by the morning express. We learn from him that the Scandinavians are settling in rapidly on the Company's lands in Iowa and that they may be looked for at Plattsmouth in large numbers soon.

It is astonishing the amount of lumber sold in Plattsmouth. This is the lumber market for the entire country west and south-west. We have some of the heaviest dealers here that the west affords, and more are coming.

Highee & Son are getting things fixed up in first-rate shape at the Brooks House. Every room is carpeted and furnished with new furniture, and guests will find everything just as it should be.

We were informed to day by one of the proprietors of an important addition to the city of Ashland that that city contained over 10,000 inhabitants. We judge he has passed a restless night there recently.

There is the best opening for a woolen factory in this city of any place we know of. Who wants to make money by taking hold of the enterprise.

A male tyrant in Chicago finds fault because his wife threw dishes into his face while he was sick and helpless. Being a woman of proper spirit she has gone to Plattsmouth with a gambler.—Ex.

The Democratic primary meetings were held in Nebraska City last Tuesday. Among all the delegates elected, not a single friend of Morton's was on the list, although it was said he made desperate efforts to secure their election. Poor Sterling.

W. R. Vaughan, Esq., publisher of the "Travelers Companion and Emigrants Hand Book to the country along the Burlington and Missouri River R. R.," called on us to-day and left a copy of his book for review. The work consists of a "visible admixture" of advertisements and historical and business sketches. It gives much valuable information relative to the country, and will no doubt be of benefit in inducing immigrants to the country along the line of the road.

From Friday's Daily.

The Kate Kinney passed down this morning.

The City Council advertises for sealed proposals for grading.

Hon. J. M. Thayer has our thanks for a full set of Congressional Globes for the 41st Congress.

Hon. A. B. Fuller and brother were in the city to-day. Abe goes east on business.

It is feared by some that the freeze last night will prove injurious to fruit trees.

Gov. Butler is in the southern part of the State. He was at Jenkin's Mill recently.

Mr. Joel Parcel has a few choice blackberry roots which he will sell to persons desiring a start. He has the celebrated Kittatinna and the Lawton.

The terms of consolidation have been agreed upon between the officers of the C. B. & St. Joe and the Missouri Valley railroad.

A boy named Futcher recently killed a man in Council Bluffs by striking him with an adze. It was done in defense of the boys father. The boy was arrested, tried and acquitted.

Private advices have been receved in this city from Cheyenne to the effect that there was a heavy fall of snow at that place last Wednesday night.

Mr. Paul Hill, Railroad transfer agent, tripped and fell while crossing Second street to-day. He was severely shocked by the fall, but sustained no serious injury.

The name of the deserter who committed suicide near Ft. Laramie recently, mentioned by our Wyoming correspondent, was Rolland Cathcart, formerly of Boston, Mass., and a painter by trade.

A lively time is anticipated at the Republican convention in Nebraska City tomorrow. Morton has been kicked out of his own party, and he is now endeavoring to divide the Republicans. We think he will receive a worse rebuke tomorrow than he did in the democratic convention.

We understand a large portion of the Railroad track on the low grounds at Omaha is under water, and that many buildings are submerged. There is a vast difference between the old muddy at Omaha and the old muddy at Plattsmouth. The high water has not caused the least inconvenience here, and has in no place got outside the banks.

Clark is moving his billiard tables today to his new rooms opposite the Brooks House.

Col. E. B. Taylor, editor of the Omaha Republican, has been on a trip to the national capital. He returned yesterday.

A runaway occured on Main street today, in which two or three teams became mixed up. Hon. S. Maxwell's buggy was upset and injured slightly. No serious damage was done.

A Nebraska City cotemporary makes quite a noise over the fact that seventeen wagons loaded with lumber had left that town in one day. That did very well for that place, but our lumbermen would think they were doing a poor business if any one of the half dozen yards failed to sell that amount every day.

Mr. Redick is about to contract for the erection of the big hotel at Omaha.—The Republican says his proposition is to devote the three upper stories to hotel purposes, and pertinently asks whether Redick will furnish the ladders for the guests to get up to the windows.

The St. Joseph Union informs its readers that the services of a Nebraska correspondent has been secured in the person of H. M. VanArmand, of Plattsmouth We are pleased to learn that Van is doing what he can to advertise Nebraska.

Merchants from the west will do well to stop and examine goods and prices here before going farther east for a stock. Our merchants are preparing to do a general wholesale business.

Our Nebraska City friends derive much benefit from the completion of the B. & M. R. R. to this city. If they will only take hold and build a stub up to this place it will give them good railroad facilities.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Robert Morrow, of this city, will leave for Plattsmouth in a day or two. Rumor ha h it that he will return with an extra rib. Plattsmouth Herald please copy. Captain J. P. Moore will officiate as one of the bridegrooms.—Republican, 10th.

The above escaped our notice until today. We are anxious to know how many bridegrooms there will be.

The HERALD has called attention on several occasions to the need of a foundry in this city. We are pleased to state now that our call has brought the man, and that a foundry will be started as soon as the necessary arrangements can be perfected.

A subscriber to the Daily HERALD remarked yesterday that a copy of the paper had saved him the little item of $3 the day previous. After reading the local news, he gave the advertisements a glance, (like all sensible men) and discovered that a certain house advertised an article which he needed. He gave them a call, and found he could save three dollars on the small amount he wished to purchase. He made three dollars, and the advertisers made a fair profit This thing occurs every day.

From Saturday's Daily.

The river has been falling for a couple of days past.

Rev. Mr. Cameron is erecting a neat residence in the north part of town.

Our new city council are taking hold like they intended to accomplish something during their term of office.

The object supposed to be a "gun boat," at the mouth of Platte, proves to be a "fishing smack" from Omaha.

Mr. L. White, Esq., is erecting a commodious dwelling on his addition to the city.

The Magee has been at work at the railroad landing for the past two days, getting the new landing ready.

Commissioner Harris left for Burlington on the evening express train. He will return Tuesday.

Guthman & Huberty are remodeling the front of their bakery sales room. A nice open front is being put in.

Maxwell & Chapman will move their law office about the first of next month to the room heretofore occupied by Dr. John Black, in the Masonic Block.

John Manly, Esq., the great tracklayer on the Chicago, Plattsmouth and San Francisco line of railroad, left for Wisconsin yesterday. He will be absent a couple of weeks.

How about the street lamps. The Ordinance has been passed, but it requires some further action to get the posts and lamps in shape.

J. C. Fuller, Esq., of Ashland, gave us a call this morning. We learn from him that the new hotel will probably be opened in the course of a week or ten days.

Geo. S. Smith, Esq., contemplates erecting a new residence this spring.—He has already purchased several very fine lots, thus proving his faith in the future of the city by investing his means. Sensible.

VanArmand & Co., will organize their great railroad enterprise to day. Business prevented our short hand reporter being present. Van informs us that Gen. Dodge is to take a heavy enterest in the concern, and that he (Van) declines being a regular correspondent for the St. Joe Union.

The great P. T. Barnum is expected in Plattsmouth soon. He will take this city on his way to the Pacific. He goes by the Chicago, Plattsmouth and San Francisco route. Our citizens should secure him for at least one lecture as he passes through.

It is strongly hinted that some of the officers assisted in the escape of the Fremont murderer named Smith. He had not been gone more than half an hour before he was missed, yet no clue to his whereabouts, nor the direction he went can be found, notwithstanding hundreds of citizens turned out on the hunt. His brother had left the town two days previous, taking with him all the extra clothing of the prisoner.

The railroad company are planking their tracks across Main street, so as to permit the crossing of wagons.

Read the following letter from one of the oldest and most reliable grocery merchants in the city of Davenport.

FRIEND WALTON:

Agreeably to my promise to you when here, I write you, for publication if you see proper, a true statement of the good effects of Roback's Stomach Bitters upon myself. I had been troubled with indigestion for a long time, attended with severe headache particularly after eating, when fortunately an old soldier friend came into the store and recommended me to use Roback's Bitters. I did so by taking a small wine-glass full just before each meal, and to my great joy I was relieved at once, and am now well by their use. I would not be without them at any price. I have not taken any other medicine since I commenced using the Bitters. And I can say with a clear conscience, try Roback's Bitters—they will do all they are recommended to do—if taken according to directions.

Yours truly,
