LOCAL NEWS

Who would do without apples while they can be had of Buck at so trifling a cost.

The Chronicle learns of an effort being made to divide Otoe county, also that a new town site for a county seat is the prime cause for the movement.

Since hearing from New York we would not be surprised to hear that Kentucky had given a Republican majority.

The unusual sight of a drove of wild horses was witnessed at the post-office this morning. Streight managed to corral several of them, and they can be seen there if you call soon.

No wonder some of the leading Democrats think it will be worse than folly to run a candidate for President in 1872.—They must have anticipated the result in New York.

Train lectured at Nebraska City Monday night, and the Chronicle says he "fully convinced the people left in our city who didn't know it before, that he is the biggest swell-head, bag of wind and bloated blatherskite there is loose in the country. With all his crack-brained blowing, he couldn't scare up fools enough to organize a Train League."

Seymour and his "friends" seem to be on the "down grade" in politics just now. The "friends" are badly beaten in New York city and the people of Seymour's Assembly district have decided that they do not really need him to represent them in any capacity.

The store of Mohrenstecher & Kloeber, at Nebraska City, was entered by burglars last Monday night. The burglars searched for money, but found none, and left without molesting anything.—The same night an attempt was made to enter Patch's Jewelry Store, but the falling of a piece of glass scared the robbers away. We glean from the Chronicle.

Mrs. Phœba Eliza Mathewson, of Lincoln, is becoming quite a popular lecturer on Woman Suffrage. We understand she contemplates a visit to our city at no distant day. The Council Bluffs Times says:—Mrs. Mathewson has converted nearly all the old fogy editors of Nebraska as well as nine-tenths of the people there to Woman's Rights. If all the woman's rights women were as good-looking, talented, logical and pleasing as Mrs. Mathewson, we don't know, but we too would fall in."

A story is in circulation that the M. P. Railroad Company has offered to sell the road to Lincoln to the B. & M. Co., for the sum of $950,000 00. The records of this county show a mortgage on the road for the sum of $1,100,000 00 and we cannot conceive of any circumstances under which the Company would sell at that price and pay a mortgage of $150,000 00 more. It would be nearer our ideas of the character of a corporation to let the mortgage take the line.—Neb. City Chronicle.

Severe weather is reported west, and four feet of snow at Big Cottonwood.—It is feared the miners will suffer, as provisions cannot be obtained in many localities in consequence of the snow and severity of the storm.

A few crossings on Main street would be acceptable during this kind of weather.

Capt. Hoover was in the city to day. He reports his arrangements nearly perfected for erecting pottery manufactories at Louisville. The Omaha Republican is mistaken about Mr. Goodwin having control of the land. Mr. Hoover retains a full interest in the entire thing—lands, manufactories, and all.

Nebraska City and Brownville are vieing with each other to ascertain who shall secure what is known as the Iowa and Missouri State Line railroad.

Is it not about time our people were taking steps to secure the construction of a High School building?

Recent experiments have proven that the white clay found at Louisville, on the B. & M. R. R. west from this city, makes a very superior article of Pottery, also of fire brick, the latter resisting a greater heat than any other known brick. Steps are being taken to open manufactories.

We learn that Gov. James contemplates issuing a call for a session of the Legislature, to convene just prior to the date to which the adjournment was made last winter. This gives him the opportunity to designate what subjects shall be legislated upon.

Lincoln gave 564 majority in favor the bonds for the Atchison and Nebraska Railroad. The Journal thinks this places the adoption of the proposition beyond a doubt.

Senator Hitchcock has gone to Washington. He will not return until after the session of Congress.

The unfinished fourth span of the railroad bridge at Omaha was blown over yesterday. No one hurt.

Superintendent Wise has opened his office in the Probate Judge's office, where those in search of him can always find him when not otherwise employed.

J. M. Strong, of Seward, is in the city. He says Seward is a great place, and has a great amount of land to the acre. He is in the land business.

Judge Ellison took possession of the office this morning. The Judge is a good, square man, and those who seek justice will never regret the choice of Judge Ellison.

Judge Dundy was too sick to hold court at Omaha yesterday.

Hon. T. M. Marquett has been in Omaha for a couple of days past.

A Wholesale Grocery House in Plattsmouth would pay better than any investment we know of.

It will pay the farmers of Iowa to haul their corn to Plattsmouth. It is worth ten cents per bushel more in this city than it is across the river, and that will pay for hauling it some distance. Plattsmouth is the best grain market in the west, without a single exception.

BUSINESS.

This morning's train from Lincoln was composed of fifty freight cars, a baggage car and passenger coach. That looks like business.

"PLAYING OUT."

What answer do those men who claim that the Republican party is "playing out"—that its mission is accomplished—have to make to New York? The principles of the Republican party are as undying as the principles of self government, and the mission of the party will never be accomplished so long as there is need of reform in politics.

"The Light Gone Out."

The telegrams of to-day announce that the light has gone out of Tammany Hall, and that this world-renowned institution was not opened on the evening after the election. The light has "gone out of Tammany" in more sense than one; and it has not only gone out of Tammany, but the little gleam of hope which any credulous democrat may have had of the future has also faded and "gone out" with the fading of the Tammany light. Thus may it ever be with politics and politicians of the Tammany-democratic stripe.

THE COFFEE SOCIABLE

Given by the ladies of the M. E. Church, last week was attended by a very large number of people, and all seemed to enjoy the occasion and view it as one of those happy reunions which are so highly prized by all lovers of social intercourse. Those present were favored with some very excellent and well-timed remarks from Hon. James H. Sturgeon, of St. Louis, and Gov. Scott, of Ohio. These gentlemen spoke of the pleasure it gave them to be present, as the occasion demonstrated the fallacy of the popular idea of eastern people that we had no society, no refinement, no churches, no schools (or at least a very meagre supply of these things) in the "far west," as it is called by them, and they assured the assembly that they should take delight, hereafter, in telling their eastern friends that society in Nebraska is fully up to the standard of other and older States. These social gatherings are doing much to elevate the standard of society in our city, and it is hoped they may become more universal than they now are. They have the best wishes of the HERALD, and can always depend upon an encouraging word from it.

PLATTSMOUTH LODGE, NO. 6, A. F. & A. M.

At a meeting held on Monday the 6th of Nov., 1871, the following resolutions were adopted:

1st Resolved, that a committee be appointed to express the sympathy of this Lodge to Brother Amison in his great bereavement at the loss of his beloved wife.

2d. Resolved, That the same be published in the local papers.

3rd. Resolved, That the Secretary forward one copy to Brother Amison.

In entering upon this duty the committee desire to reassure our stricken Brother and his afflicted family, that the tenderest, loving sympathy of every member of this Lodge is theirs—that their sorrow is ours, and that in their affliction we are afflicted. Yet the committee can but feel that all human sympathy is weak compared with that of the Great Sympathist who came "to bind up the broken hearted;" that Brother who was "born to adversity;" that "friend who sticketh closer than a brother." We would therefore most lovingly beg of our friends, in the depth of their sorrow, to look to the Man of Sorrows, who has shed His blood, and laid down His life for us all. "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends," who has assured us that through those earthly trials the angel of His presence shall sustain us and lead us to a rest eternal in the heavens, if, in the fullness of resignation, we commit ourselves and all our disposals into His hands.

THEREFORE, While we pray that the bereavement, which they have sustained, may lead our Brother and his family to cleave more closely to His divine friend, and while we sympathize with them in their loss, we cannot forget the great blessings which remain to them, one and all, and the high and holy responsibilities which they involve.

The faithful wife is taken away, but the tender, loving children, the "olive branches round about the table," are left. The affectionate mother is gone, but the strong, yet gentle father, the house-band remains. May they all so live together in this world that in the world to come they may have "life everlasting."

ADOLPHE D'ALLEMAND,
FRANK STADTER,
C. E. FORGY. } Com.

The brick work on Parmele's building approaches completion.

The Lincoln Journal has changed to a morning paper.

The result in New York shows about the number of illegal votes that have heretofore been polled by the Tammany outfit. Twenty thousand Republican majority with an honest vote, and forty thousand democratic majority under the auspices of Tammany shows the number of repeaters and illegal votes—only sixty thousand.

Chicago was without gas for nearly two weeks, and it never occurred to them to send for George Francis Train!—Leavenworth Bulletin.

The trouble was they rather accused Train of being instrumental in cutting off the supply—and not monopolizing the article, either—vide Chicago Times on the Nationale.

A Peru correspondent of the Brownville Advertiser says: "Whatever any one may think of Col. Majors' political record, that road that he and other citizens have made in the northwest part of town is a credit to any man, and it didn't cost the town a cent. Go it Tom, and if they cut off your political head the good people of Peru will elect you road supesvisor next year."

"Luxuries of Modern Travel."

THE LAND OWNER FOR 1871

As an advertising medium, THE LAND OWNER stands without an equal in the country. Its beautiful print and fine engravings prohibit its wanton destruction like most other paper, and it is kept for binding at the end of the year. Its circulation is throughout the United States and Canada, and is increasing beyond all precedent in the annals of journalism, showing that the public appreciate its worth. Its subscribers and regular readers are large land holders, real estate agents, bankers, capitalists and persons seeking land investments for money. It therefore becomes the only medium through which persons having lands to sell can reach a customer. As landmen are constantly improving their lands by the erection of large and costly edifices, which we constantly illustrate, it is therefore the most available medium for advertising all kinds of building materials, the cards of architects, etc.

Subscription $3.00 per annum.

Business cards of Real Estate Agents inserted in the Real Estate Agents Directory, classified by cities and towns, not exceeding four lines of solid nonpariel type, $10 per year, which also includes a copy of the paper. This is the most important feature of the journal, as the directory now embraces a majority of the leading firms of the country, and is convenient for reference.

Advertisement less than quarter column 40 cents per line solid nonpariel type. Editorial matter 50 cents per line leaded brevier type.

All bills for advertising on time contracts payable quarterly in advance. Transient advertisements must be accompanied by the cash to insure insertion in the succeeding issue.

Terms for special pieces, prices of Cartoons, engravings of buildings, etc., sent on application by mail.
